ARTICLE III

A. The City recognizes the Association associated R.W.D.S.U.-A.F.L.-C.I.O. as the exclusive negotiating agent and representative for all supervisors included in the bargaining unit in accordance with the certification by Public Employment Relations Commission (P.E.R.C.), Docket No. RO 8L-1-117.

B. The City agrees that the Association has the right to negotiate for employees within its unit as to rates of pay, hours of work and fringe benefits, working conditions, safety conditions, procedures for adjustment of disputes and grievances, and all other related matters as contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE IV

GRIEVANCE PROCEDUREA. Definition

A grievance is any dispute between parties concerning the application or interpretation of this Agreement of any complaint by any employees as to any action or nonaction taken toward him/her which violates any right arising out of his/her employment. Where there is no Civil Service remedy, an employee may grieve for just cause of disciplinary actions.

B. Procedures

Step 1. The aggrieved or the Association shall institute action under the provisions hereof within ten (10) working days after the event giving rise to the grievance has occurred, or reasonable knowledge thereof, and such action will be taken upon in writing with the employee's immediate supervisor. Failure to act within said ten (10) working days shall be deemed to constitute an abandonment of the grievance. The supervisors shall respond in writing to the grievance within ten (10) working days. Failure to respond within said ten (10) working days shall be deemed to constitute an award of the grievance.

Step 2. If no agreement can be reached after Step 1, the employee or the Association may present the grievance in writing within ten (10) working days of receiving the response of the immediate supervisor to the department head, his/her designated representative or the appropriate superior within the organizational structure. The department head, his/her designated representative or the appropriate superior within the organizational structure will answer the grievance in writing within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written grievance.

Step 3. The Director of the department shall respond within ten (10) working days in writing; if not settled, the grievance may be moved to Step 4.

Step 4. If the Director of the Department's answer is not satisfactory to the Union, then the Union may move the grievance to the Personnel Director. The matter shall be discussed between the Union and the Personnel Director within fifteen (15) days of the response date set forth for Step 3, and the Personnel Director shall have ten (10) days thereafter to file his written response.

Step 5. In the event the grievance is not resolved at the fourth step, either party may refer the matter to impartial arbitration.

C. Arbitration

Any party wishing to move a grievance to arbitration shall notify the Public Employment Relations Commission that they are moving a grievance to arbitration and request that a list of arbitrators be furnished to the employer and the employee. If the City and the employee cannot mutually arrive at a satisfactory arbitrator within thirty (30) working days after the receipt of the list from the Public Employment Relations Commission, the Commission shall select an arbitrator. The arbitrator shall hear the matter on the evidence and within the meaning of the Agreement and such rules and regulations as may be in effect by the Civil Service Commission of the State of New Jersey which might be pertinent and render his/her award in writing, which shall be final and binding. The cost of the arbitrator's fee shall be shared by the City and the Association. Any steward or officers of the Association required in the grievance procedure to settle disputes on any arbitration shall be released from work without loss of pay for such purpose and any witness reasonably required shall be made available during working hours without loss of pay for the purpose of disposing of any grievance or arbitration matter.
