This representation fee in lieu of dues shall only be available to the Union if a demand and return system that fully complies with all legal requirements is provided to the Board.

C. Hold Harmless

The Union agrees to indemnify and hold the Employer harmless against any and all causes of action, claims, suits, orders, judgments, or other issues asserted against the Employer or the Union under the provisions of this Article of the Agreement and for any attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Employer in connection with any such cause of action, claim, suit, order or judgment that may be filed.

ARTICLE 3
MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Except as otherwise specifically provided herein, the Employer hereby retains and reserves unto itself, without limitation, all powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in it prior to the signing of this Agreement by the laws and Constitutions of the State of New Jersey, and the United States, including, but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following rights:

- D. To suspend, demote, discharge or take any other disciplinary action for good and just cause according to law, or to lay off employees in the event of a lack of work or funds or under conditions where continuation of such work would be inefficient; and
- E. Except as specifically otherwise provided in this Agreement, all rights, powers and authority not specifically restricted by this Agreement are retained and remain exclusively and without limitation within the right of management. The Union, on behalf of the employees, recognizes that the primary obligation of the Bergenfield Public Library is to serve the public. Consequently, the Union and the Board agree to cooperate to mutually attain and maintain full efficiency and maximum service.

ARTICLE 4

NO STRIKE – NO LOCKOUT

Neither the Union nor any of its members shall engage in, cause, assist or encourage a job action, strike, work stoppage, sit-down, slow-down, sick call action, boycott, picketing of any of the Employer's places of business, or any other form of interference with Library operations during the term of this Agreement. Inciting, inducing or participating in any such activity shall constitute cause for suspension, discharge and/or any other appropriate discipline as determined by the Board. The Union agrees to discourage and take whatever steps are necessary to prevent or terminate any strike, work stoppage, slow-down, walk-out, sit-down, picketing (with the exception of informational/non-job action picketing, which shall be done on non-work time and which shall not interfere with the operation of the Library), or other job action against the Bergenfield Public Library.

The Bergenfield Public Library will not engage in any lockout of employees covered by this Agreement during the term thereof.

2. The Union shall advise the Board in writing of the names of its representatives who will negotiate any agreement with the Board.
3. Members of the Union who are elected by the Union to negotiate with management shall not be granted time off with pay or compensatory time unless negotiations with management are mutually scheduled during hours when the members are scheduled to work.
4. Employees shall have the right for a steward to be present during any meeting which the employee believes may result in his/her discipline.
5. No reprisals shall be incurred as a result of pursuing a grievance or disciplinary appeal through the Grievance Procedure set forth herein.
6. The Union will be permitted to hold meetings as approved by the Library Director in the Bergenfield Public Library during normal Library hours to be attended by Union members on non-work time. Said meetings shall comply with all rules and regulations of the Library. Union stewards and members shall also have the right to distribute written materials relating to Union matters and to discuss Union matters with employees on non-work time.

B. Bulletin Board

The Employer shall furnish space for a Union bulletin board in an area not open to the general public.

ARTICLE 6

DISCIPLINE AND GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. Purpose

1. The purpose of this procedure is to secure at the lowest possible level, equitable solutions to problems which may arise affecting the terms and conditions of employment. The parties agree that this procedure will be kept as informal as may be appropriate.
2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting the right of any employee having a problem to discuss the matter informally with any appropriate member of his/her department or management. If such discussion involves a matter covered by the definition of a grievance, the Union shall be advised of the adjustment of the issue.

B. Discipline

Employees may only be disciplined for just cause. Discipline includes termination, suspension, demotion, and transfer. Scheduling work hours and days shall not be considered discipline unless done in retaliation or punishment for permitted conduct. All disciplinary measures are subject to the Grievance Procedure set forth below.

C. Grievance Procedure

The term “grievance” shall mean a complaint by an employee or employees that there has been a violation, misinterpretation or incorrect application of any of the provisions of this Agreement or of Library policies or practices that affect the terms and conditions of employment of employees covered by this Agreement. Solely for purposes of Article 6 of this agreement, the term “working days” shall mean Monday through Friday. Employees who serve as witnesses during a grievance hearing shall be able to do so without loss of pay for the time actually spent as a witness and should not be penalized in any way for such service.

1. Step One: A grievance shall be raised within seven (7) working days after the occurrence of the grievance or within seven (7) working days after the grievant would reasonably be expected to know of its occurrence. The grievance shall be submitted either orally or in writing by the grievant to his/her immediate supervisor or department head. Failure by the grievant to act within seven (7) days shall be deemed to constitute an abandonment of the grievance by the grievant.
2. Step Two: In the event the grievance is not resolved within seven (7) working days of its submission to the grievant’s immediate supervisor or department head, the grievance may be submitted by the grievant in writing within seven (7) working days thereafter to the Library Director. The written grievance shall be submitted on a Grievance Form maintained by the Library Director (a copy of which is annexed hereto as Appendix 1) and shall clearly, concisely and thoroughly set forth the position of the grievant or the Union, and, at the request of either party, a discussion with the Library Director may ensue in an attempt to resolve the grievance. If not resolved by discussion with the Library Director, the Library Director shall answer the grievance within twelve (12) working days after receipt of the written grievance, setting forth the position of the Employer. In the event the grievant or the Union does not submit a written grievance within the time set forth in this Step Two, the grievance shall be deemed abandoned.

3. Step Three: In the event that the grievance is not resolved at Step Two, within seven (7) working days of the receipt of a written response from the Library Director, or of the time limitation for response by the Library Director when no response is received, the grievant may present the grievance in writing to the Library Board of Trustees or, at the Board's option, to a Grievance Committee comprised of at least three (3) members of the Board, for consideration at the next regularly scheduled Board meeting or within thirty (30) days of the Board's receipt of the grievance, whichever is shorter. The final decision of the Library Board of Trustees or the Grievance Committee shall be given within twenty (20) working days after the Board meeting when the grievance is considered or is otherwise considered. Failure to submit the grievance to the Board within the time frame set forth in Step Three shall be deemed an abandonment of that grievance.
4. Step Four: Mediation. If the grievance is not resolved at Step Three, or the Board does not issue a decision within the time frame set forth in Step Three, the grievance may, within twenty (20) working days, be moved to the State Board of Mediation where an appointed mediator will hear the issues and render a non-binding recommendation. Failure to move the grievance to the State Board of Mediation within twenty (20) working days shall be deemed an abandonment of that grievance.
5. Step Five: If the grievance is not resolved through Steps One, Two, Three or Four, either party may refer the matter to the State Board of Mediation, within twenty (20) working days after the recommendation of the mediator in Step Four is issued, for binding arbitration of any dispute concerning imposition of reprimands and discipline, or for non-binding arbitration for all other disputes under this Agreement. Said request may be made only when the grievance alleges a specific violation of the Agreement, as detailed in Section C of this Article. All other grievances end with the decision of the Library Board of Trustees.

An arbitrator shall be selected pursuant to the rules and procedures of the State Board of Mediation. Different claims of individual Union Members may not be joined together in a single arbitration unless the Board and the Union agree in writing. The costs of the services of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Board and the Union. Any other expenses incurred in connection with the arbitration shall be paid by the party incurring the same.

The Arbitrator shall hear the matter on the evidence and within the meaning of this Agreement and shall be without power or authority to make any decision which requires the commission of an act prohibited by law or which violates this Agreement. He/she shall have no power to add to or subtract from or modify any of the terms of this Agreement nor shall he/she in any case have the power to rule on any issue or dispute not included in the definition of a grievance as contained in this article.

The arbitrator may prescribe an appropriate back pay remedy if applicable when he/she finds a violation of this Agreement, provided such a remedy is permitted by law, and is consistent with the terms of this Agreement, except that he/she may not make an award which exceeds the Employer's authority.

The decision or award of the arbitrator with respect to issues concerning imposition of reprimands and discipline shall be final and binding on the Employer, the Union, and the grievant or grievants. The decision of the arbitrator with respect to all other disputes under this Agreement shall be non-binding.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as compelling the Union to submit a grievance to arbitration. The Union's decision to request the movement of a grievance to arbitration or to terminate the grievance prior to submission to arbitration shall be final as to the interests of the grievant and the Union.

Failure to refer the grievance to the State Board of Mediation for arbitration within twenty (20) working days after a recommendation by a mediator is issued shall be deemed an abandonment of that grievance.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

The Employer agrees to remedy any violation of the Borough of Bergenfield health codes, PEOSHA regulations or the New Jersey Indoor Air Quality Standards that may exist in the Library. When such violation necessitates closing, the Library will not reopen until the appropriate agency declares the Library to be safe. If employees are required to vacate the premises because of unhealthy or unsafe conditions, they shall not suffer any loss of pay.

Closing

If a decision is made by the Library Director, Assistant Director, or Person-in-Charge not to open the building because of extreme weather conditions, because of some other emergency which warrants keeping the building closed, or if the Governor of the State of New Jersey declares a snow emergency affecting Bergenfield, staff will be paid for their hours, as scheduled. Part-time staff will be asked to make up those hours for which they have been paid. Effort should be made to reschedule make-up hours at a mutually convenient time within the same or next pay period.

Delayed Opening

If a decision is made by the Library Director, Assistant Director, or Person-in-Charge to call a delayed opening, staff who report to work will be paid, as scheduled.

Early Closing

If a decision is made by the Library Director, Assistant Director, or Person-in-Charge to call an early closing, all full-time staff will be paid for all hours scheduled to work that day.

Part-time staff whose regularly scheduled hours occur before a delayed opening or after an early closing will be paid for those hours, but will be asked to make up those hours for which they have been paid. Effort should be made to reschedule make-up hours in consultation with the Department Head or Library Director at a mutually convenient time within the same or next pay period.

Early Closings and Leave Time

There is no leave time given for an emergency closing, whether it is a delayed opening, early closing or decision not to open the library. If an emergency occurs while an employee is on a scheduled leave (vacation, holiday, personal time, bereavement, compensatory time or day off) and the Library is closed, the employee, full-time or part-time, is not entitled to additional paid time off.

If an employee calls in sick or otherwise notifies the Library that she or he has made the decision not to come to work before the Library Director or Person-in-Charge decides on a late opening or an early closing, the hours missed will be recorded as an absence. Any staff person who decides to leave early, before an early closing has been called, may arrange with his/her Department Head to make up the time at a mutually convenient time within the same or next pay period. Otherwise, hours missed will be recorded as an absence. Staff scheduled for a late day will not receive a dinner hour if an early closing is decided upon before 4:45 p.m.

The Union has the right to raise a matter of health and safety and Management shall appropriately consider the issue and respond, where appropriate, as soon as possible. No employee shall be discharged or otherwise disciplined for filing any reasonable complaint or instituting or causing to be instituted any proceeding based upon a reasonable complaint relating to occupational safety or health. No employee shall be discharged or otherwise disciplined for testifying in any such proceeding pursuant to law, or because of the exercise by such employee of any right afforded under PEOSHA, whether or behalf of the employee or others.

OUT OF TITLE WORK

In the event an employee is assigned to perform work in a job classification higher than his/her job group for 75% or more of each working day for a period in excess of forty-five (45) total days in any calendar year during which this agreement is in effect, or thirty (30) consecutive working days, the employee shall be paid at the lowest salary in effect for the higher rated title for such period. This provision will not apply to employees who take part in voluntary training activities and programs involving out of title work.

ARTICLE 25

CONTINUING EDUCATION

At the discretion of the Library Director and subject to budgetary constraints and scheduling needs, the Board where appropriate will pay the registration fees for full-time and part-time employees to attend the New Jersey Library Association Conference and/or the New Jersey Association of Library Assistants Conference. Each day spent by an employee actually in attendance at the New Jersey Library Association Conference or at the New Jersey Association of Library Assistants Conference shall be considered to be a maximum of seven (7) hours of Library work time, regardless of the total number of hours actually spent in attendance in excess thereof.

ARTICLE 26

FULL-TIME EMPLOYEES

An employee who works a regular work week of thirty-five (35) or more hours shall be deemed to be a full-time employee. An employee who works less than a regular thirty-five (35) hour work week shall be deemed to be a part-time employee.

ARTICLE 27

NON-DISCRIMINATION

Neither party to this agreement shall discriminate against any employee on account of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, sexual orientation or membership or non-membership in the Union. Any such claim of discrimination, including, but not limited to, claims brought pursuant to any and all federal, state and/or local statutes, rules, codes or ordinances, and this agreement shall be subject to the grievance procedure set forth in Article 6.

ARTICLE 28

GENDER

Throughout this agreement, the feminine gender shall include the masculine gender and vice versa.

ARTICLE 29

SAVINGS CLAUSE

If any provisions of this Agreement should be held invalid by operation of law or regulation by any tribunal of competent jurisdiction, or if compliance with or endorsement of any provision should be restrained by such tribunal or appropriate administrative agency pending a final determination as to the validity, such provisions shall be inoperative but all other provisions shall not be affected and shall thereby continue in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 30

FULLY BARGAINED CLAUSE

The foregoing constitutes the entire Agreement between the parties and settles for the term of this Agreement all matters that were or might have been raised in all collective bargaining negotiations leading up to the signing of this Agreement. This Agreement shall supersede any and all prior agreements, rules and regulations, or practices of the Board which are inconsistent with its terms. This Agreement may be altered, added to, deleted from or modified only by voluntary mutual consent of the parties in a written and signed amendment.

Nothing herein shall be construed to supersede any decision issued by a Governmental Agency of competent jurisdiction relevant to the issues covered in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 31

DURATION OF AGREEMENT

This Agreement shall be effective July 1, 2011 through December 31, 2014. This Agreement, and all its provisions, shall remain in full force and effect during any period of negotiations on a succeeding contract if said negotiations continue beyond the expiration date of this Agreement.

Either party to this Agreement may serve notice in writing of their intention to modify, terminate, or change this Agreement no sooner than one hundred twenty (120) days nor later than ninety (90) days prior to its expiration.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals at the Borough of Bergenfield, New Jersey on this 14th day of JUNE, 2012.
