NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and of the mutual covenants hereinafter entered into for other good and valuable considerations, the parties hereto agree to the following:

ARTICLE 1.

UNION RECOGNITION

Section 1. The Employer hereby recognizes and acknowledges that the Union is the exclusive representative for all Operating Engineers employed by the employer in its Maintenance Department, excluding watchmen, guards, professional employees and supervisors, for the purpose of collective negotiations.

For purposes of this Agreement the term Operating Engineers shall include all employees employed in the Maintenance Department of the Employer who are engaged in the operation of the following described equipment:

Cranes, municipal-type sweepers and brooms, back hoes, dozers, graders, scrapers, loaders, ride-on rollers and floor scrubbers, large topsoil machines, power-driven post hole diggers, air compressors, water pumps in excess of 3 inches, generators of 5000 or more watts, welding equipment as well as such other vehicles or equipment as may be designated and assigned from time-to-time by the Employer and who are also engaged in the maintenance and repair of:

All equipment described above as well as all tractors, trucks, passenger vehicles and such other vehicles and equipment as may be designated and assigned from time-to-time by the Employer.

ARTICLE 2.

CHECK-OFF

The Employer hereby agrees to deduct from the wages of employees, by means of check-off, those dues uniformly required by the Union pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.A. 52:14-15.9e. The Employer, after receipt of written authorization from each individual employee, agrees to deduct from the salaries of said employees all dues as may be deducted by law. Such deductions shall be made from the first salary paid to each employee during the month.

In making the deductions and transmittals as above specified, the Employer shall rely upon the most recent communication from the Union as to the amount due on account of such deductions. The total amount deducted shall be paid to the Local Union within ten (10) days after such deduction is made.

The Employer agrees to forward the full name and address of all new employees in the bargaining unit to the Union, within thirty (30) days of the date of employment. The Employer further agrees to notify the Union when unit employees are discharged, granted leaves of absence, absent due to illness or injury, on vacation or leave the employ of the Employer for any reason whatsoever, when submitting the dues deduction list to the Union office each month.

ARTICLE 3.

HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

Section 1. The work week shall be Monday through Sunday both inclusive and shall be comprised of eight (8) hour days.

Section 2. All hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours per day and forty (40) hours in a work week shall be considered overtime and be paid for at the rate of one and one-half (1½) times the employees regular hourly rate.

Section 3. The work week shall extend from Monday thru Sunday, inclusive of both days. When the Employer in its discretion determines that there is a need for an employee to work on a scheduled day off, the employee shall be required to perform such work, provided that reasonable notice is given to the affected employee. No employee shall be required to work more than eight (8) consecutive work days during a fourteen (14)-day work period.

Section 4. Employees scheduled on eight and one-half (8½) hour shifts shall be entitled to not less than one-half (½) hour non-paid lunch time in accordance with posted schedules at such reasonable times as may be determined by the Employer.

Section 5. The Employer agrees that if an employee reports for work or is permitted to come to work, and is fit to work, without having been previously notified that there will be no work, the employee shall receive eight (8) hours pay or eight (8) hours work at his regular hourly rate unless the lack of work is due to an Act of God, in which case the employee, who has reported to work but has not begun work, shall receive two (2) hours straight time wages.

Section 6. A regular employee shall receive credit toward weekly overtime entitlement for all hours paid but not worked (holiday, sick, jury, bereavement, vacation pay).

Section 7. Overtime shall be equally distributed among all employees by rotation according to seniority within a classification.

ARTICLE 4.

- (c) Employees, in order to qualify for vacation pay, must have worked at least one thousand and forty (1,040) working hours between anniversary dates of hire.

Section 2. The final right in determination of the vacation period of any employee is exclusively reserved to the Employer in order to insure continuous and maximum production. However, vacation will, so far as is possible and determined by the Employer, be granted at the time most desired by the employee. Vacation pay shall be paid prior to the employee's vacation period.

Section 3. Vacations will be computed on the employee's anniversary dates of hire.

Section 4. After completing one (1) year of employment, the Employer agrees that in the event an employee is laid off because of a lack of work before his vacation period, he shall be compensated for any accrued vacation time that may be due to him in accordance with the above schedule, based on one twelfth (1/12) for each month or part of each month worked. In the event that a laid-off employee is called back to work before the vacation period starts, at the time of vacation period, he will be granted the difference between his accrued vacation pay and whatever he had been paid at the time of the layoff.

ARTICLE 5.

HOLIDAYS

Section 1. The Employer agrees to allow to all employees in the bargaining unit thirteen (13) annual holidays with pay for eight (8) hours at the employee's regular hourly rate, although no work is performed on such days, provided the employees work their regular scheduled work day preceding and their regular scheduled work day following the holiday, unless they are absent because of an excused absence. The thirteen (13) official holidays for a given year shall be determined by the Authority in each December of the preceding year.

Section 4. If a holiday falls within the vacation period of an employee, the employee shall receive pay for same as herein provided.

Section 5. Except and noted in Section 6 below, employees given reasonable notice to work on a holiday, and who do not report for work, will not be entitled to receive payment for said holiday, unless their absence is due to a legitimate excuse.

Section 6. Employees who are regularly assigned to racing related duties who are scheduled to work on a holiday may elect not to work on such holiday provided the employee gives five (5) days advance notice to the Employer and the Union is able to provide a qualified individual to replace the employee who does not work said holiday. The foregoing notwithstanding, the Employer reserves the right to require an employee to work on a holiday which falls during a track change-over period or emergency situation such as a snowstorm.

No more than 20% of the employees covered by this Agreement will be given permission not to work on any given holiday.

ARTICLE 6.
