AGREEMENT BETWEEN
THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES
OF THE FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY
OF THE BOROUGH OF TENAFLY
AND
THE TENAFLY LIBRARY
EMPLOYEES OPEIU LOCAL 32

THIS AGREEMENT was entered into this _____ day of December, 2016, by and between The Board of Trustees of The Free Public Library of the Borough of Tenafly (hereinafter called the “Board”) and the Tenafly Library Employees of the OPEIU, Local 32 (hereinafter called the “Union”) and is effective retroactively to January 1, 2016 and expires on December 31, 2018.

WHEREAS, the Board has an obligation, pursuant to Chapter 303, Public Laws 1968, to negotiate with the Union as the representatives of employees hereinafter designated with respect to the terms and conditions of employment; and

WHEREAS, the parties have reached certain understandings which they desire to confirm in this Agreement and in consideration of the following mutual covenants, it is hereby agreed as follows:

SECTION 1: DEFINITIONS

- 1.1 “Board” shall mean the Board of Trustees of the Tenafly Free Public Library, a duly incorporated body existing by virtue of the provisions of Chapter 54 of the Laws of the State of New Jersey (Title 40) and the By-Laws of the Board.
- 1.2 “Borough” shall mean the Borough of Tenafly, State of New Jersey.
- 1.3 “Continuous Service” shall mean the period of time an employee is employed and compensated by the Library. If an employee is re-employed by the Library, continuous service shall include his/her prior period of service. Continuous service shall also include such service with the Borough prior to employment with the Library. Employment with another library or municipality shall not be recognized as continuous service under this Agreement. Periods of unpaid leave for any reason shall not count as continuous service.
- 1.4 “Director” shall mean the executive and administrative officer of the Library responsible to the Board.
- 1.5 “Employee” shall mean anyone employed and compensated by the Library on a statutory non-exempt basis, excluding: any one hired to fill a temporary need working fewer than 35 hours per week; or an employee who has not completed the probationary period set forth in Section 6.2.

- 1.6 “Full-Time Employee” shall mean an employee who regularly works and is compensated for 35 hours or more per week.
- 1.7 “Grievance” shall mean a dispute growing out of enforcement and/or interpretation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement.
- 1.8 “Library” shall mean the Tenafly Free Public Library, its Director and Board of Trustees.
- 1.9 “Part-Time Employee” shall mean an employee who regularly works and is compensated fewer than 35 hours per week.
- 1.10 “Percentage of Full-Time” shall mean, for each part-time employee, the percentage determined by dividing the part-time employee’s normal weekly work hours by 35, carried to two decimal places. This percentage shall be used to determine each part-time employee’s share of vacation, sick leave, personal days and bereavement allowances.
- 1.11 “Personnel Manual” shall mean the Library’s personnel policy manual revised as of January 1983 and subsequently amended.
- 1.12 “Professional Employee” shall mean an employee who has met the educational requirements for professional librarian set forth in the Personnel Manual, and who is appointed as such by the Board of Trustees.
- 1.13 “Business days” shall mean Monday to Friday.

SECTION 2: RECOGNITION

The Board recognizes the Union as the exclusive representative for collective negotiations concerning the terms and conditions of employment for full-time and regular part-time employees who perform circulation, reference, technical, children’s, clerical and shelving library services, including persons employed in the position classifications set forth in Appendix A-1 for purposes of bargaining with respect to rates of pay, wages, hours of work and other working conditions. Exceptions are supervisors having the power to hire, fire and direct the work force or effectively recommend the same, and those designated “confidential employees” as defined in N.J.S.A. 34:13A-1 et seq.

SECTION 3: UNION DUES

The Board agrees to direct the Payroll Department of the Borough of Tenafly to deduct the Union’s monthly dues and initiation fees from the pay of the Library employees who authorize the Library Director to do so. Deductions shall be made twice monthly. All amounts deducted shall be remitted to the Union once a month following the deduction. The Board agrees to furnish the Union monthly with a list of all employees whose dues and initiation fees have been deducted. The Board also agrees to furnish the Union monthly with a list of newly hired and terminated employees. The Union shall advise the Library in writing of the amount of initiation fees and monthly dues.

The Union shall be entitled to collect representation fees in an amount up to 85% of the normal monthly dues from all employees covered by this Agreement, who have not authorized the deduction of full Union dues and initiation fees. Representation fees shall be deducted from employee paychecks on a twice monthly basis and shall be remitted to the Union once a month following the deduction. The Board agrees to furnish the Union monthly with a list of all employees who have had representation fees deducted from their paychecks. This clause shall be interpreted consistently with the relevant New Jersey Statute, and shall remain in effect as long as the statute is law.

SECTION 4: GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Step 1: An employee having a grievance shall present it verbally, either individually, or in the presence of the Union Steward, to his/her immediate supervisor within five (5) business days, defined to be Monday to Friday, after the occurrence of the matter being grieved.

A grievance shall specify the occurrence being grieved, the date and time of the occurrence, and the action being sought by the grievant. The employee's immediate supervisor shall attempt to adjust the grievance and shall respond to the employee and the employee's union representative within three (3) business days.

Step 2: If the grievance is not adjusted to the satisfaction of the employee within five (5) business days after presentation to the immediate supervisor, then the employee may present the grievance in writing through his/her Union Steward to the Director or his/her designee. The Director shall, on receipt of the grievance, designate a time within five (5) business days for discussion of the grievance with the aggrieved employee, the Union Steward and the employee's immediate supervisor.

Within five (5) business days following the receipt of the written grievance, the Director shall:

- (a) Adjust the grievance, or
- (b) Find the grievance unjustified, or
- (c) Advise the employee and the Union Steward that the adjustment of the grievance is beyond his/her authority.

Step 3: If the grievance is not adjusted to the satisfaction of the employee in Step 2, the employee, through his/her Union Steward, shall proceed by filing a written grievance with the Board of Trustees within five (5) business days after receipt of the Director's written decision. The Board of Trustees may designate a committee of the Board to discuss the grievance at the earliest regularly scheduled Board meeting which is at least one week following the Board's receipt of the written grievance. The meeting shall include the employee's supervisor. The Board shall render its decision within five (5) business days following the meeting at which the grievance is discussed. The decision of the Board shall be final except as to those grievances which may be submitted to arbitration pursuant to Step 4.

Step 1 and Step 2 shall be presented during working hours. A mutually agreeable time shall be arranged between the parties involved.

Either party shall be entitled to one automatic extension of the above time limits upon notification to the other party, within the original time limit, that additional time is needed. The extension shall be equal to the number of days specified in the original time limit.

Failure of an aggrieved party to pursue the grievance to the next step within the time limits set forth herein shall constitute abandonment of the grievance unless both parties agree to a waiver of such limits.

Step 4: The Union may submit up to two grievances to arbitration each calendar year, involving disputes over the imposition of suspension without pay of ten (10) days or more, terminations or demotions. Arbitrators will be selected using the procedures of the New Jersey Public Employment Relations Commission and arbitrators will adhere to the rules of PERC in conducting arbitrations and rendering awards. An arbitrator will have the authority to determine whether the discipline at issue was imposed for just cause and upon finding that there was not just cause for the imposition of the discipline, will have the authority to modify the penalty, order that an employee be made whole with respect to lost compensation, benefits and seniority and order, where appropriate, reinstatement of the employee to the position the employee held prior to the termination or demotion. The cost of the arbitration shall be split equally by the parties.

SECTION 5: GENERAL MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

5.1 Except as may be otherwise specifically provided in this Agreement to the contrary, the Director and/or the Board of Trustees hereby retain and reserve all powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities conferred upon and vested in them prior to the signing of this Agreement; by the Laws and Constitution of the State of New Jersey and of the United States; by the duties and responsibilities of the Director set forth in the personnel manual; and by the By-Laws of the Board of Trustees. - (k) Maintenance of a confidential, personal employment file for each employee.

SECTION 6: CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

6.1 Non-Discrimination

The Library shall not discriminate in the hiring or conditions of employment of any employee by reason of gender, marital status, sexual orientation, political affiliation, religion, race, creed, national origin, age or any other consideration which is unrelated to merit or the qualifications deemed necessary for the successful performance of the duties of the position in question, or which are prohibited by law.

No record shall be kept by the Library which indicates the sexual orientation, political affiliation, religion, race or creed of applicants or employees. No questions shall be asked in these regards of applicants or employees, or of their present or previous employers' characters references. No limitations shall be imposed in these regards in recruiting candidates for employment or in accepting applications.

6.2 Probationary Period

- (a) The first six (6) calendar months of employment are a probationary period for each new employee. Probation may be extended for an additional six (6) months at the discretion of the Director.
- (b) At least two evaluations shall be conducted of the probationary employee during each six (6) months of probation, one of which shall be within thirty (30) days of the end of probation. The forms contained in the personnel manual, or such other forms as the Director deems appropriate, shall be used for evaluation purposes.
- (c) An employee must have an overall evaluation of "satisfactory" or better in order to continue employment.
- (d) An employee may be dismissed by the Director without prior warning during the probationary period for other just cause.

6.3 Seniority

Seniority shall be based upon accrued continuous service with the Library. Any reduction in the work force shall be based upon Seniority within title. For a period of one (1) year, employees dismissed due to a reduction in the work force must be offered the opportunity to return to the Library before a new employee is hired for that purpose.

6.4 Hours of Work

- (a) An employee may be required to work evenings and/or Saturdays as a regular part of his/her job. Work hours may be assigned between 8:30 a.m. and 9:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, and 8:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., on Saturday. The employee shall be compensated for such evening and Saturday work by equal time off during the business week. No employee shall be entitled to a differential payment for evening or Saturday hours.
- (b) All work schedules shall be prepared by the Director or his/her designee. Schedule changes are not permitted without advance approval of the Director or his/her designee.

6.5 Overtime

A full-time employee who works more than 35 hours in one week shall receive compensation for each hour at the rate of time and a half of his/her regular hourly wage.

Part-Time Employee. A part-time employee who is required to work additional hours over his/her normal weekly work schedule but fewer than 35 hours in one week shall be compensated, at the discretion of the employee, either by compensatory time off for each such hour, or by payment for such hours at the employee's regular hourly wage. Under most circumstances, such compensatory time off shall be scheduled in the same pay period or the next following.

- (a) A part-time employee who works more than 35 hours in one week shall receive compensation for each hour at the rate of time and a half of his/her regular hourly wage.

Authorization. Overtime must be authorized in advance by the Director or his/her designee.

6.6 Lunch and Dinner

Mondays through Fridays, every employee is entitled to one unpaid lunch or dinner hour when working more than five (5) hours in a day.

On Saturdays, the Director may, at his/her discretion and as proper Library scheduling permits, assign unpaid one (1) ½ hour lunch or dinner periods to employees.

Such lunch or dinner periods not taken during the day may not be used to shorten the work day, nor may they be carried over to another day.

Employees who work a full day consisting of 7 paid hours and one unpaid meal hour are entitled to a 15 minute break during the first half of their work day and a 15 minute break during the second half of their work day. Employees who work 4 or more hours per day, but less than a full work day, are entitled to one 15 minute break. Employees who work a full day on Saturday consisting of 7 paid hours and a ½ hour unpaid meal are entitled to a 15 minute break in the morning and a 15 minute break in the afternoon.

6.7 Employee Evaluations

In addition to evaluations during the probationary period, every employee shall have his/her work periodically evaluated by the employee's supervisor and/or the Director as follows:

Annual: Each permanent employee shall receive an annual evaluation of his/her performance once each calendar year.

Time of Separation: An employee may be evaluated at the time of separation from service with the Library. These evaluations shall be part of the employee's employment records.

Special: An evaluation may be completed either when a change in the employee's performance warrants a new evaluation, or when a supervisor or Director permanently leaves his/her position.

Such evaluations shall be on the forms contained in the personnel manual, or other forms that the Director deems appropriate.

6.8 Personnel Files

An employee may, at reasonable times and in the presence of the Director, or his/her designee or shop steward, if required, examine his/her personal employment file. The employee shall be allowed to have a copy of all or any part of the file with 48 hours notice to the employer in the event of disciplinary action and after review they may request a copy.

SECTION 7: COMPENSATION

7.1 Salary Rates

(a) Wage increases to the base pay shall be as follows:

Effective January 1, 2016 – 2%

Effective January 1, 2017 – 2%

Effective January 1, 2018 – 2%

- (b) The above percentages shall be applied to the employee's base rate of pay, before application of the longevity increase percentage.
- (c) To be eligible to receive a retroactive payment, an employee must either be in the employ of the Library at the time this Agreement is adopted by both parties, or have left the employ of the Library because of retirement, disability or death.
- (d) A new employee shall receive the pay increase as scheduled for the first January 1st following the expiration of his/her probationary period, including any extension thereon.

7.2 Longevity Increases

- (a) In addition to base salary, each full-time employee hired prior to January 1, 2014 shall receive longevity compensation computed at the rate of:

1% of base salary for each two completed years of service up to 24 years, plus ½% for the 25 years of service, for a maximum longevity increase of 12 ½%.
- (b) The cumulative longevity increase percentages shall be applied to each full-time employee's base rates of pay, exclusive of any prior longevity increase, and after giving effect to such rate of pay increase.
 - (1.) Effective each date there is an increase in the employee's base rate of pay, and after giving effect to such rate of pay increase; and
 - (2.) Effective on each such anniversary of the employee's employment that raises the cumulative longevity increase percentages.
- (c) Library employees hired on or after January 1, 2014 are not entitled to any longevity compensation.

SECTION 8: VACATION

8.1 Allowance

- (a) A full-time, non-professional employee's vacation allowance is determined by his/her completed years of continuous service as of the date the vacation is scheduled, in accordance with the following schedule: (less than one year, as determined in (b)).

Years	Working Days		Years	Working Days
1	10		13	18
2	11		14	19
3	11		15	20
4	12		16	20
5	12		17	21

6	13		18	21
7	14		19	22
8	15		20	22
9	16		21	23
10	16		22	23
11	17		23	24
12	17		24	25
			25 & Over	25

- (b) A newly hired employee will earn one (1) vacation day per month, up to a maximum of ten (10) vacation days, during the first calendar year of employment. After the first three (3) months of employment, a newly hired employee may schedule earned vacation days in accordance with this section of the Agreement. (For example, an employee hired on February 1, 2011 will earn ten (10) vacation days through December 31, 2011. The employees will not be permitted to use earned vacation days until May 1, 2011. Effective January 1, 2012, the employee will receive credit for ten (10) vacation days in accordance with the above schedule.)
- (c) Each full-time, professional employee is entitled to 1 2/3 days of vacation for each month of continuous service, to a maximum of twenty (20) vacation days per year.
- (d) A part-time, non-temporary employee shall be entitled to a percentage of the full-time vacation allowance, computed as follows:
 - (1) Vacation days shall be determined under paragraphs (a), (b) or (c), as applicable, as for a full-time employee based on the part-time employee's period of continuous service;
 - (2) This number of vacation days shall be converted to vacation hours by multiplying such number of days by seven (7);
 - (3) The vacation hours shall then be multiplied by the employee's percentage of full-time; the product shall be the part-time employee's hours of vacation for the year;
 - (4) An employee who terminates employment before completing six (6) months of service shall forfeit all accumulated vacation.

8.2 Scheduling

An employee's vacation time shall be scheduled with, and approved in advance by, the Director or his/her designee. Among other factors, seniority may be used to resolve any scheduling conflicts.

8.3 Waiver

Vacation time may not be waived by an employee and vacation pay received in lieu thereof.

8.4 Holiday during Vacation

A holiday (see Section 11) that occurs during an employee's vacation, shall add a day to the employee's vacation allowance. This day should ordinarily be taken at the time of the vacation unless otherwise arranged.

8.5 Illness or Injury During Vacation

- (a) If an employee becomes ill or is injured before leaving for a scheduled vacation, the employee's vacation may be rescheduled. If an employee becomes ill or is injured while on vacation, such disability shall be considered to be vacation time unless the disability continues for eight (8) or more calendar days, in which case the following applies:
 - (1) Contingent upon the Director's receipt of a physician's medical certificate covering the period of illness, the employee's vacation shall be deemed to have ceased with the first day of illness or injury. The employee shall be placed on disability leave on the first day of illness or injury. When such employee has recovered sufficiently to be able to resume his/her duties, the employee may, with the Director's approval, either continue the vacation or reschedule the balance of his/her vacation.
 - (2) If Library scheduling needs do not permit such employee to reschedule the remaining vacation days by the end of that calendar year, he/she shall receive full pay for such remaining days in lieu of vacation or be granted a vacation carry-over into the next calendar year, at the discretion of the Director.

8.6 Vacation Severance

A full-time employee who resigns his/her position with the Library shall receive pay for any partial year's vacation allowance earned but unused in that final year. This policy applies to a part-time employee on a pro-rated basis.

8.7 Carry Over

- (a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c) or (d) below, vacation time for which an employee is eligible must be taken in the year earned and may not be carried forward.
- (b) If the employee becomes ill or injured during vacation, and the disability continues for eight (8) or more days, the provisions of Section 8.5 shall apply.

- (c) Employees hired after January 31 of a given year will be given an extension on the vacation use deadline to the one year anniversary of their hire date.
- (d) If the Director denies an employee the use of vacation days due to work necessity, the employee shall be permitted to carry over up to a maximum of one (1) week of the employee's customary one (1) week vacation period until March 31 of the following year. If the employee has more than one (1) week of his or her customary one (1) week vacation period accrued at that time, he/she may make an application to the Director for an extension of the carryover.

8.8 Vacation in Advance

At the discretion of the Library Director, an employee with more than one (1) year of service may, with good reason, be permitted to take vacation time in a given year in anticipation of earning it. If an employee terminates employment with the Library after taking more vacation time than earned, such unearned vacation pay shall be deducted from the employee's final pay.

8.9 Unpaid Vacation

Under extraordinary circumstances and at the discretion of the Director with Board approval, an employee may be granted unpaid vacation time. Such time may not exceed one-half (1/2) of the earned vacation time in such year. The employee's written application therefore must detail the need for such time.

8.10 Failure to Return as Scheduled

Employees will be charged personal or vacation time when they are unable to return to work as scheduled after a planned vacation whether due to travel delays or other reasons not relating to illness. If the employee does not have any remaining personal or vacation time left at such time, the employee will not be paid for the work time missed as a result of the failure to return to work as scheduled.

SECTION 9: SICK LEAVE

9.1 Expiration

The sick leave provisions of this section shall remain in effect from the effective date of this contract until amended, as recommended by the joint committee of employee and Library representatives which is charged with revising the sick leave policy, and ratified by the Board and the Union.

9.2 Sick Leave

To provide a prevailing personnel policy governing salary continuation to employees on sick leave in recognition of length of service with the Library, "Sick Leave" is defined as the temporary absence of an employee from work because of personal illness or non-job related injury authorized by the Library.

9.3 Policy

- (a) For full-time employees employed by the Library prior to January 1, 2017, salary continuation during periods of sick leave may be granted based on length of continuous service, in accordance with the following schedule and subject to the provisions thereof:

Continuous Service	Salary Continuation Period
Less than 1 month	None
At least 1 month but less than 2 months	5 days
At least 2 months but less than 1 year	10 days
At least 1 year but less than 2 years	20 days
At least 2 years but less than 3 years	30 days
At least 3 years but less than 4 years	40 days
At least 4 years but less than 5 years	50 days
At least 5 years but less than 6 years	60 days
At least 6 years but less than 10 years	70 days
10 years and over	130 days

- (b) A part-time, non-temporary employee who was employed by the Library prior to January 1, 2017, shall be entitled to a percentage of the full-time sick leave computed as follows: (1) sick days shall be determined under paragraphs (a) as for a full-time employee based on the part-time employee's period of continuous service; (2) this number of days shall be converted to hours by multiplying such number of days by seven; (3) the hours shall then be multiplied by the employee's percent of full-time, this product shall be the part-time employee's sick leave allowance for the year.
- (c) The salary continuation period runs consecutively without regard to the calendar years involved.
- (d) The above schedule may apply to separate unconnected injuries and illnesses.
- (e) A medical certificate by a physician covering the period of illness may be required by the Library.

- (f) In any case of salary continuation, the employee's salary shall be reduced by the amount of any loss of time payments to which he/she may be entitled under any worker's compensation claim.
- (g) Extended Sick Leave. Prior to application for an extended sick leave, all earned vacation and personal days must be expended or committed toward the employee's sick leave. It is understood that an automatic extension of 13 weeks shall be added to the normal sick leave provisions in the event of a "terminal illness" to the employee. Satisfactory documentation must be provided in all such cases to the Library.
- (h) Full-time Library employees hired on or after January 1, 2017 will be entitled to 12 paid sick days that accrue each year and part-time Library employees hired on or after January 1, 2017 will be entitled to 12 paid sick days that accrue each year on a pro-rated basis (based upon the number of hours they are regularly scheduled to work in relation to a full-time Library employee's regularly scheduled 35 hour work week). Sick days not used in the calendar year will be banked for future use, but there is no buyout for unused sick days at separation from Library employment due to retirement or for any other reason.

Full-time Library employees hired on or after January 1, 2017 are entitled to an initial bank of 10 sick days after 2 months of service in their first year of employment with the Library in addition to the 12 sick days that accrue each year, and part-time non-temporary Library employees hired on or after January 1, 2017 are entitled to a pro-rated bank of 10 sick days after 2 months of service in their first year of employment with the Library (based upon the number of hours they are regularly scheduled to work in relation to a full-time Library employee's regularly scheduled 35 work week).

Full-time and part-time non temporary Library employees hired on or after January 1, 2017 may use sick days for their own sickness or to care for a sick immediate family member.

Full-time and part-time non-temporary Library employees hired prior to January 1, 2017 may opt into the sick bank policy available to those full-time and part-time non-temporary Library employees hired on or after January 1, 2017 by providing written notice to the Director no later than December 31, 2016. Those full-time and part-time non-temporary Library employees hired prior to January 1, 2017 who opt into the sick bank policy set forth above are entitled to an initial bank of sick days equal to the number of sick days they would have had available to them during 2017 in accordance with Section 9.3(a) above. Full-time Library employees who opt into the sick bank policy will also receive 1 sick day for each month they work at the Library (12 per year), and part-time non-temporary Library employees who opt into the sick bank policy will receive 1 sick day on a pro-rated basis for each month they work at the Library. Any unused sick days from an opt-in employee's available initial bank or that accrue during the year may be carried over to subsequent years. There is no buyout for unused sick days at the opt-in employee's separation from employment with the Library due to retirement or for any other reason.

9.4 Application

An employee is eligible for salary based upon the length of his/her continuous service at the time the sick leave commences. A person who is a temporary employee at the time his/her sick leave commences shall not be eligible for salary continuation (even though such persons may later be deemed to be in non-temporary employment for the effective date of his/her initial employment).

SECTION 10: EMPLOYMENT RELATED DISABILITY LEAVE UNDER WORKERS' COMPENSATION

10.1 Eligibility

To be eligible for workers' compensation benefits, an employee injured on the job must follow the following procedures:

- (a) Immediately report the injury to the supervisor.

If such work-related disability continues beyond one (1) year, the provisions of Section 9.3 shall govern.
- (d) The employee shall forward to the Borough Treasurer any workers' compensation payments received during the disability period.
