INTERLOCUTORY DECISION

The Fraternal Order of Police, Newark Lodge #12, ("F.O.P.") by way of an Unfair Practice charge, opened this matter before the New Jersey Public Employment Relations Commission and additionally sought an Interim Restrain against the City of Newark. The F.O.P. seeks to have the Commission restrain the City from implementing a change in the scheduling of tours of duty for police officers.

I have been designated by the Commission to hear applications for Interim Relief. Acting pursuant to that delegation of authority I hereby deny the F.O.P.'s application for Interim Relief. The F.O.P. has failed to demonstrate that it has a substantial likelihood of success in prevailing on the legal issues presented in this matter.
