DECISION AND ORDER

On October 3, 1985, Administrative Law Judge Ward R. Young entered an order consolidating the Susan Spurr and Elaine Hoch petitions, finding that the Public Employment Relations Commission had the predominant interest, and transmitting the consolidated case to the Commission. This order reflected the parties' agreement on how to proceed. The Commissioner of Education has already adopted it. Acting pursuant to authority delegated to me by the full Commission, I adopt this order.

ORDER

The Spurr and Hoch cases are consolidated. The Public Employment Relations Commission has the predominant interest. I appoint Commission Hearing Examiner Marc F. Stuart to hear the consolidated case.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION
