ARTICLE II

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS CLAUSE

It is recognized that the Employer has and will continue to retain the rights and responsibilities to direct the affairs of the Nursing Homes in all its various aspects. Among the rights retained by the Employer are its rights to direct the working forces; to plan, direct and control all the operations and services of the Nursing Home to determine the methods, means, organization and personnel by which such operations and services are to be conducted; to contract for and sub-contract out services; to relieve employees due to lack of work or for other legitimate reasons, to make and enforce reasonable rules and regulations; to change or eliminate existing methods, equipment of facilities; provided, however, that the exercise of any of the above rights shall not conflict with any of the express written provisions of this Agreement and that a grievance may be filed by the Union alleging such conflict.

ARTICLE III

WORK RULES

The Employer shall establish reasonable and necessary rules of work and conduct for employees. Such rules shall be equitably applied and enforced. If an employee is requested to work a double shift, a fifteen (15) minute break is allowed prior to start of shift. Employees will be allowed a forty-five (45) minute lunch break.

ARTICLE IV

EQUAL TREATMENT

The Employer and Union agree that there shall be no discrimination or favoritism for reason of sex, age, nationality, race, religion, marital status, political affiliation, union membership or union activities.

ARTICLE V

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 1: Any grievance or dispute which may arise between the parties including the application, meaning or interpretation of the Agreement shall be settled in the following manner:

Step 1:

The employee with or without the Union Steward, shall take up the grievance or dispute with the employee's immediate supervisor within (10)ten days of its occurrence or within ten (10) days of the time the employee should reasonably have knowledge of its occurrence. The supervisor shall then attempt to adjust the matter and shall respond to the Steward within three (3) working days.

Step 2:

If the grievance has not been settled it shall be presented in writing by the Union Steward or the Union grievance committee member to the Administrator within seven (7) days after the supervisor's response is due. The Administrator shall respond to the Union Steward or grievance committee within three (3) working days.

Step 3:

If the grievance still remains unadjusted, it shall be presented by the Union Steward, Union representative or grievance committee to the Welfare Director or his designee in writing within five (5) working days.

Step 4:

If the grievance is still unsettled, the Union may within fifteen (15) days, after the reply of the director is due, by written notice to the director, request arbitration. The arbitration proceedings shall be conducted by an arbitrator to be selected by the Employer and Union within seven (7) days after notice has been given. If the parties fail to agree upon an arbitrator, the N.J. State Board of Mediation shall be requested by either or both parties to provide a panel of five (5) arbitrators. Both the Employer and the Union shall have the right to strike two (2) names from the panel. The Employer shall strike the first name; the Union shall then strike one name, etc., and the name remaining shall be the arbitrator. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on the parties, and the arbitrator shall be requested to issue his decision within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of testimony and argument. Expenses for the arbitrator's services and the proceedings shall be borne equally by the Employer and the Union. However each party shall be responsible for compensating its own representatives and witnesses. If either party desires a verbatim record of the proceedings it may cause such a record to be made, providing it pays for the record and makes copies available without charge to the other party and the arbitrator.

Section 2: The Union will notify the Employer in writing of the names of its employees who are designated by the Union to represent employees under the grievance procedure. Employees so designated by the Union will be permitted to confer with Union Representatives, employees and with Employer representatives regarding matters of employee representation during working hours without loss of pay.

Section 3: Representatives of the Union who are not employees of the Employer, will be permitted to visit the Medical Home during their working hours, for the purpose of discussing Union representation matters. Such representatives shall also be recognized by the Employer as an authorized spokesman for the Union in meetings between the parties regarding employee representation matters. Such representatives shall give twenty-four (24) hours notice.

ARTICLE VI

WORK SCHEDULE

Section 1: Where the nature of the work involved requires continuous operations on a twenty-four hours per day, seven days per week basis, employees so assigned will have their schedules arranged in a manner which will assure, on a rotation basis, that all employees will have an equal share of Saturdays and Sundays off, distributed evenly throughout the year.

Section 2: Where more than one work shift per day within a given classification is in effect, employees within such classification will be given preference of shifts in accordance with their seniority. Such preferences will be exercised only when vacancies occur or when for other reasons changes in the number of employees per shift are being made. In no instance, however, will a senior employee be required to wait longer than one year in order to exercise his preference of shift over a less-senior employee.

ARTICLE VII

SENIORITY

Section 1: Seniority is defined as an employee's total length of service with the Employer, beginning with his original date of hire. In the event that two employees commence their employment on the same date, their respective seniority shall be determined alphabetically. New employees shall be considered to be on probation for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of hire. During this period, the employee may be discharged at the will of the Medical Home and such discharge shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedures provided in this Agreement.

Section 2: In all cases of promotions, demotions, layoff, recall, shift assignment, building assignment, vacation schedules and other situations where substantial employee advantages or disadvantages are concerned, employees with the greatest amount of seniority shall be given preference, provided the employee has the ability to perform the work involved. The Employer agrees that where circumstances permit, day-to-day work assignments of employees will be made in such a manner as will provide senior employees with experience that will improve their ability to qualify for promotions in line with their seniority. In the event of layoff, the Union President, Union Secretary and the Shop Stewards shall be the last to be laid off and the first to be recalled after layoff.

Section 3: The Employer shall maintain an accurate, up-to-date seniority roster showing each employee's date of hire, classification and pay rate and shall furnish copies of the same to the Union upon request.
