ARTICLE VIIITEMPORARY LEAVES OF ABSENCE

A. As of the beginning of the 1969-70 school year, teachers shall be entitled to the following temporary nonaccumulative leaves of absence with full pay each school year:

Two (2) days leave of absence for personal, legal, business, household or family matters which require absence during school hours. Application to the teacher's principal or other immediate supervisor for personal leave shall be made at least three (3) days before taking such leave (except in the case of emergencies) and the applicant for such leave shall not be required to state the reason for taking such leave other than that he is taking it under this Section.

Up to one(1) day for the purpose of visiting other schools.

Five (5) days absence with pay will be allowed in any one school year for critical illness or death in the immediate family. This allowance cannot be accumulated from year to year. Critical illness means illness which the attending physician considers sufficiently serious to require the employee's presence at the bedside. Immediate family means: husband, wife, children and any other person who has lived in the home of the teacher for a considerable length of time preceding death; father and mother, brothers and sisters, grandfather and grandmother, father-in-law and mother-in-law.

Other leaves of absence with pay may be granted by the Board for good reason, with Association knowledge.

Leaves taken pursuant to Section A above shall be in addition to any sick leave to which the teacher is entitled.

ARTICLE IXEXTENDED LEAVES OF ABSENCE

B. Military leave without pay shall be granted to any teacher who is inducted or enlists in any branch of the armed forces of the United States for the period of said induction or initial enlistment.

C. Maternity Leave

As soon as any teacher becomes aware of her pregnancy, she will apply for a maternity leave of absence. The basic leave of absence, without pay is eighteen months beginning at the end of the fourth month of pregnancy. A teacher may return to her school duties after an absence of sixteen months provided the school physician is satisfied that the teacher's health is good. When this is not feasible, maternity leave may be lengthened by whatever amount of time is necessary for the teacher to return at the beginning of the following year.

It will be the duty of any employee promptly to advise the principal of any interrupted pregnancy or still birth suffered by her or the death of any child for whose maternity a current leave of absence has been granted.

A maternity leave may, at the discretion of the Board of Education be curtailed or terminated prior to the expiration of the full term, in the following circumstances and on such terms and conditions as the Board of Education may prescribe:

- a. In cases of interrupted pregnancy, the maternity leave of absence may be terminated by the Board of Education after a lapse of three (3) months from such occurrence, provided the school physician certifies that the employee is in good health and in fit condition for service.
- b. Where an interrupted pregnancy occurs in the case of a teacher who has not taken a leave of absence because unaware of her pregnancy, the employee will ask for a leave of absence for a period of three (3) months. At the end of this period, if the school physician certifies to the Board of Education that the employee is in good health and in fit condition for service, she may resume her duties in the school.
- c. In case of still birth or the death of the child, the maternity leave of absence may be terminated by the Board of Education at any time after the lapse of three (3) months following confinement provided the school physician certifies that the employee is in good health and in fit condition for service.

Failure by an employee to comply with any of the regulations will be deemed neglect of duty and an act of insubordination.

The requirement that a teacher apply for leave at once because of a pregnant condition will be effective not only when a teacher is in active service but also when she is on leave of absence of any kind.

Any female teacher adopting an infant child may receive similar leave which shall commence upon her receiving de facto custody of said infant, or earlier if necessary to fulfill the requirements for the adoption.

ARTICLE IXEXTENDED LEAVES OF ABSENCE

A teacher on maternity leave shall be eligible to substitute.

D. Other leaves of absence without pay may be granted by the Board for good reason, with the Association's knowledge.

A teacher shall not receive increment credit for time spent on a leave granted pursuant to this Article nor shall such time count toward the fulfillment of the time requirements for acquiring tenure.

All benefits to which a teacher was entitled at the time of his leave of absence commenced, including unused accumulated sick leave and credits toward sabbatical eligibility shall be restored to him upon his return and he shall be assigned to the same position which he held at the time said leave commenced, if available, or, if not, to a substantially equivalent position.
