ARTICLE XXIV
GRIEVANCE/ARBITRATION
PROCEDURES

A. Purpose

The parties agreed that it is in their best interest that all grievances should be resolved promptly, fairly and equitably.

1. The following procedure which may be initiated by an employee and/or the Association acting as his/her representative shall be the sole and exclusive means of seeking, adjusting and settling grievances.

2. Whenever any representative of the Association or any employee is mutually scheduled by the parties, during working hours, to participate in grievance procedures, such employee shall suffer no loss in pay or benefits.

B. Definition of a Grievance

A grievance is an allegation by an employee or the Association that there has been:

1. A breach, misinterpretation or improper application of terms of this Agreement, or

2. An arbitrary or discriminatory application of the policies of the Board of Trustees, related to terms and conditions of employment.

C. Informal Procedure

An employee may orally present and discuss a grievance with his immediate supervisor on an informal basis. At the employee's option, he may request the presence of an Association representative. Should an informal discussion not produce a satisfactory settlement, the grievant may, within three work days, move the grievance to the first formal step. If either party determines that the informal procedure will not produce a satisfactory settlement, they may move the grievance to the first formal step. Both parties agree that informal discussion is suitable to handle many grievances. Furthermore, both parties agree to promote informal discussion in order to maintain a harmonious working environment.

D. Formal Grievance and Arbitration Procedures

Internal Grievance Procedure

1. Step One

A grievant shall initiate his or her grievance in writing and present it formally to his or her Dean, and such Dean or the designee thereof shall meet with the grievant within five (5) work days, and a representative of the Association, for the purpose of discussing the grievance. The decision shall be rendered in writing to the employee and the association representative within 7 work days of the conclusion of the discussion of the grievance.

2. Step Two

If the grievant is not satisfied with the decision rendered at Step One, he or she may submit his or her grievance to the College President. The President will hear the grievance and where appropriate, witnesses may be heard and pertinent records received. The hearing shall be held within 7 work days of receipt of the grievance, and the decision shall be rendered in writing to the employee and the Association representative within 7 work days of the conclusion of the hearing of the grievance, then.

3. Step Three

If the grievant is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Step Two, he/she may appeal to the Board of Trustees on the record. The appeal shall be accompanied by the decisions at the prior steps and any written record that has been made part of the preceding hearings as well as whether or not the employee will be requesting a hearing. The Board of Trustees may sustain, modify, or reverse the decision made at Step Two on the record or may on its own, conduct a hearing concerning the grievance. In the event the Board of Trustees acts upon the written record, the decision shall be rendered in writing to the grievant and the Association representative within 13 work days of receipt of the grievance at the Step Three level. In the event a hearing is requested, such hearing shall commence on or before the next Board meeting providing the notice is received six (6) working days prior to the next Board meeting. If notice is given less than six (6) work days prior to the following Board meeting, and where appropriate; witnesses may be heard and pertinent records received. The decision shall be rendered in writing to the grievant and the Association representative within 10 days of the hearing.

E. Arbitration Procedure

If the aggrieved employee is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at the conclusion of the grievance procedure, the Association, as a representative of the employee, shall file a notice, within ten (10) work days of the receipt of the decision of the Board of Trustees, requesting submission to arbitration, the Board of Trustees and the Association shall obtain a commitment from said arbitrator to serve. If the parties are unable to obtain such a commitment within the specified period, a request for a list(s) of arbitrators may be made to the American Arbitration Association for the selection of an arbitrator. Such notice of the grievant shall set forth a statement of the issue to be decided and the specific provisions of the agreement involved. Unless the parties agree in writing before the hearing that the Arbitrator's decision shall be binding, the Arbitrator's decision shall be advisory only, and said decision shall be limited to the interpretation, application, or violation of the contract language. The cost of the Arbitrator shall be borne by both parties equally.

F. Time Limits

1. A grievance must be filed at Step One within forty-five (45) work days from the date on which the act which is the subject of the grievance occurred or forty-five (45) work days from the date on which the individual employees should reasonably have known of its occurrence.
 2. In the event the time limitations imposed under Steps One and Two above, as to discussion, hearing and decision are not complied with, the grievance shall, upon request, be moved to the next higher step.
 3. Should an employee be dissatisfied with the decision or should no decision be forthcoming in the prescribed time, he/she may submit his/her grievance to the next step, within five (5) calendar days to Step Two and within seven (7) days to Step Three. Either the Association or College may request one extension of the time limitations of one of the steps of the formal grievance procedure. The parties agree that there shall only be one extension of time allowed for each grievance procedure and that the extension shall be no longer than fourteen (14) calendar days.
 4. Where the subject of a grievance suggests it is appropriate and where the parties mutually agree, such grievance may be initiated at or moved to Step Two or Three without a hearing at a lower step.
 5. Where a grievance directly concerns and is shared by more than one employee, such group grievance may properly be initiated at Step Two if such step is the first level of supervision common to the several grievants.
 6. No adjustment of any grievance shall impose retroactivity beyond the date on which the grievant recognized or reasonably should have recognized that he/she was grieved, except that payroll errors and related matters shall be corrected to date of error. Time limits provided for in this Article may be extended by mutual written agreement of the parties at the level involved.
- G. Nothing in this Article shall be construed as compelling the Association to submit a grievance to arbitration.
- H. No reprisal of any kind shall be taken against any participant in this grievance procedure by reason of proper participation in such procedure.
- I. Grievance records shall not be part of the personnel file utilized in the retention process unless such grievance record pertains to the matter under consideration.

- J. The disposition of any grievance at any step of the grievance procedure, or by agreement between the College or the Board of Trustees and the grievant or Association, shall be final and binding upon the employee, employees or person who are involved or affected thereby.
- K. Saturday, Sundays, holidays and any days the College is closed for staff shall be excluded from the computation of "working day" as the term is used in this procedure.
- L. It shall be the general practice of all parties of interest to process grievances during times which do not interfere with the assigned responsibilities of the parties concerned.
- M. The number of days indicated at each step will be considered as maximum and every effort shall be made to expedite the process. The time limitations in the procedures shall be considered to be of the essence and not merely procedural. The failure to file a grievance within the prescribed time limits shall constitute a waiver of the grievance.
- N. It is expressly understood and agreed that in addition to the exclusions from the provisions of the Grievance and Arbitration procedures which are contained elsewhere in the agreement, the following are not subject to the Grievance and Arbitration procedures in this agreement:
 - 1. Matters involving the discretion of the Board of Trustees.
 - 2. Any questions concerning the duration of this Agreement.
 - 3. Any matter where the Board of Trustees is without the expressed or implied authority to act.
 - 4. Any action of the Board of Trustees which is prescribed by law.
- O. Should the College fail to respond to the grievance in the prescribed time limitations for each step of the formal grievance procedure, the grievance will automatically be moved to the next succeeding step of the grievance procedure.
- P. If an employee covered by this Agreement has a complaint which he/she wishes to discuss with his/her Supervisor, he/she is free to do so without recourse to the grievance procedure.
- Q. A grievance may be withdrawn by the initiator of the grievance at any level.

ARTICLE XXV

The individual unit member presently employed in a position covered by this agreement shall have the right to submit his/her written suggestions, concerning his/her own job description, to the appropriate Dean for consideration, prior to the adoption of the description covering his/her own position. The College shall not impede the individual unit member from seeking the advice of the Association on proposed changes in a job description covered under this agreement.
- C. The College shall have the right to change any job descriptions during the term of this Agreement from time to time as it deems desirable. Before the change is made, the employee affected by such change shall be notified and given an opportunity to comment upon said contemplated change. However, the final decision shall rest with the Board.
- D. Where the contemplated change in the job description will significantly alter the duties, responsibilities and workload of the affected employee, the College shall notify the Association of its intent to implement such change. The Association shall have the right to negotiate with the College the impact of such change in the job description on the individual employee who is thereby affected.

ARTICLE XXVI

After six (6) months of employment, the employee may request to see his/her references. The College will ask the party(ies), who gave the references, to release the reference to the employee. If the party refuses to release the references, the employee may request to have that reference removed from his file. All released references shall be shown to the employee, upon request.

- E. A written evaluation report will be prepared in each instance and a copy will be furnished to the individual employee followed by a conference between the employee and the immediate supervisor for the purpose of improving the employee's work performance.
- F. The evaluation report will provide space for employee comments, if any. Employees will sign each evaluation report indicating that they have read same and reviewed its contents with their immediate supervisor. Thereafter, the report will become a part of the employees personnel file.
- G. The appropriate Dean may affix comments to any evaluation report and/or may conduct an independent evaluation if the Dean chooses. In this event, the employee shall be afforded all rights under (F) above.

- C. If the employee disputes the decision of his/her immediate supervisor, he/she may take the matter up with the appropriate Dean. If the individual unit member is not satisfied with the decision of the appropriate Dean, he/she may submit the alleged violation to the proper State or Federal Agency for review. The individual unit may request representation by the Association when seeking to clarify violations of the Health & Safety Standards.
