3. PERPETUAL WORK SCHEDULE FOR SHERIFF'S OFFICERS/CORRECTION

OFFICERS ASSIGNED TO THE MIDDLESEX COUNTY JAIL

The attached work schedule is perpetual in nature because it repeats itself every 112 days. Days off rotate every 28 days as follows:

Monday/Tuesday
Wednesday/Thursday
Friday/Saturday
Saturday/Sunday

In order to facilitate space the schedule shows numbers rather than names. Each Officer is assigned a corresponding number.

12-8 Shift	8-4 Shift	4-12 Shift
1	8	19
2	9	20
3	10	21
4	11	22
5	12	23
6	13	24
7	14	25
	15	26
	16
	17
	18

Each Officer will retain his assigned number only as long as he remains on his regular shift as indicated above. Should an Officer bid on and receive a shift change, as allowed for under the Job Posting/Bidding section of this agreement, he will be assigned the number that was assigned to the Officer whom he replaced on his new shift. It is understood and agreed that when an Officer enters a new shift his days off will be adjusted to correspond with the new number he is assigned.

Further adjustments will be made as required to insure that neither the Employer nor the Officer loose time as a result of the shift change.

There will be no deviation from this work schedule, permanent or temporary, for any reason other than those listed below:

1- Two Officers mutually agree to a temporary schedule change and have the approval of their respective Shift Commanders.

2- An Officer successfully bids on a vacant or newly created position on a shift other than his own. Details of the bidding procedure are spelled out under the Job Posting/Bidding section of this Agreement.

3- An emergency exists at the County Jail as defined by this Agreement.

4- Schedule changes requests will be routinely granted by the Shift Commander unless an emergency situation exists as defined in this Agreement.

5- Whenever an emergency is declared, the Warden or his designee will provide the Association with a written explanation of said emergency. Such written explanation shall be provided no later than three working days following such emergency.

6- The bumping system will not be used. Seniority will not be a valid reason for a shift change except when an opening becomes available. When an opening exists on a shift any interested Officer may bid on that assignment by filing a written notice of interest with the Warden. The Warden will post any vacancy's that exist in a conspicuous place at least one week in advance unless an emergency is declared. This emergency situation will only be temporary and subject to Section 5 of this agreement.

PERPETUAL WORK SCHEDULE FOR LIEUTENANTS ASSIGNED TO THE

Lt. R. Johnson.....Monday/Tuesday

Thursday/Friday

Lt. J. Maker.....Saturday/Sunday
Monday/Tuesday
Thursday/Friday

Lt. C. Manfre.....Wednesday/Thursday
Friday/Saturday
Saturday/Sunday

There will be no deviation from this work schedule, permanent or temporary, for any reason other than those listed below:

1- Two Superior Officers (Lieutenants) mutually agree to a temporary schedule change.

2- A Superior Officer successfully bids on a vacant or newly created position on a shift other than his own. Details of the bidding procedure are spelled out under the Job Posting/Bidding section of this Agreement.

3- An emergency exists at the County Jail as defined by this Agreement.

Emergency situation due to lack of available Superior Officers for duty:

When there is an insufficient number of Superior Officers (Lieutenants) available, for whatever reason, to work the three daily shifts at the County Jail, the Warden or Sheriff/Undersheriff may declare an emergency situation providing the overtime list for Superior Officers (Lieutenants) has been exhausted for each shift requiring coverage.

Once an emergency situation has been declared, schedule changes may be made as required to provide a Lieutenant for each of the three shifts.

When there are two Lieutenants assigned to a shift and one reports off sick or is removed from the schedule for any other reason, that Lieutenant need not be replaced by another Lieutenant since one Lieutenant remains on duty.

When only one Lieutenant is assigned to a shift and he reports off sick or is removed from the schedule for any other reason, he will be replaced with a Lieutenant or Deputy Warden.

4. Schedule change requests will be routinely granted by the Shift Commander unless an emergency situation exists as defined by this Agreement.

5. Whenever an emergency is declared, the Warden or his designee will provide the Association with a written explanation of said emergency. Such written explanation shall be provided no later than three working days following such emergency.

6. The bumping system will not be used by Superior Officers to secure a shift change. Seniority will not be a valid reason for a shift change except when an opening on another shift exists. When an opening exists on a shift, any interested Superior Officer may bid on that assignment by filing a written notice of interest with the Warden. The Warden will post any such vacancies that may exist in a conspicuous place within the Jail at least one week prior to any temporary or permanent appointment to such vacancy unless an emergency is declared. Such emergency appointment will be temporary and subject to Section 5 of this Agreement.
