ARTICLE I

INTRODUCTION

A. The Deptford Township Board of Education, Deptford Township, Gloucester County, hereafter known as the Board, hereby recognizes the Teamsters Local Union No. 676, as the exclusive representative for collective negotiation concerning the terms and conditions of employment for personnel under contract and employed by the Board and so assigned as an employee to the maintenance janitor, janitor staff exclusive of maintenance janitor supervisor - general supervisor.

B. The Teamsters Local Union No. 676 hereby recognizes the local authority elected as representatives of the people and further recognizes the responsibilities of the Board and the Superintendent for the conduct and operation of the school district in compliance with New Jersey Statutes Title 18A.

- A. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to deny or restrict to any employee such rights as he may have under New Jersey school law.
- B. The Board reserves to itself sole jurisdiction and authority over matters of policy and retains the right, subject only to the limitations imposed by the language of this Agreement, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations (1) to direct employees of the school district, (2) to hire, promote, transfer, assign, and retain employees in positions in the school district, and for just cause to suspend, to demote, discharge or take other disciplinary action against employees, (3) to relieve employees from duty because of lack of work or for other legitimate reasons, (4) to maintain the efficiency of the school district operations entrusted to them, (5) to determine the methods, means and personnel by which such operations are to be conducted, (6) to take whatever actions may be necessary to carry out the mission of the school district in situations of emergency, and (7) to assign work according to school district needs irrespective of employee classification.
- C. The execution of this Agreement on the part of the employee shall cover operations of the Employer which are covered by this Agreement, and shall have application to the work performed within the classifications defined and set forth in the Agreement or any supplements hereto.

D. This Agreement shall cover and govern the following classifications:

- A. Upon receipt of proper written authorization of any employee, the Employer will deduct from the wages due such employee, on the first pay week of each month, his Union initiation fees and monthly dues, as are from time to time fixed by the local Union, in accordance with the Constitution and By-Laws of the local Union, and certified to the Employer by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union as being so fixed, and will forward the aggregate amount of such deductions promptly each month to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union or other duly authorized representative designated by the Union.
- B. Where an employee who is on check-off is not on the payroll during the week which the deduction is to be made or who has no earnings or insufficient earnings during that week or is on leave of absence, the employee must make arrangements with the Union to pay such dues in advance.
- C. The Employer will recognize authorization for deductions from wages, if in compliance with state law, to be transmitted to the Union or to such other organization as the Union may request if mutually agreed to. No such authorization shall be recognized if in violation of state or federal law.

SHOP STEWARDS

ARTICLE VII

- C. Shop stewards shall be granted super seniority for purposes of lay-off only.
- D. Shop stewards or alternates shall not give orders to employees nor countermand order of management. Further, they shall not be sole judge in determining whether a piece of equipment is unsafe. However, the Business Agent shall have the right to investigate, along with management, disputes regarding unsafe equipment.
- E. Shop stewards shall be permitted to investigate, with knowledge of the Superintendent, present and process grievances on the property of the Employer, without loss of time or pay.
- F. Whenever the shop steward is required to attend any grievance hearings attended by representatives of the Employer and the Union, he shall be compensated by the Employer for all lost earning opportunities or time lost. When a Business Agent and Employer agree to a meeting to be attended by the shop steward, the steward shall be compensated by the Employer for all lost earning opportunities or time lost. Time lost shall be construed to mean that the shop steward shall be paid for all time spent while negotiating grievances with the Employer. Time is to be computed at the applicable hourly rate for the steward's job classifications.

D. Inability to work because of proven illness or injury shall not result in loss of seniority for the employee(s) involved.

C. During the personal leave of absence, the employee shall not engage in gainful employment in any industry. Failure to comply with this provision shall result in the complete loss of seniority rights for the employee(s) involved.

B. Any employee desiring leave of absence from his employment shall secure written permission from both the Union and the Employer. The maximum leave of absence shall be for thirty (30) days and may be extended for like periods. Permission for extension must be secured from both the Union and the Employer.

A. The Employer agrees to grant the necessary time off, not exceeding three (3) years without discrimination or loss of seniority and without pay, to any employee designated by the Union, in writing, to the Employer, to act as an elected Union officer, business agent, organizer, or to attend a labor convention for an indefinite period.

ABSENCES

ARTICLE VIII

- A. If the Employer establishes different starting times for employees in the same job classification, the senior man among those assigned to the building (the steward, for example, shall have top seniority in this instance), if qualified in the classification, shall have the choice. For example - where the Employer schedules one employee to commence work at 7:00 a.m., another at 8:00 a.m. and a third at 9 a.m., the senior employee shall have the choice of deciding which of the three he prefers. Similarly, the qualified senior man in the same job classification shall have the choice, he shall continue on the starting time until such starting time is discontinued or until a change is mutually agreeable to Employer and the Union.
- B. Once each year, during the month of July, the Employer shall compile and submit to the Union in writing, and then post in a conspicuous place, a district-wide seniority list and a building-assigned seniority list or lists from the regular payroll records. Any employees hired after said posting shall have their names added to the list, in order of the date of hire, and the union shall be notified of such additions. Any controversy over the seniority standing of any employee on the seniority list or lists shall be submitted as a grievance.
- C. An employee shall be immediately placed on the district-wide seniority list and building

SENIORITY (PART-TIME EMPLOYEES)

ARTICLE X

ARTICLE XI

LOSS OF SENIORITY

A. Seniority shall be broken and name removed from the seniority list for the following reasons:

1. Discharge.

2. Voluntary quit.

3. Unauthorized leave of absence.

B. An employee who is absent because of illness or injury shall accumulate seniority for the purpose of determining his place on the seniority list.

SENIORITY PRINCIPLE (LAYOFF & RECALL)

ARTICLE XII

A. Should it become necessary to lay off employees, the Employer shall give consideration to both qualifications and seniority. If qualifications are equal, then seniority will prevail. Recall of employees from layoff will be subject to the same considerations.

B. The Employer, when recalling laid off employees, shall send a telegram or certified letter to the employee's last known address (as indicated on employee's records) and the employee shall have seven (7) days to respond to such recall notice. After the employee notifies the Employer that he will return to work, the employee shall have one (1) week to adjust any other personal matters he may have. If the employee fails to report within the one (1) week period, he shall lose all recall rights under the contract.

C. The Employer agrees to give thirty (30) days' notice whenever making layoffs, to the Union and the shop steward. Notice must be given in writing. Where such required notice is not given, the Employer shall pay the employee thirty (30) days wages in lieu thereof.

- A. New Jersey Statutes must prevail.
- B. In the event any employee covered by this Agreement is required to serve jury duty, the Employer agrees to supplement his jury duty compensation with an amount sufficient to equal his regular forty (40) hour weekly earnings at the straight time rate for his job classification.
- (40) hour weekly earnings at the straight time rate for his job classification.

MILITARY/JURY DUTY

ARTICLE XIII

ARTICLE XIV

PROMOTIONS

A. All employees within this Agreement shall have equal opportunity to qualify for any assignment within the scope of this Agreement. In assigning employees to jobs coming within this Agreement, the Employer shall have the right to select qualified persons, but between qualified persons preference shall be given according to seniority. All open positions coming within this Agreement will be posted in all schools. The Board may fill the assignment from within or without the bargaining unit.

A. Any Employee within the Agreement who elects to become part of management shall lose all seniority rights after thirty (30) days if the employee elects to stay in management. If the employee decides to return to the bargaining unit at the end of the thirty (30) days, he may do so without loss of seniority rights.

LEAVING BARGAINING UNIT

- A. The Employer agrees that all conditions of the employment relating to wages, hours of work, overtime differentials, and general working conditions shall be maintained at not less than the highest standards in effect at the time of the signing of this Agreement; and the conditions of employment shall be improved wherever specific provisions for improvement are made elsewhere in this Agreement. It is agreed that the provisions of this section shall not apply to inadvertent or bona fide errors made by the Employer or the Union in applying the terms and conditions of this Agreement if such error is corrected within ninety (90) days from the date of error.
- B. This provision does not give the Employer the right to impose or continue wages, hours, and working conditions less than those contained in this contract.

MAINTENANCE OF STANDARDS

ARTICLE XVI

A. The Employer or employee shall not enter into Agreement or contract with his employees or his Employer individually or collectively in any way conflicts with the terms and provision of this Agreement. Any such Agreement shall be null and void.

EXTRA CONTRACT AGREEMENT

ARTICLE XVIII

GRIEVANCE

A. All grievances or disputes arising under the terms of this Agreement shall be handled in the manner provided by this Article.

1st Step - In the case of any grievance or dispute, the Union steward shall take the matter up with the Employer or the Employer's named representative and every effort shall be made to be present at all times when an employee has a grievance with the Employer. The employee may also request to be present.

2nd Step - If no solution can be reached, the Union steward shall refer the matter to the Business Agent and the Business Agent shall take the matter up with the Employer or the Employer's representative in an endeavor to adjust it amicably. In the event that the grievance remains unresolved, then the Union may refer the matter to the Advisory Board within ten (10) days after receipt of the Employer's decision.

B. The Advisory Board shall be appointed within thirty (30) days following the request of either party to the other. It shall consist of one member named by the Board of Education and one member named by the Teamsters Local Union No. 676. A third member, who shall be chairman, shall be named by the first two named advisors. The Advisory Board shall have authority to confer separately or with the Board of Education, the Superintendent, and the Teamsters Local Union No. 676.

C. The cost and expenses incurred in securing and utilizing the services of a consultant are the responsibility of the party engaging this service. In the event an Advisory Board is used, the Board of Education will bear the expense of its appointee and both parties will share equally the cost of the third member.

D. All employees covered under this Agreement shall have seven (7) working days to file a written grievance after the grievance has become known, or should have been known, and ten (10) working days for any employee that may have been absent because of illness and/or injury.

ARTICLE XIX

INSPECTION PRIVILEGES

A. Authorized agents of the Union shall have access to the Employer's premises at any time with advance knowledge given to the Superintendent during working hours for the purposes of adjusting disputes, investigating working conditions and ascertaining that the Agreement is being adhered to.

B. Whenever a complaint is made concerning the wages, vacations, and/or holidays of an employee, an authorized representative of the Union shall have the right, with knowledge of the Superintendent, to inspect Employer's payroll and time cards of the employee during grievance procedure.

ARTICLE XX

SEPARATION OF EMPLOYMENT

- A. Upon discharge, the Employer shall pay all monies due to the employee, including vacations, holiday pay. Upon quitting, the Employer shall pay all monies due the employee, including vacations and holiday pay, on the pay day of the Employer in the following pay period, up to and including separation.

- A. The Employer agrees to cooperate towards the prompt settlement of employee on-the-job injury claims when such claims are due and owing.
- B. The Employer shall provide employees with workers' compensation insurance and social security as required by federal and/or state law.

ARTICLE XXIV

- A. Any employee sustaining injuries which are compensable under the Workers' Compensation Act but which do not prevent him from performing his usual duties but require that he visit the offices of Employer-designated physicians for the purpose of obtaining further treatment during working hours, shall suffer no loss of wages because of such visits.
- B. Any employee sustaining injuries which are compensable under the Workers' Compensation Act which prevent him from performing all work available to him, at Employers' place, shall sustain no loss of pay for the balance of the day on which he was injured.
- C. Ability to perform work shall be determined by doctor and/or hospital report.

ARTICLE XXVI

- A. All employees shall receive a lunch period before the fifth (5th) hour of work. The lunch period shall be one-half (1/2) hour. Any employee required to work during his lunch period shall receive time and one-half hour earlier, but shall work the necessary hours whereby producing one-half hour overtime at the end of his working day. Any employee that is required to work through his lunch period stated above shall be afforded a twenty (20) minute-break to eat his lunch, on Employer's time, after the fourth (4th) hour and not later than the fifth.
- B. Any employee required to work in excess of two (2) hours overtime in any one (1) day shall be afforded a twenty (20) minute break period on Employer's time. Any employee required to work in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one day shall be entitled to any additional twenty (20) minute break on Employer's time.

ARTICLE XXVII

DISCHARGE OR SUSPENSION WITHIN TERMINATION
CLAUSE OF EMPLOYEE CONTRACT

A. No employee may be dismissed or suspended without just cause. Nothing shall prohibit the Union from investigating any dismissal or suspension and resorting to the grievance procedure provided in this Agreement.

B. Until the case has been discussed with the Business Agent, no employee may be dismissed or suspended within the termination clause of the employee contract, except:

1. Where the provisions of this Article provide for immediate dismissal or suspension.

C. In the event that it is decided, as provided in the Grievance Procedure set forth in this Agreement, that the suspension or discharge was without just cause, the decision may provide for reinstatement with or without pay, the Employer shall not receive any credit for wages or compensation earned by the employee while he was out of the Employer's employ.

D. Except where an emergency prevents it, grievance concerning dismissal or suspension shall be advanced over all other matters pending for grievance hearings and shall be promptly heard.

E. Except in the case of immediate dismissal for the causes set forth below, and subject to the work rules of 2/8/77 as amended, no employee may be dismissed or suspended for his offense but shall receive at least one written warning for each different offense.

F. The parties agree that cause for immediate dismissal without first discussing the matter with the Business Agent shall be the following:

- 1. Calling or participating in any unauthorized strike, work stoppage or walk-out.
- 2. Drunkenness, proven during work hours, or being under the influence of alcohol during work hours.
- 3. Unprovoked assault on his Employer or his Employer's representative during work hours.

4. Proven theft or dishonesty.

G. In each instance, the Employer shall promptly notify the Union of the action taken, in writing. The parties agree that a dismissal or suspension shall not be subject to the grievance procedure or arbitration as provided in this Agreement unless the Union shall have notified the Employer, in writing, of the intention to do so within two (2) weeks of the dismissal or suspension.

The parties recognize that in interpreting previous Agreements there have been difficulties over whether or not the Employer may dismiss employees for slow-downs. The parties agree that this matter is cause for suspension pending grievance procedure but not for immediate dismissal.

A. There shall be no discrimination by the Employer against employees because of Union activities, nor shall there be any discrimination against any employee because of race, color, creed, sex, age or nationality in the placement and retention of employment or in the hours, wages or working conditions of the employees.

DISCRIMINATION

ARTICLE XXVIII

A. Employees who are required to work in more than one job classification during their working hours of any day shall be paid for the entire day at the rate of the highest job classification.

WORK IN OTHER CLASSIFICATIONS

ARTICLE XXIX

ARTICLE XXX

LEAVE TIME

A. The Board of Education, upon recommendation of the Superintendent of Schools, shall grant a total of ten (10) days leave per school year (not to be accumulated) to any regularly employed person for the following emergencies or conditions:

1. Death in immediate family - up to five (5) days (immediate family - mother, father, mother-in-law, father-in-law, children, husband, wife, brother, sister, or any relative who has lived within the same household for a period of over two years). Additional emergencies will be judged, upon a request, by the Superintendent of Schools.

2. Personal leave - up to three (3) days - (legal, household, family business). Personal business - business that cannot be conducted outside the normal work day. Forty-eight (48) hours' notice shall be given except in approved emergencies.

(a) An employee requesting a personal day shall be required to state the reason in order that a determination can be made whether or not the reason constitutes business that cannot be conducted outside the normal work day. Proof may be required.

I. Maternity leave - Maternity leave without pay shall be granted to all female employees under tenure for six (6) months or a period not to exceed the end of the school year following the school year in which the leave is granted. Maternity leave for female non-tenure employees maybe granted without pay for the remainder of the school year in which the leave is requested and such leave shall not extend beyond the end of the employee's contract for the school

H. Workers Compensation - Workers' Compensation awards shall be deducted from the regular salary of the employee for the days absence covered by the Workers' Compensation Act. The time lost from employment under the Workers' Compensation Act shall not be deducted from days permitted for regular sick leave allowance.

G. Buy-back for unused sick days - Upon retirement only and after 15 years of service in the district and notification to the Board by October 1 prior to the June 30th of the retirement year, 100% of accumulated sick leave will be paid, effective July 1, 2002, through the contract year of 2004-2005, at the rate of $25 per day. If you do not notify the Board by October 1st, you will have to wait until the following year to receive the severance pay.

F. Physician's certificate required for sick leave - In the absence of a pattern of abuse of sick leave or excessive absences, a physician's certificate may be required by the Superintendent of Schools when such leave is claimed after three (3) consecutive working days absence. However, whenever it appears that there has been an abuse of sick leave or excessive absences on the part of the employee, the Superintendent of Schools may require said certificate regardless of the number of days of absence.

E. Accumulated sick leave - Twelve (12) days of allowable sick leave not utilized in any year shall be cumulative to be used for additional sick leave in subsequent years.

year in which the leave is granted (the year in which maternity leave is granted shall not count toward fulfillment of the time requirements for acquiring tenure). Any leave under the New Jersey Family Leave Act shall be deemed included within this time and not in addition thereto.

J. Requests for maternity leave, without pay, shall be made by an employee between the third and fifth months of pregnancy. Leave shall begin as recommended by the employee's personal physician. An employee may return to work after the birth of a child upon the presentation of a medical certificate from the employee's personal physician stating she is capable of performing her duties. If an employee decides not to return, she shall notify the Superintendent by giving notice of resignation at least ninety (90) days before the leave expires.

K. Employees granted maternity leave shall be re-assigned to the position held at the time the leave was granted, if possible.

L. If any provisions of this Article are contrary to law, such provisions shall not be deemed valid except to the extent permitted by law.

M. Time clocks – The employer who employs five (5) or more people may have time clocks installed at such operations.

N. Break periods – All employees shall have a fifteen (15) minute break period in the a.m. and a fifteen (15) minute break period in the p.m., without loss of pay.

WAGES AND HOURS

ARTICLE XXXI

- J. Each employee shall be provided with a statement of gross earnings and an itemized statement of all deduction made for any purpose.
- K. When an employee has completed a day's work and has left the Employer's premises, he shall be "off duty" for at least eight (8) hours before being recalled.
- L. Security Check - Any employee required to work on Saturday or Sunday for security check shall receive one and one-half (1-1/2) times the hourly rate of pay for a minimum of two (2) hours.
- M. Holidays - Holiday calendars included in Agreement. Any employee required to work on any of the holidays stipulated in this Agreement shall receive two (2) times his regular rate of pay.
- N. No employee shall be entitled to receive overtime pay except for overtime actually worked.
- O. If an employee clocks in within three (3) minutes of his starting time and there is otherwise no excessive or habitual lateness, then he shall not be docked. However, if he is late more than three (3) minutes or there is excessive or habitual lateness, he shall be docked for the total lateness involved.
- P. The Board of Education will supply yearly a twelve month holiday calendar for personnel covered by this Agreement.
- Q. Overtime shall be assigned on an equitable rotating basis by seniority within each building or department, as the case may be. The Employer shall endeavor to roughly equalize overtime; however, mathematical precision shall not be required. The Employer shall maintain a record of overtime offered, accepted or refused, and shall take into account absences due to illness.

1. No employee shall be eligible for overtime work if he/she has been absent from work on any of the five (5) regularly scheduled work days prior to the date of the overtime work, unless such absence is due to approved vacation or an approved personal day under Article XXX A, 2.
2. Saturdays – Any employee required to work on Saturdays shall receive time and one-half (1-1/2) for all hours worked with a minimum of four (4) hours.
3. Sundays – Any employee required to work on Sundays shall receive two (2) times the hourly rate of pay with a minimum of four (4) hours.
4. Any employee required to work in excess of eight (8) hours in any day, Monday through Friday, or in excess of forty (40) hours per week, shall receive time and one-half (1-1/2).
5. In the event that an employee is called to work within the eight (8) hour "off duty" period, he shall be compensated at one and one-half (1-1/2) times his applicable hourly rate of pay.
6. In any building where five (5) or more employees are assigned, a monthly overtime sign-up sheet will be posted on the bulletin board by the time clock area. All employees interested in working overtime for the following month are to sign the list. Those employees not signing the overtime sheet will be charged with the hours as if they had worked the time for the month. Late signers will be charged with the hours worked at the time they sign up.
7. An employee with the lowest accumulated hours to date will have their choice of overtime within that particular workweek at the time the overtime was offered.
- R. Employee(s) who is assigned to work on their regular shift on an evening prior to a holiday, and whose work ends on the holiday, shall work the necessary hours to complete that day's work at the regular rate. All hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours will be at the holiday rate of two (2) times the hourly rate of pay.
- S. All employees are required to work, if scheduled, (Monday through Friday) the day before and the day after a holiday in order to receive compensation for the holiday, excluding sick leave.

A. The parties to this Agreement believe it complies with Chapter 123 New Jersey Public Laws of 1974. Accordingly, it is agreed that nothing contained in this Agreement shall require Union or Employer to do anything which violates the law.

B. The Parties agree that all of the clauses of this Agreement shall be severable. Any clause which may be prohibited by, invalid under, or in contravention of any operable federal or state law, or under which Employer or Union is required to do any act which is in contravention of any federal or state law, shall be null and void, but in such event the remaining clauses shall continue in full force and effect for the term of this Agreement and any renewal thereof.

C. The parties agree, in good faith, to attempt to replace any such null and void clause with a clause which conforms with the law.

D. The parties further agree that if during the term of this Agreement, or any renewal thereof, any such null and void clause shall become legal or permissible to legislative enactment, a subsequent decision of courts or otherwise, such null and void clause shall again become part of this Agreement.

E. Any disagreement shall be submitted to the grievance procedure.

F. The Employer who is party to this Agreement agrees to be bound by all of the terms and provisions of the Agreement and the interpretations and enforcement thereof, and does further agree to participate in negotiations of any modification or renewal of the contract.
