WHEREAS, the parties have reached certain understandings which they desire to confirm in this Agreement, be it

RESOLVED, in consideration of the following mutual covenants, it is hereby agreed as follows:

ARTICLE I

RECOGNITION

A. The Commission hereby recognizes the Association as the bargaining representative for all full-time and part-time certified personnel, which include those teachers who teach in various Commission programs such as the Adult High School Education Program, the Alternate School Program for Non-Classified Middle School and High School students, Elementary, Middle School and High school Special Education Programs, Substance Abuse Programs, Contracted Child Study and Speech Programs, Federal and State Supplementary Non-Public Programs and On-Line Instruction, but excluding all non-certified staff, supportive staff employees, supervisors, managerial executives and confidential employees.

B. Unless otherwise indicated, the term "employee(s)" when used herein shall refer to all members of the unit.

ARTICLE II

NEGOTIATION OF SUCCESSOR AGREEMENT

A. The parties agree to enter into collective negotiation over successor Agreement in accordance with Chapter 123, Public Law 1974, in a good-faith effort to reach agreement on all matters concerning the terms and conditions of employment. Such negotiations shall begin not later than December 1 of the calendar year preceding the calendar year in which this Agreement expires. Any Agreement so negotiated shall apply to all unit members, be reduced to writing, be signed by the Commission and the Association, and be adopted by the Board.

B. This Agreement shall not be modified in whole or in part by the parties except by an instrument in writing duly executed by both parties.

ARTICLE III

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. A "grievance" is a claim by an employee or the Association that there has been a violation or inequity because of a misinterpretation or misapplication of this Agreement which would adversely affect an employee's terms and conditions of employment.

B. A grievance to be considered under this procedure must be initiated within thirty (30) work days from the time when the employee knew or should have known of its occurrence.

C. The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest possible level, equitable solutions to grievances. Both parties agree that these proceedings shall be kept as informal and confidential as may be appropriate at any level of the procedure.

D. Any employee who has a grievance shall discuss it first with the immediate supervisor involved in an attempt to resolve the matter informally.

E. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the employee within ten (10) work days, the grievance shall be put in writing to the immediate supervisor. The written notice shall specify the nature of the grievance, the result of the informal discussion, and the dissatisfaction with the previously rendered decision. Upon receipt of the written grievance, the immediate supervisor will communicate a decision to the employee in writing within ten (10) working days.

F. The employee may appeal the immediate supervisor's decision to the Superintendent. This appeal must be made in writing, reciting the matter submitted with decisions previously rendered. The Superintendent will attempt to resolve the matter as quickly as possible, but within a period not to exceed ten (10) working days. The decision is to be rendered in writing to the employee.

G. If the grievance is not resolved to the employee's satisfaction, the employee may within ten (10) working days request a review by the Commission. The request shall be submitted in writing, through the Superintendent, who shall attach all related papers and forward the request to the Commission. The Commission or a committee thereof shall review the grievance and if requested by the grievant, hold a hearing. If not waived, a hearing shall be held with the employee within thirty (30) work days and a decision shall be rendered in writing within ten (10) working days of the hearing. If the hearing is waived, a decision shall be rendered in writing within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the grievance.

H. If the decision of the Commission does not resolve the grievance, the Association may submit the grievance to arbitration, except in the case of any grievance involving any of the following:

1. any matter for which a method is prescribed by law or any rule or regulation of the State Commissioner of Education
2. any matter which according to law is either beyond the scope of Commission authority or which by law is exclusively within the discretion of the board.

The association may submit the grievance to arbitration by so notifying the Commission, through the Superintendent, in writing no later than ten (10) working days following the decision of the Commission. Failure to submit within such period of time shall constitute an absolute bar to such arbitration unless the Commission and the Association shall mutually agree upon a longer time period on an individual case. The Commission may also request arbitration concerning any dispute regarding the interpretation or application of this agreement.

The parties shall seek a mutually agreed upon arbitrator from either the American Arbitration Association or another agency. The reasonable cost of the services of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Commission and the Association. Any other costs incurred shall be paid by the party incurring the cost.

The arbitrator shall limit decisions to issues involving solely the interpretation and application of this agreement. The arbitrator shall not add or subtract from this agreement or any policy of the Commission. The decision of the arbitrator shall be rendered in writing within thirty (30) work days of the conclusion of the hearings; in the case where hearings are waived, then from the date that the final statements and proofs have been submitted. The written decision shall set forth the findings of fact, reasoning and conclusion on the issue submitted to the Commission and to the Association and shall be binding on both parties.

I. An employee may be represented at all stages of the grievance procedure by representatives of the Association.

J. No reprisals of any kind shall be taken by the Commission or by any member of the administration against any participant in the grievance procedure by reason of such participation.

K. All documents, communications and records dealing with the processing of a grievance shall be filed in a separate file and shall not be kept in the personnel file of any of the participants.

L. All meetings and hearings under this procedure shall be conducted in private and shall include only such parties in interest and their designated representatives.

M. Grievance forms shall be drawn up by the Association and the Commission.
