2. Vesting of Rights: All employees hired on or prior to December 31, 2009, are vested as to all eligibility criteria and benefits set forth in Schedule C attached to this Agreement. Any material changes to Schedule C made pursuant to any future agreements with and/or arbitration and/or court proceedings involving the Employer and the PBA shall not be effective to change those employees' rights and benefits under Schedule C, provided such health insurance coverage remains generally available in the insurance market at commercially reasonable rates.¹ If not generally available at commercially reasonable rates, then the Employer is obligated to provide such employees with a retirement benefit plan that is substantially equivalent to or better than the coverage set forth in Schedule C. Provided such health insurance coverage remains generally available in the insurance market at commercially reasonable rates, these rights may only be changed as to each eligible employee with the express written consent of that specific employee eligible for benefits under Schedule C.

In addition to the foregoing, the PBA consents to each current bargaining unit member, and all bargaining unit members hired from the date of this agreement through December 31, 2009, signing the individual contract, attached hereto as Schedule E, between each unit member and the Employer that obligates the Employer to provide the benefits described in Schedule C to the unit member and eligible dependents, regardless of any changes in the collective bargaining agreement.

4. Dependents of employees eligible for retiree health benefits under Schedule C shall also be provided with coverage pursuant to the health insurance plan's rules.

An employee shall earn 1 "salary point" for each year as a sworn law enforcement officer prior to joining the Union County Prosecutor's Office. An employee shall earn 3 "salary points" for each year of employment at the Union County Prosecutor's Office. Using the above formula when an employee has accumulated 30 "salary points" then said employee shall be entitled to first class pay status thereafter. Effective January 1, 2003, the first class pay status shall be converted to a new salary level designated as "Step 10" and reflected on the attached salary schedules. Achievement of the "Step 10" rate shall be in accordance with the existing step movement procedure, automatic annual step movement which survives the contract term. Under no circumstance shall any employee covered by this contract with who has 20 years of law enforcement time, as defined by the New Jersey Police and Fire Retirement System Statute and Case law, be placed at less than Step 5 on the salary guide upon initial hire. Annual step movement shall occur thereafter.

The 20 year step of Senior Officer differential shall continue in the future to increase at the same rate as the top step (schedule A) general wage increase occurs.

Section 6.

The Prosecutor shall have the sole discretion to place individuals at any step on the salary guide upon hire with the Office. Notwithstanding the Prosecutor's discretion, under no circumstances shall a Detective, who has twenty (20) or more years of law enforcement experience, be placed at less than step 5 on the salary guide or the corresponding step which would allow that Detective to reach step 10 upon accruing twenty-five (25) years of law enforcement experience.

In either case no charge shall be made to the employee's sick leave accumulation, provided, however, it is understood and agreed that when an employee receives a compensation check for temporary disability benefits, he or she shall turn over to the County any checks received from the County's Workers Compensation Insurance carrier.

C. After the first calendar year or ninety (90) calendar days from the date of the injury, or illness, as hereinafter defined, the employee shall have the option to retain his temporary disability Workers Compensation check and not receive any additional monies from the County and not have any charge made to his sick leave accumulation, or if the employee wishes to receive full pay and charge his sick leave accumulation, he shall be permitted to do the same provided he turns over to the County any temporary disability check or checks received from the County's Workers Compensation Insurance carrier.

D. Failure to turn over temporary disability checks shall cause the employee's sick leave to be charged and shall further result in the County taking such action as it deems appropriate to recover said monies.

E. If any Employee is absent from work for seven (7) days or less, arising out of an injury or illness, attributable to his employment so that the said employee is not entitled to receive temporary disability benefits, the said employee shall not have any charge made against his sick leave accumulation.
