Any agreement so negotiated shall apply to the employees cited in Article 1, Section A, be reduced in writing and submitted for ratification by the REA and approval by the Board. If ratified and approved, it shall be signed by the parties.

ARTICLE IV
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. Definition:

A grievance is a claim by an employee or the Association based upon the interpretation, application, or violation of this Agreement, policies, or administrative decisions affecting terms and conditions of employment.

B. Terms:

1. Aggrieved Person

An "aggrieved person" is the employee, employees, or the REA making the claim.

2. Party in Interest

A "party in interest" is the employee or employees making the claim and any employee including the REA or the Board, who might be required to take action or against whom action might be taken in order to resolve the claim.

C. Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest possible level, equitable solutions to problems which may arise affecting employees. Both parties agree that these proceedings will be kept confidential and include only the appropriate parties of interest.

Nothing herein shall be construed to limit the right of any employee having a grievance to discuss the matter informally with the appropriate member of the administration and to have the grievance adjusted without invocation of the grievance procedure provided that such adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

D. Procedure

1. The number of days indicated at each level should be considered as a maximum and every effort should be made to expedite the process. The time limits specified may, however, be extended by mutual agreement. The aggrieved person must initiate the grievance procedure within thirty (30) work days from the time when the grievant knew or should have known of its occurrence. Failure at any step of this procedure to communicate the decision on a grievance within the specified time limits shall permit the grievant to proceed to the next step. Failure at any step of this procedure to appeal a grievance to the next step within the specified time limits shall be deemed to be acceptance of the decision rendered at the step.

2. Any aggrieved person may be represented at all stages of the grievance procedure by himself, or at his option, by the representative(s) selected or approved by the REA. When an aide is not represented by the REA, the REA shall have the right to be present and to state its views at all stages of the grievance procedure.
3. Beyond Level One, all grievance submissions and subsequent dispositions shall be in writing, and all dispositions shall set forth the decision and the reasons thereto and shall be transmitted promptly to all parties in interest and to the REA.

LEVEL ONE

An employee with a grievance shall first discuss it with the Building Principal, either directly or, at the employee's discretion, through the REA with the objective of resolving the matter informally. Any employee whose duties are routinely performed at both schools may initiate a grievance with the Superintendent of Schools.

LEVEL TWO

If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Level One, or if no decision has been rendered within five (5) school days after presentation of the grievance, he/she may, within ten (10) school days, refer to the Superintendent of Schools, who shall communicate a decision in writing to the grievant within ten (10) school days of receiving the grievance.

LEVEL THREE

If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Level Two, or if no decision has been rendered within ten (10) school days after presentation of the grievance to the Superintendent, the aggrieved person may, within ten (10) school days, notify the REA that the grievance is still pending. The grievant may, within ten (10) school days, request that the REA move the grievance to the Board. The grievant or the REA may, within ten (10) school days, move the grievance to the Board through the Superintendent or the Board Secretary.

The Board, or a committee thereof, shall review the grievance. The Board shall render a decision in writing within twenty-one (21) school days of receipt of the grievance by the Board.

LEVEL FOUR

If the aggrieved person is not satisfied with the disposition of the grievance at Level Three, or if no decision has been rendered within twenty-one (21) school days after presentation of the grievance he/she may request that the REA move the grievance to arbitration.

If the grievant is dissatisfied with the decision of the Board and only if the grievance pertains to the original claim, the grievant or the REA shall have the right to request the appointment of an arbitrator. Such request shall be made known to the Superintendent by certified mail -- return receipt requested -- no later than fifteen (15) school days after the decision of the Board.

Within ten (10) school days after such written notice of submission to arbitration, the Board and the REA shall attempt to agree upon a mutually acceptable arbitrator. The following procedure will be used to secure the services of an arbitrator:

A request shall be made to the Public Employment Relations Commission (PERC) to submit a roster of persons qualified to function as arbitrator in question;

If the parties are unable to agree upon a mutually satisfactory arbitrator from the list submitted, they will request that PERC submits a second list;

If the parties are unable to agree within ten (10) school days of the initial request for arbitration upon a mutually satisfactory arbitrator from the second submitted list, PERC may be requested by either party to designate an arbitrator. The arbitrator shall limit consideration to the issues submitted and shall consider nothing else. He/she can add nothing to, nor subtract anything from, the agreement between the parties or any policy of the Board. The decision of the arbitrator shall be in writing and binding upon the parties.

E. Cost of Arbitration

The REA and the Board shall each bear all their individual expenses incurred in the course of any arbitration proceedings.

The fees and expenses of the arbitrator are the only costs which shall be shared by the REA and the Board and such costs will be shared equally.

Where grievance proceedings are mutually scheduled by the parties during school time, parties in interest shall suffer no loss of pay.

F. Protection of Grievant

The Board recognizes that any employee has a right to file a grievance. The Board states there shall be no act, conduct, or procedure undertaken by the Board or member of the administrative staff which shall be in the nature of a reprisal against any employee who files a grievance, including but not by way of limitation, any assignment of additional duties, any adverse comment in the evaluation of the performance of the grievant, or any action which shall be undertaken solely as a means of reprisal against any employee filing a grievance.

(SE) 4/25/14

Any employee who waives the benefits provided under Article V shall notify the Board no later than June 15th, preceding the contract in which the employee will receive a stipend in lieu of benefits.
