GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. Purpose

1. The purpose of this procedure is to secure the lowest possible level of equitable solution to the problems which may arise affecting the terms and conditions contained in this agreement. The parties agree that this procedure will be kept as informal as may be appropriate.

B. Procedure

1. Grievances shall be processed promptly and expeditiously.
2. Formal grievances and appeals shall be filed in writing.
3. Communications and decisions concerning formal grievances shall be in writing.
4. A grievant shall be permitted a representative at all levels of the procedure.
5. There shall be no additional evidence submitted during the grievance process by either party once a grievance has been submitted to the Board of Chosen Freeholders at Level 3.
6. Failure by a grievant to process a grievance within the specified time limits shall render the grievance null and void.
7. Failure by the Employer to issue a decision within the specified time limits shall render the grievance awarded on behalf of the grievant.
8. Grievances shall be adjudicated according to the terms of this procedure and the filing, pendency or hearing of any grievance shall not impede the normal management of the work force or operations of any of the activities or functions of the Employer.

11. If either party violates the procedural aspects of this agreement, a procedural violation of the terms of the agreement shall constitute a bar to preventing any grievance to arbitration. If either party commits a procedural violation in accordance with this clause, then the grievance shall be awarded to the other party who has not violated the procedural aspects of the grievance procedure.

C. Processing

1. Time Limits - Since it is important that grievances be processed as rapidly as possible the number of days indicated at each level shall be considered as a maximum and failure to act within these time limits shall be subject to the procedural penalties outlined above. The time limits specified below may, however, be extended by mutual agreement in writing.
2. Any grievance or dispute that might arise between the parties or any employee with reference to the application or of the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this agreement, shall be settled in the following manner:
 - (1) STEP ONE - The grievant or his representative shall file a grievance within ten (10) workdays following the date on which the grievance actually occurred. The grievance will be filed with the employee's immediate supervisor who shall make an effort to resolve the problem within a reasonable period of time; such time period shall not exceed five (5) workdays. The grievance shall be filed in writing.
 - (2) STEP TWO - In the event the grievance cannot be resolved at the first level after the decision of the immediate supervisor is received if the employee wishes to appeal the grievance the employee or his representative must file the grievance within five (5) workdays after receipt of the decision of the immediate supervisor at the second step. The Clerk of the Board shall review the grievance once filed at the second step and render an answer within seven (7) workdays after the receipt of the grievance.
 - (3) STEP THREE - If the grievant is dissatisfied with the answer submitted at Step Two, the grievant or his representative may submit the grievance to the Board of Chosen Freeholders' Clerk for the scheduling of a hearing. The Employer shall schedule the hearing within seven (7) calendar days after receipt of the grievance at Level Three. The hearing shall be heard within thirty (30) days after the actual receipt of the grievance appeal at Level Three. The Board, at its option, may deem that a hearing is not necessary and, in such case, it must notify the grievant and his representative of such a decision. If the hearing is deemed unnecessary or if the hearing is held, the Board of Chosen Freeholders shall respond to the grievance and deliver its written answer to the grievant and his representative no later than ten (10) workdays after the employee is notified of the Board's determination not to hold a hearing or, in the case of a hearing, ten (10) workdays after the adjournment of the hearing. Once the Board of Chosen Freeholders has made a decision on a grievance, the decision of the Board of Chosen Freeholders shall be final and binding, unless there is a specific statutory process for appeal to the New Jersey Civil Service Commission, then the appeal process of the New Jersey Civil Service Commission shall be followed if it is specifically elected in writing by the employee. However, if the grievant and/ or his representative wishes review of the Board's decision by an impartial binding arbitrator, the employee or his representative may request such a review. The review request must be made within thirty (30) calendar days after receipt of the decision of the Board of Chosen Freeholders. If a review request is not received, the Board of Chosen Freeholder's decision as previously stated will be final and binding.

If a review request is received, the employee or his representative must notify the Public Employment Relations Commission in writing the grievant's desire to have an arbitrator appointed. The Public Employment Relations Commission shall then submit a list of arbitrators to the parties for review. The parties shall review the list of arbitrators and shall have the right to strike any names from the list that are unacceptable to either party, with the grievant and/or his representative striking first.

If, after review of the list, there are no acceptable names, the parties shall request the Public Employment Relations Commission to submit an additional list of seven (7) names and each party shall again have the right to strike three (3) names from said list with the grievant striking first. The last remaining name on the second list shall be appointed as the arbitrator.

The parties agree that the arbitration process in this grievance procedure may only be utilized for two (2) binding cases and two (2) advisory cases in each calendar year.

The arbitrator shall hold a hearing and hear the position of each side and utilize whatever efforts the arbitrator deems appropriate, including mediation, in an attempt to resolve the dispute. The arbitrator shall submit a written report to the parties with his binding award. The parties shall review the award and the parties shall implement the award based upon the arbitrator's report.

In any event, the final decision on all grievances shall rest with the Board of Chosen Freeholders and shall not be appealable to any form and shall be considered final and binding on all parties except for the two (2) case instances where appeal to a binding arbitrator is permitted above.

The arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, or subtract from the collective bargaining agreement. The arbitrator shall confine his review to the application of or the meaning or interpretation of the provision of the agreement cited as being violated by the employee or his representative.

The cost for the services of the arbitrator, including per diem expenses, if any, and actual and necessary travel, subsistence expenses and cost of the hearing room shall be borne equally by the Board and the Union. Any other expenses incurred shall be paid by the party incurring same.
