WHEREAS, the parties have carried on collective bargaining for the purpose of developing a contract covering wages, hours of work and other conditions of employment.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the promises and mutual agreements herein contained, the parties hereto agree with each other in respect to the Employees of the Employer recognized as being represented by the PBA as follows:

ARTICLE I
RECOGNITION

The Employer hereby recognized the aforementioned PBA as the exclusive representative for all the Patrolmen, Sergeants, Lieutenants, Captains and Deputy Chiefs in its Police Department in Point Pleasant Beach, New Jersey, but excluding the Chief of Police and all other employees.

ARTICLE II

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

The PBA recognizes that there are certain functions, responsibilities and management rights exclusively reserved to the Employer. All the rights, power and authority possessed by the Borough prior to the signing of the Agreement are retained exclusively by the Employer subject only to such limitations as are provided in this Agreement.

The management functions are vested in the Mayor and Council and their designees. Specifically, the Mayor and Council and their designees reserve the right, subject to the limitations herein, to establish and administer policies and procedures related to personnel matters, work activities, work programs, police training, operational functions, manpower utilization, productivity and efficiency matters.

The Mayor and Council and their designees retain the right to reprimand, suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline Police personnel for just cause and to hire, promote, transfer, assign, demote or lay off personnel for legitimate reasons.

The Mayor and Council and their designees retain the right to determine the number of personnel and the duties to be performed; to maintain the efficiency of personnel; to determine staffing patterns, to determine, implement and revise schedules; to control and regulate the use of facilities; and otherwise generally to manage the affairs of the Borough and direct the work force of the Police Department except as modified or restricted by a provision of this Agreement.

ARTICLE III

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "grievance" means any complaint, difference or dispute between the Employer and any Employee with respect to the interpretation, application, or violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement or any applicable rule or regulation or policies, agreements or administrative decisions affecting any employee(s) covered by this Agreement.

Minor disciplinary matters (less than six (6) days of fine or suspension or equivalent thereof) shall be included in this Grievance Procedure.

In the event a grievance is filed by any person or persons without direct PBA support and representation the PBA shall be provided with a copy of the initial grievance and all steps of the grievance by the Employer.

2. Grievances shall be processed in accordance with the following procedure:

STEP ONE

Grievances shall be submitted in writing to the office of the Chief of Investigations within ten (10) days following the date upon which the grievance occurred. The grievance shall thereupon be discussed at a meeting consisting of the employee involved, the PBA representative, and the Chief of Investigations or his/her designee. The meeting shall be conducted within fourteen (14) days from the date the grievance is submitted unless the PBA and the Chief of Investigations agree to conduct the meeting at a later date.

STEP TWO

If a grievance is not settled at the grievance meeting described in Step 1, above, the PBA may, within five (5) days from the grievance meeting, appeal the grievance in writing to the Employer, who shall respond to said grievance in writing within 10 days of his/her receipt of the grievance appeal.

STEP THREE

If a grievance appeal under Step 2, above, is denied, and only if the grievance concerns the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the terms of this Agreement, the PBA may submit the grievance to arbitration before an arbitrator appointed by the Public Employment Relations Commission. Such a request for arbitration must be submitted within five (5) days of the date upon which the grievance appeal is denied by the Employer. Grievances concerning policies or management decisions affecting employees may not be submitted to arbitration.

3. The designated arbitrator shall be bound by the provisions of this Agreement and applicable laws of the State of New Jersey and of the United States. The arbitrator shall be restricted to the question of the contract interpretation presented. The arbitrator shall not have the authority to add to, modify, subtract from, or alter in any way the provisions of this Agreement or amendment or supplement thereto. In rendering his written decision, the arbitrator shall indicate in detail his findings of fact and reasons for making the award. The decision and award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties, and upon the grieving employees. The costs of the services of the arbitrator shall be borne equally between the parties. Any other expenses, including but not limited to the presentation of witnesses, shall be paid by the party incurring same. Each arbitration shall be limited to one grievance unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties. Only the Employer or the PBA may submit a grievance to arbitration under this Article.

4. Employer Grievances. Any grievance with the Employer may have against the PBA shall be reduced to writing and submitted to the PBA. Representatives of the PBA and Employer shall meet within fourteen (14) days from the date the grievance is submitted unless the PBA and Employer agree to conduct the meeting at a later date. If the grievance is not resolved, the Employer may submit the dispute to arbitration as provided in this Article.

5. The failure of a grieving employee or the PBA to file a grievance, to appeal a grievance, or to demand arbitration within the time periods contained in this Article shall constitute an absolute waiver of the grievance and shall deprive the arbitrator of jurisdiction to hear the grievance. The failure of the Employer to answer a grievance shall be deemed a denial of the grievance on all applicable grounds.

6. The parties hereby agree that any judicial action to compel compliance with the arbitration clause of this contract, to confirm or enforce any arbitration award entered pursuant to this contract, or to vacate or modify any arbitration award entered pursuant to this contract, shall be processed in accordance with the New Jersey Arbitration Act, N.J.S.A. 2A:24-1 et seq.

7. Employees shall perform all duties as instructed even though they may feel aggrieved. During the pendency of any grievance, the employees affected by the grievance shall continue to comply with all work directives and work rules applicable to them notwithstanding that any such work directives or work rules are the subject of the pending grievance, except where compliance would pose a direct threat to the life and safety of the employees.

8. It is understood and agreed that a decision of the PBA not to exercise its right to request arbitration shall be final and binding upon all employees, and it is further understood and agreed that the PBA and its designated representatives have the authority to settle any grievance at any step.

9. Disputes involving the discipline or discharge of employees shall not be subject to the grievance and arbitration procedures contained in this Article.

Re: Borough of Point Pleasant Beach and
Point Pleasant Beach PBA Local No. 106
2011 through 2014 Contract (Unsigned)
Docket No.: CO-2015-697
Our File No.: 1672.006 00076776

Dear Mr. Gannon:

We understood from our most recent meeting at PERC on the Unfair Practice Charge that we would be hearing from the public employer with respect to the potential resolution. Since we have not heard from the Employer we are taking the liberty of preparing and sending to you a revised page 27 which may be used for insertion into the contract draft previously reviewed. It was understood that the contract, except for the modifications on page 27 was acceptable and would be executed. The proposed revised page 27 hopefully will result in a full contract now ready for execution. We rely upon the parties to sign same at the earliest convenient date.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Richard D. Loccke
