B. Purpose

1. The purpose of this procedure is to secure at the lowest possible level equitable solutions to the problems which may arise from time to time affecting employees.
2. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent an employee from processing his own grievance.

C. Procedure

1. An aggrieved employee shall institute action under this procedure within ten (10) calendar days of the event giving rise to the grievance or within ten (10) calendar days of when the employee should reasonably have known of the event. Failure to act within said ten (10) calendar day period shall be deemed to constitute a waiver of the grievance.
2. The aggrieved employee, with or without a steward present at the employee's option, shall discuss the matter first with his immediate superior in an attempt to resolve it informally. A decision shall be made within four (4) calendar days by such immediate superior.

reduced to writing and submitted to the Library Director or his designee within five (5) calendar days of the decision in paragraph 2 above. If requested, the Library Director or his designee shall meet with the grievant who may be accompanied by the Union president or his designee. The Library Director or his designee shall render his decision in writing within ten (10) calendar days of receipt by him of the grievance or of the grievance meeting, whichever shall come later.

4. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved in the above step, the decision of the Library Director or his designee may be appealed in writing to the Board of Trustees within five (5) calendar days of receipt of such decision. The Board, or a committee thereof, shall meet if requested with the grievant who may be accompanied by the Union president or his designee and council representative. 5. Only a grievance specifying a violation or misinterpretation of the Agreement may be appealed to arbitration; however, an arbitrator may not conduct a hearing and/or issue an award on the merits of any issue involving CETA personnel unless the Board has full and sole authority over the action being complained. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved in the foregoing step, the aggrieved employee may elect to pursue his grievance under the provisions of the Civil Service Act in which case such election shall be deemed an absolute waiver of the option to appeal to arbitration. In the event the aggrieved employee does not elect to pursue his grievance under the provisions of the Civil Service Act, the Union may submit the grievance to arbitration under the rules of the New Jersey State Board of Mediation within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the decision of the Board of Trustees with concurrent notice to the Board. Submission of the grievance to arbitration shall be deemed to constitute an absolute waiver of the option to appeal under the provisions of the Civil Service Act.
6. The arbitrator shall limit himself to the interpretation of the Agreement, to the issues submitted to him, and shall not add to, nor subtract anything from the Agreement between the parties. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding.
7. The costs for the services of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the Union and the Library. Any other expenses incurred shall be paid by the party incurring same.
8. Failure by the aggrieved employee to observe the time limits of this Grievance Procedure shall constitute a waiver of further processing of the grievance.

DISCIPLINE

In the case of a suspension of five (5) days or less, or a lesser disciplinary action, the employee may grieve the action through the Grievance Procedure as set forth herein.

B. The Union may elect to appeal the matter to arbitration provided that such an appeal is joined in by the employee in writing. The election of this procedure will be deemed final and binding and constitute an absolute waiver of the employee's option to appeal under the Civil Service Procedure.

C. In the event the employee involved elects the Civil Service Procedure, such election will be deemed final and binding and constitute an absolute waiver of the option to appeal the matter to arbitration.
