Thereafter, January 1st will be the permanent anniversary date for those employees.

SECTION 2 WORK SCHEDULES

To meet the requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act, the workweek runs from Sunday through Saturday. It is understood that this does not affect regular schedules as otherwise negotiated in this contract. The normal workweek shall consist of thirty-five (35) hours Monday through Saturday, as scheduled by the Library Director with the following modifications:

- A. The day shall not exceed ten (10) working hours.
- B. The immediate supervisor will be responsible for the approval of the hours, vacations, sick-time, holidays, and flex-time and the review of each time sheet.

- C. After not more than 5 consecutive hours of work, at least ½ hour off must be made available and ½ hour must be taken for lunch or dinner. An employee may extend their lunch or dinner period beyond the ½ hour if so decided with approval of their supervisor. The lunch or dinner break may be taken before the employee reaches 5 consecutive hours to ensure that no meal break is taken while an employee is scheduled on a public service desk, and that no employee works more than 5 consecutive hours.
- D. For each 3.5 hour consecutive work period, a rest period of 15 minutes each may be taken as part of working time. During a 7 hour work day, one rest period may be taken on either side of a meal break. These are not to be combined into a ½ hour break or used to shorten the workday, unless, due to extraordinary circumstances, with the previous approval of the supervisor.
- E. Flex time: Union members must work their scheduled hours set by the supervisory staff. At the end of 4 weeks they must have accumulated a total of 140 hours. A credit of 7 hours may be carried indefinitely. Any credit accumulated beyond 7 hours must be used by the end of the following pay period. A Union member may run a debit of up to 3.5 hours, but arrangements must be made with the supervisor prior to running a debit and the time must be made up by the end of the next pay period. supervisor may approve or disapprove the change based on the needs of the library.

F. The workday on Sundays will be in addition to the regular 35 hour work week.

a. When the workday for Sunday is 4.5 hours:

One librarian and one non-librarian regular staff person will work each Sunday, except under extraordinary circumstances. Other positions will be filled by substitute staff after Union members have been given preference to work. The most senior staff person will be given the opportunity to select Sunday work first, then passing downward through the seniority list. If all openings are not filled, the list will be returned to the top of the seniority list. Once signed up, the employee is expected to work on their scheduled Sunday. If they find they are unable to work a Sunday, they must get their supervisor's approval before they are released from their commitment. The library will make every effort to find volunteer coverage to fill vacancies on Sundays; however Union members may be assigned to fill vacancies in the Sunday schedule if volunteers are not available. When vacancies can not be filled by volunteers, assignments, except in emergencies, will be made at least one month in advance. Assignments will be made on the basis of the number of Sundays during a year that a regular employee has volunteered for Sunday work, with the employees who have volunteered least being selected first for Sunday assignments. All regular library employees will be trained to perform the required tasks for Sunday assignment. A doctor's excuse documenting disability will be the only factor establishing ineligibility for this requirement.

The compensation will be one and one half times the regular rate of pay for all staff, or one full day of work of compensatory time to be scheduled with the following limitations

- No more than five Sundays each year may be worked for compensatory time.
- All time will be taken within the calendar year.
- Sunday time worked in November or December may be taken as compensatory time, as approved by the supervisor.

- Second, the library shall next seek volunteers from the substitute and hourly staff for the full Sunday schedule

- Fifth, management shall assign supervisors and management personnel, however needed to cover the time.

- Sixth, as a last option, management shall assign bargaining unit employees in three and one-half (3.5) hour blocks to fill any remaining openings.
 - Union members who work any Sunday schedules in a calendar year may select either compensatory time or pay for Sunday work.
 - If compensatory time is selected, the Union member will accrue compensatory time at the rate of two hours for each hour worked up to a maximum of thirty six (36) total hours in a calendar year.
 - If pay is selected, the employee shall be paid at a rate of one and one-half (1.5) times their regular rate of pay for the first four and one-half (4.5) hours and two (2) times the regular rate of pay for any hours in excess of four and one-half (4.5).
 - If assignment of Union members is ever required; assignments will be made as specified in 1 (above).
 - Before the library extends the Sunday schedule past 7 p.m., it shall negotiate with the Union over scheduling and compensation.
- b. (2) As long as Technical Services staff are scheduled for no weekend or evening hours and the Preakness Branch staff are scheduled for no weekend hours and only one evening until 8:00 p.m. they will not be required to work on Sundays. If they choose to work on a Sunday, they may do only do so for pay. A doctor's excuse documenting disability will be the only factor establishing ineligibility for Sunday work.
