This agreement, made and entered into this 18th day of December 1989 by and between RUTGERS University (hereinafter called "Rutgers") and INTERNATIONAL UNION OF OPERATING ENGINEERS - AFL-CIO and its LOCAL UNION STATIONARY LOCALS 68-68A (hereinafter called the "Union").

ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE

Rutgers and the Union have entered into this agreement for the purpose of establishing conditions under which employees, as hereinafter defined, shall be employed to work for Rutgers and procedures for the presentation and resolution of grievances, and to regulate the mutual relations among themselves with the view of promoting and insuring harmonious relations, cooperation and understanding between Rutgers and its employees.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION

1. Rutgers recognizes the Union as the elected exclusive representative for collective negotiations concerning the terms and conditions of employment of its employees as herein defined.

2. The terms "employee" and "employees" as used herein shall include all fulltime salaried employees, employed as Operating Engineers I, Operating Engineers II, Operating Engineers - Relief, Operating Engineers - Service (Seasonal), Operating Engineers HVAC and Energy Management Operators in the Department of Physical Plant by Rutgers in the State of New Jersey, but excluding the Chief Engineer, all probationary employees, supervisors, employees in the jurisdiction of other unions now recognized by Rutgers, and all other employees of Rutgers.

ARTICLE 3 - NON DISCRIMINATION

There shall be no discrimination by Rutgers or the Union against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, creed, color, sex, religion, national origin, membership or non membership in the Union, handicap, status as a Vietnam-era or disabled veteran.

ARTICLE 4 - DEDUCTION OF UNION DUES

Rutgers agrees to deduct Union dues bi-weekly from each employee, as defined herein, who furnishes a voluntary written authorization for such deduction, on a form acceptable to Rutgers. Each employee may cancel such written authorization giving written notice of such cancellation to Rutgers and the Union only between December 15 and December 31 of any year effective January 1 of the ensuing year. The amount of monthly Union dues shall be in such an amount as may be certified to Rutgers by the Union from time to time, and at least 30 days prior to the date on which deduction of Union dues is to be made. Deductions of Union dues made pursuant hereto shall be remitted by Rutgers to the Union every four (4) weeks together with a list of the names of employees from whose pay such deductions were made.

ARTICLE 5 - REPRESENTATION FEE

1. The parties agree that all employees in the bargaining unit who do not become members shall have deducted from their salaries and forwarded to the Union a representation fee.

2. The representation fee will be 85% of the membership dues. At least 30 days before any modification thereof, the Union shall notify the University of the representation fee sum to be deducted from nonmembers' salaries. Any such change in the representation fee shall be made upon written notification to the University.

3. The representation fee shall be deducted from nonmembers' salaries bi-weekly. Representation fee deductions shall commence on or after the 90th day following the beginning of an employee's employment in a bargaining unit position, or on or after the 10th day following re-entry into the bargaining unit for employees who previously served in a bargaining-unit position and who continued in the employ of the University in a non-bargaining unit position.

4. The Union hereby agrees to indemnify, defend, and save harmless the University from any claim, suit or action, or judgements, including reasonable costs of defense which may be brought at law or in equity, or before any administrative agency with regard to or arising from the deduction from the salaries of any employee of any sum of money as a representation fee under the provisions of the Agreement.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION REPRESENTATIVES

1. Authorized representatives of the Union, who are not employees of Rutgers, shall be admitted to the premises of Rutgers. At the time of entering the premises of Rutgers the Union representatives shall make their presence and destination known to the Office of Employee Relations or the Department Head or his/her representative responsible for the area to be visited.

2. Rutgers agrees to recognize one steward to be selected by the Union for each of the following campuses: Busch Campus, College Avenue Campus, Newark, Camden. The Union agrees to give Rutgers written notice of the names of the stewards and their respective areas of responsibility.

A steward shall not leave his/her work without first obtaining the permission of his/her immediate supervisor, which permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. If the immediate supervisor is not available, permission must be requested of another appropriate supervisor in the department.

ARTICLE 7 - SENIORITY

1. All employees shall be considered as probationary employees for the first ninety (90) days of their employment. Probationary employees may be disciplined or terminated at any time for any reason whatsoever at the sole discretion of Rutgers and they shall not be entitled to utilize the provisions of Article 8 - Grievance Procedure. Upon completion of such probationary period, their seniority will be dated as of the date of the commencement of their employment in the unit. In the event that two (2) employees commence their employment on the same date in the same seniority unit, their respective seniority shall be determined by alphabetical order of their last names.

2. Seniority for the purpose of this article shall be based upon an employee's continuous length of service in a seniority unit. Seniority units are defined as follows:

- a. Department of Physical Plant - Newark
- b. Department of Physical Plant - Camden
- c. Department of Physical Plant - New Brunswick

3. The Office of Employee Relations shall maintain seniority lists of employees by seniority units, copies of which shall be furnished to the Union. The Office of Employee Relations also shall furnish to the Union copies of the monthly reports reflecting changes in the seniority lists.

4. An employee's seniority shall cease and his/her employee status shall terminate for any of the following reasons:

- a. Resignation or retirement.
- b. Discharge for cause.
- c. Continuous layoff for a period exceeding six (6) months.

d. Failure of laid-off employee to report for work either (i) on date specified in written notice of recall mailed ten (10) or more calendar days prior to such date, or (ii) within three (3) working days after date specified in written notice of recall mailed less than ten (10) calendar days prior to such date, unless return to work as herein provided is excused by Rutgers. Written notice of recall to work shall be sent by Rutgers by certified mail, return receipt requested to the employee's last known address as shown on Rutgers' personnel records.

e. Failure to report for work for a period of three (3) consecutive scheduled working days without notification to Rutgers of a justifiable excuse for such absence.

f. Failure to report back to work immediately upon expiration of vacation, leave of absence or any renewal thereof unless return to work is excused by Rutgers.

5. When Rutgers decides to reduce the number of employees in a job classification in a seniority unit:

a. the employee(s) so affected may displace the least senior employee in such classification in the seniority unit provided he/she has the requisite qualifications and abilities to perform the work available;

b. any employee so displaced may then displace the least senior employee in the next lower-rated classification in the seniority unit provided he/she has the requisite qualifications and abilities to perform the work available;

c. any employee(s) so displaced (in b above) may in turn displace the least senior employee in the next lower-rated classification provided he/she has the requisite qualifications and abilities to perform the work available.

In addition, if, in the above procedure, the "least senior employee" in the seniority unit affected by the layoff retains seniority in another seniority unit (in accordance with #9 below) that employee may displace the least senior employee in his/her classification in his/her former seniority unit.

6. Any employee exercising his/her right to displace another employee with less seniority in any lower-rated job title shall be paid at the rate of such job in accordance with regulations governing an employee being assigned to a lower rated title, but not more than the maximum of such job.

7. Employees shall be recalled to work from layoff in order of their seniority in the seniority unit provided that they have the requisite qualifications and ability to perform the work available in such seniority unit.

8. All permanent job openings in the unit, including the entry level Operating Engineer II title, shall be posted on appropriate bulletin boards for a period of five (5) calendar days. An employee must be in his/her current position for six months or more to be eligible to bid for a job opening.

A copy of each posting will be sent to the shop steward(s) in the appropriate seniority unit.

9. An employee who is permanently transferred to a job in another seniority unit will accumulate seniority in such new seniority unit from the date of such permanent transfer, and, for the purpose of layoff and recall only, shall retain seniority in the seniority unit from which he/she was transferred for a period five (5) years from the date of such permanent transfer.

ARTICLE 8 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. A grievance is defined as any claimed violation of any provision of this agreement or of any Rutgers policy relating to wages, hours or other terms or conditions of employment of the employees.

2. Any grievance of an employee, or of the Union, shall be handled in the following manner:

a. An employee having a grievance shall present it in the first instance to his immediate supervisor within ten (10) working days after the occurrence of the event out of which the grievance arises. If the employee so requests, the steward shall be present.

b. If the employee or the union is not satisfied, the grievance shall be put in writing, signed by the employee and presented to the employee's immediate supervisor within one (1) working day after the discussion of the grievance with the employee's immediate supervisor or the decision of the employee's immediate supervisor, whichever the employee or the union elect to follow. The employee's immediate supervisor shall within three (3) working days thereafter, give a written answer to the employee and to the employee's steward.

Step 2

If the employee or the Union is not satisfied, the employee or the steward may advance the written grievance to the Department Head level by forwarding the grievance and the first step answer to the Office of Employee Relations, the local Union, and the Department Head within five (5) working days. The Office of Employee Relations shall, within ten (10) working days of receipt of the written grievance, arrange for a meeting of the employee, the Department Head, or his/her designated representative, and a Local Union official. The Department Head or designated representative shall give to the employee, the Office of Employee Relations, and the Local Union his/her written answer to the grievance within five (5) working days after the date of such meeting.

Step 3

If the Union is not satisfied with the written answer of the Department Head or his/her designated representative, the Union shall, within five (5) working days following the date of the written answer of the employee's Department Head or his/her designated representative, submit to the Office of Employee Relations a written request for a meeting between a representative of the Office of Employee Relations and a Local Union official. Such meeting shall occur at a mutually agreeable time and place not later than ten (10) working days after the written request for such discussion. The employee shall be entitled to be present at such a meeting. The representative of the Office of Employee Relations shall give his/her written decision to the Union within ten (10) working days after such discussion takes place, or within such additional period of time that may be mutually agreed upon. A general grievance may be presented by the Union at step 3.

Step 4

If the Union is not satisfied with the written decision of the Office of Employee Relations, the Union may, within ten (10) working days after receipt of the written decision, submit the grievance to binding arbitration, sending the Office of Employee Relations a copy of such submission.

Rutgers and the Union agree that the Arbitrator to be chosen jointly shall be selected from a panel or panels to be provided by the American Arbitration Association, the Arbitrator to be selected in accordance with the rules and procedures of the agency.

The costs incurred by each party, shall be paid by the party incurring the costs except that the fees of the Arbitrator and the administering agency shall be borne equally by Rutgers and the Union.

3. Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays shall not be considered working days in computing the time limits provided for above. Any written decision or written answer to a grievance made at any step which is not appealed to the succeeding step within the time limits provided, or such additional period of time as may be mutually agreed upon in writing, shall be considered a final settlement and such settlement shall be binding upon Rutgers, the Union and the employee or employees involved.

4. An employee shall not lose pay for time spent during his regular working hours at the foregoing steps of the grievance procedure. In the event that it is necessary to require the attendance of other employees, during regular working hours, at the Step 4 meeting of the grievance procedure, such employees shall not lose pay for such time.

5. Rutgers shall provide a copy of any written reprimand which is to be made part of the central personnel file to the employee. The employee shall sign such reprimand, the signature serving only to acknowledge that he or she has read the reprimand and shall not necessarily be considered an agreement with the content thereof. Any employee may file a grievance with respect to any reprimand with which he or she does not agree.

When an employee's record is free from any disciplinary action for a period of one year, any letters of reprimand contained in the employee's file shall be deemed to be removed.

6. No employee shall be discharged, suspended or disciplined in any way except for just cause and the sole right and remedy under this Agreement of any such employee shall be to file a grievance through and in accordance with the grievance procedure.

7. If Rutgers should exceed the time limits in replying to any grievance at any step in the grievance procedure, the grievance may be advanced to the next step.

8. In addition, an employee may appeal the interpretation, or application of agreements and administrative decisions which affect terms and conditions of employment, as that concept has been defined by law, by presenting such appeal for determination to the Office of Employee Relations.

ARTICLE 9 - HOURS OF WORK

1. Work Week. The work week begins at 12:01 a.m. Saturday and runs for seven consecutive days. During this period all regular fulltime employees shall be assigned to work five, 8-hour days in accordance with a rotating shift schedule which allows a minimum of 16 hours between shifts. Any work performed beyond 40 hours in the work week shall be considered overtime work.

2. Call-back Pay. Any employee who is called back to work after he/she has completed his regular shift and has left his/her place of work shall be guaranteed a minimum of four (4) hours work or pay in lieu thereof. Such employee shall be required to work all hours, in addition to the four (4) minimum guarantee, which are required by his supervisor.

3. Overtime. Rutgers will make every reasonable effort to provide for an equitable distribution of overtime work among employees in each seniority unit, after taking into consideration the nature of the work to be performed during overtime hours and the qualifications and abilities of the employees in the seniority unit. Any refusal of overtime work shall be recorded as overtime worked by the employee. If, because of refusals to work overtime, there are an insufficient number of employees available to perform the overtime work, Rutgers may assign the overtime work to the necessary number of the least senior employees in the seniority unit who have the qualifications and abilities to perform the work. A written record of overtime worked and overtime refused, shall be maintained by the appropriate supervisor.

ARTICLE 10 - TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENTS

Temporary assignment of employees to work in other job titles may be made without change in rate except that an employee who is temporarily assigned to work in another job title for a period in excess of five (5) continuous working days shall thereafter be entitled to be paid retroactively to the first day of his/her temporary assignment at a rate of pay which should be equal to the rate the employee would receive if he or she were promoted to the higher title (at least one increment above his or her regular rate).

ARTICLE 11 - SALARY

Subject to the appropriation of and allocation to the University by the State of adequate funding for the specific purposes identified for the full period covered by this Agreement the following provisions shall apply. The following are the general rules for eligibility to continue in the State Health Benefits Program after PERS Retirement:

1. If the employee retires with 25 years or more of credited PERS service, the cost of Health Benefits coverage is borne by the State. If the length of service is less than 25 years, the employee may continue coverage but must pay the full cost.
2. In order to be eligible the retired employee and any eligible dependants to be covered must have been enrolled in the health benefits program immediately before retirement.
3. The employee and eligible spouse upon reaching age 65 must enroll in Parts A & B of the Federal Medicare Program in order to continue coverage under the State Health Benefits Program.
4. If the Coverage is at the employee's cost, the premium is deducted from his or her pension check. Therefore, in order to be eligible, the monthly pension payment must be sufficient to cover the Health Benefits premium.

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to our discussion at negotiations on Parking Fees, on August 23 and September 20, 1989, this letter confirms our agreement regarding this issue.

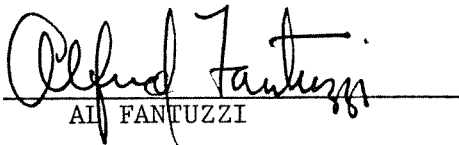

Local 68-68A and Rutgers University agree that the fee for parking at the University will increase. It is understood that increases in parking fees will be implemented for members of this bargaining unit in the amounts that new fees are implemented for all other University employees.

If this is not your understanding of our discussion on August 23 and September 20, please advise me. If this is your understanding, please sign below and return one copy to me.

Yours truly,

Julian S. Amkraut
Associate Director
Office of Employee Relations
