Section 2. Any aggrieved employee shall present his grievance within five (5) working days of its occurrence, or such grievance will be deemed to be waived by the Union and by the employee.

Section 3. In the event of such grievance, the steps hereinafter set forth shall be followed.

Step 1. The employee and the Shop Steward or the employee, individually, but in the presence of the Shop Steward, shall take up the complaint with the Supervisor. In the event the complaint is not satisfactorily settled within five (5) working days, the employee and the Shop Steward shall sign a written complaint and forward the grievance to the next step in the procedure.

Step 2. The Shop Steward will discuss the grievance with the Clerk/Administrator. In the event that the grievance is not satisfactorily adjusted within five (5) additional working days, both parties shall complete and sign the grievance record form and forward the matter to the next step in the procedure.

Step 3. The Union representative and the Township Committeeman in charge of Public Works shall meet to discuss the grievance. Should the parties fail to adjust the grievance the matter shall be referred to the Township Committee for its consideration. Under this Article, Section 3 (Step 3) the Township Committeeman in charge of Public Works and the Township Committee shall have a minimum time of seven (7) days and a maximum time of thirty (30) days to act on said grievance. If the Public Employer does not answer on appeal of a grievance within the specified time limits, the Union may elect to treat the grievance as denied at that step and immediately appeal the grievance to the next step.

ARTICLE IX

Arbitration

Section 1. If a grievance is not satisfactorily settled under ARTICLE VIII, Section 3, Step 3, it may be submitted to arbitration by either party, provided notice in writing of the intent to do so is given to the other party within five (5) working days of the decision under ARTICLE VIII, Section 3, Step 3. The arbitrator shall be limited to the issues presented and shall have no power to add to, subtract from or modify any of the terms of this agreement, or to establish or change any wage rate. The decision shall be final and binding. Any fees or administrative charges for the arbitrator shall be borne equally by both parties. Wages

Section 1. Effective January 1, 1977, all employees shall receive an increase as hereinafter provided over their 1976 salary rate.

The salaries will be computed by using the percentage difference between the final January 1976--December 1976 Indexes and adding that percentage difference to the 1976 salary, which will establish the salary for calendar year 1977 plus a 2% raise over the CPI established salary for 1977. The established salary rate for 1977 will be computed as outlined above.

For 1978 and 1979 contract years covered by this Agreement, salaries will be established by using the U.S. Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, Consumer Price Index for Urban Wage Earners and Clerical Workers, New York, New York -- Northeastern New Jersey, all items -- Series A (1967=100). The salaries will be computed by using the percentage difference between the final January 1977 and December 1977 Indexes for 1978 salaries and the final January 1978 and December 1978 Indexes for the 1979 salaries. In this connection the final January 1977 Index is 180.3. The 1978 salaries will be subject to a 12% maximum adjustment and 5% minimum adjustment over the 1977 salaries as provided for in this Agreement. Salaries for 1979 will be subject to 10% maximum adjustment and 5% minimum adjustment over the 1978 salaries.

Section 3. If an employee is required to perform work in a higher job classification for a period in excess of five (5) working days, said employee shall receive the wage rate for such higher classification beginning on the sixth working day and thereafter for any such continuing period. In the event that an employee is required to perform overtime work in a higher job classification after he has established a right to receive the wage for such higher classification, he shall be paid overtime in accordance with the wage for such higher classification except in a situation where the higher job classification does not permit the payment of overtime wages. In the event the higher job classification does not permit overtime wages but does entitle the employee to compensatory time off, in that event the employee may elect to take compensatory time off or in the alternative receive overtime pay at his normal overtime wage rate.

ARTICLE XI

Section 1. Employees shall receive ten (10) day's paid sick leave per year after one (1) year of service. Employees with less than one (1) year of service shall receive one (1) day of sick leave per month from the day of regular

No such representative, however, shall have the privilege of roaming about the premises but shall first apply to the Supervisor for permission to visit, which permission shall be reasonably granted, it being understood, however, that such representative shall not in any way interfere with the operation of the department during working hours and that this privilege shall be so exercised as to keep at a minimum time lost thereby to the Public Employer.
