ARTICLE XIX
GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. Purpose

The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest possible level, equitable solutions to the problems, which may from time to time arise affecting employees. Both parties agree that this procedure will be kept as informal and confidential as may be appropriate at any level of the procedure.

B. Definition

A grievance shall be defined as any dispute relating to the violation, interpretation or application of the terms of this contract and the following procedure shall be adhered to for the purposes of attempting to reach a mutually satisfactory settlement. The term "grievance" and the grievance procedures as set forth herein shall not apply to:

- (A) Matters which involve the interpretation or application of a Civil Service (New Jersey Department of Personnel) rule or regulation or N.J.S.A. 11A: 1.1, et seq., the Civil Service Law, and in which a method of review is prescribed by law, rule or regulation; or
- (B) Matters in which the employer is without authority to act.

It is expressly understood, however, that no grievance may proceed beyond Step One, herein, unless it constitutes a complaint or controversy arising over the interpretation of the terms and conditions of this Agreement. It is further understood that disputes concerning terms and conditions of employment governed by statute or administrative regulation, incorporated by reference in this Agreement either expressly or by operation of law, shall not be processed beyond Step One herein. It is further understood that this grievance procedure cannot be invoked to obtain any matter which AFSCME sought but could not obtain at the bargaining table during the negotiations that lead to this Agreement. Where the grievance involves the alleged violation of individuals' rights specified in New Jersey Department of Personnel rules for which a specific appeal to the New Jersey Department of Personnel is available, the individual must direct his/her complaint to the New Jersey Department of Personnel directly. Accordingly, in the event an employee elects to pursue Civil Service remedies, no recourse to the grievance procedure will be available. Likewise, in the event the employee elects to invoke this grievance procedure, no recourse to Civil Service remedies will be available. If the employee files an application of any kind for relief with the New Jersey Department of Personnel, any pending grievance shall be immediately withdrawn and dismissed and relief, which may have been obtained pursuant to the grievance procedure, if any, shall be rescinded.

C. Steps of the Grievance Procedure

The parties agree that the purpose of this procedure is to obtain expeditious resolution, in good faith, of disputes between the parties.

Step One -

Within ten (10) calendar days after the event giving rise to the grievance, the aggrieved employee and shop steward shall institute action under the provisions herein by meeting with his/her general supervisor and discussing the grievance orally. The general supervisor shall respond orally to the grievance within three (3) working days after the meeting.

Step Two -

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step One, the Union representative shall reduce the grievance to writing and file the grievance with the aggrieved employee's Department/Division Head within ten (10) working days after receipt (or after the due date) of the Step One response.

The written grievance document shall contain sufficient detail and specificity as to enable the Department/Division Head to adequately understand the nature of the grievance and shall cite the specific provision of the Agreement being grieved. The written grievance document shall be signed by the aggrieved employee(s) or in the case of a class grievance, by the appropriate Union official. It is the intention of the parties that the Department/Division Head be supplied with sufficient information in order to respond to the allegations of the grievance. The Department/Division Head may request additional information from the Union and/or the aggrieved employee when deemed necessary; this authority shall not be exercised unreasonably or for purposes of delay.

Within seven (7) working days after receipt of an adequately documented grievance, the Department/Division Head shall meet with the aggrieved employee and the shop steward. Said meeting shall take place at a mutually agreeable meeting time such that Township operations and the provision of services to the public are not interrupted.

The Department/Division Head shall render a written response based upon the written grievance document and the meeting with the employee and shop steward within seven (7) working days of the meeting.

Step -Three

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step Two, the Union representative shall submit the written grievance document together with the written decision of the Department/Division Head to the Business Administrator or his designee within ten (10) working days after receipt (or after the due date) of the Step Two response.

The Business Administrator or his designee shall schedule a meeting to review the grievance and the Step Two determination. Each party may not have more than three (3) persons present at the meeting; for the Union, a representative of AFSCME Council 52 shall be included among the three (3) persons present. The Business Administrator or his designee shall render a written response within ten (10) working days of the meeting, unless the grievance is otherwise resolved.

Step - Four

If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved at Step Three, AFSCME Council 52 may submit the grievance to arbitration within twelve (12) working days after receipt (or after the due date) of the Step Three response. If any grievance has not been initiated within the time specified, the grievance shall be deemed to have been waived. If any grievance is not processed to the next succeeding step in the Grievance Procedure within the time limits prescribed, then the disposition of the grievance at the last preceding step shall be deemed to be conclusive. In each step, to be timely and effective, the written grievance must set forth in reasonable detail the facts underlying the grievance, the specific contract provisions at issue, and the relief sought.

Additionally, to be timely and effective, the writing filed in the previous steps of the grievance must contain all of the materials filed in the previous steps, together with a detailed statement of the reasons why the responses (if any) were claimed to be unsatisfactory.

Powers and Duties of the Arbitrator

The arbitrator shall be selected on a case-by-case basis from the panel of arbitrators maintained by the New Jersey Public Employment Relations Commission.

The arbitrator shall hear only the grievance before him and the issue involved in that grievance. The arbitrator shall hear the matter on the evidence and within the meaning of this contract. The arbitrator shall have the full power to hear the grievance and make a decision, which decision shall neither modify, add to nor subtract from the terms of the agreement and the referenced policies.

The arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, or modify the provisions of this agreement and shall confine his/her decision solely to the interpretation and application of this agreement. He/she shall confine him/herself to the precise issue being submitted to arbitration and shall have no authority to determine any other issues not so submitted to him/her, nor shall he/she submit observations or declaration of opinions which are not essential in reaching the determination.

An arbitrator may consider only one grievance at a time, unless the parties expressly agree to submit multiple grievances to a single arbitration proceeding. The aforementioned does not pertain to "Class Action Grievances."

The language above is intended to read in a manner consistent with the provisions of N.J.S.A. 34:13A-7 and N.J.A.C. 19:12-5.1, et seq.

- D. In the course of processing a grievance, the Township representative(s) may choose, in the exercise of his or her discretion to schedule a meeting. Any such meeting shall be held at a mutually acceptable time and place, provided that such meeting shall not be scheduled during employee's regular working hours unless absolutely essential to a fair disposition of the grievance. The aggrieved employee shall have, at his or her request, an employee representative from the Union to assist in the resolution of the grievance at such meeting. In the event such meeting is scheduled during the employee's regular working hours, the aggrieved employee, the participating employee representative from the Union, and any necessary employee witness shall be released from work without loss of regular straight time pay.

Requests for employee representatives and witnesses shall be made to the Township prior to the date of any meeting, and meeting dates shall be scheduled considering the availability of all parties and witnesses and the needs of the Township.

ARTICLE XX
SEPARABILITY AND SAVINGS

If any section, sub-section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase in this Agreement, or any application thereof to any employee or group of employees, is held to be invalid by operation of law or by a court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be inoperative, but all other provisions shall not be affected thereby and shall continue in full force and effect.

ARTICLE XXI

FULLY-BARGAINED PROVISIONS

- A. This Agreement represents and incorporates the complete and final understanding by the parties of all negotiable issues, which were or could have been the subject of collective negotiations. The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations that resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law in the area of collective negotiations, and that the understandings and agreements arrived at by the parties as to the exercise of that right and opportunity are set forth in this Agreement. Therefore the Township and the Union for the life of this Agreement, each voluntarily and unqualifiedly, waives the right and each agree that the other shall not be obligated to bargain or negotiate with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered in this Agreement, even though such subjects or matters may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both parties at the time they negotiated or signed this Agreement. This section concerns negotiation rights and does not relate to the right to resort to the Grievance procedure. Such grievance rights are contained in Article XIX.
- B. This Agreement shall not be nullified in whole or in part by the parties except by an instrument in writing duly executed by both parties.

ARTICLE XXII
TERM AND RENEWAL

All terms of this Agreement shall be prospective except where otherwise specifically indicated.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have hereunto set their hands and seals this day of July, 2005.
