For special occasion coverage, the College will first ask permanent, full-time security Officers to work before assigning temporary or outside employees.

ARTICLE XV - PROMOTIONS AND POSTING OF VACANCIES

Section 1

It is the policy and intention of the College to upgrade its employees. Job vacancies for permanent or new positions will be posted for a period of not less than three (3), but not more than five (5) working days exclusively within the College for the information of the employees. The posting will include, but not be limited to, a general summary of the major duties expected of the position, as well as the salary.

Section 2

If an employee applies for an open staff position and meets all of the written qualifications in the job description, the College shall give first consideration to the applicant before filling the vacancy.

Procedures to be utilized in the filling of positions for bargaining unit members are as follows:

1. The College will maintain a system wherein the most senior applicant for a position will be appointed to said position for a thirty-day probationary period. The College and the employee may extend the probationary period by mutual agreement. Likewise, the College and the employee may extend the probationary period for new hires by mutual agreement.

The applicant will be interviewed by the immediate supervisor in advance of an official appointment. The basic purpose of the interview will be to provide the immediate supervisor with an opportunity to delineate the specific job responsibilities and reasonable expectations (e.g., productivity standards, skills level, organizational capabilities, etc.) that the applicant will have to satisfy. In the event that, as a result of the initial interview, the most senior applicant does not accept the position, the next most senior applicant will receive the same consideration that was extended to the primary candidate. If there are no additional applicants, the position will either be advertised externally or the College will temporarily assign a current bargaining unit member to fill the position and the employee so assigned will be paid the negotiated rate for the position commencing with the thirtieth (30th) day in that position.

2. The candidate with the greatest seniority will have a thirty-day (30 calendar) day probationary period within which to demonstrate that he/she has the necessary and appropriate skills and abilities to successfully meet the requirements for the position.

It will be the responsibility of the immediate supervisor to complete a performance appraisal form near the end of the probationary period and forward same to the Human Resources Office. Further, the supervisor will give a photocopy of the appraisal form to the candidate at the time it is completed.

3. Should the overall performance appraisal indicate that the candidate has failed to meet the basic requirements for the position, the employee will have one of several options:
  - a. If his/her previous position has not yet been filled by the College, the employee will be assigned to fill the vacancy.
  - b. If the former position has been filled, the unsuccessful candidate will either be assigned to another existing vacancy of a comparable level, or may utilize the "bumping" rights contained in Article XIII of the current collective bargaining agreement.

Note: the College cannot guarantee that every candidate's "former" position will not be filled during a probationary period because the needs of the College will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

4. An employee who utilizes seniority to move laterally or downward will be required to remain in the new position for a period of one full year. All newly hired employees will be required to remain in their first position for a period of nine months.
5. If there is a disagreement with the performance appraisal that was completed by the immediate supervisor at or near the end of the probationary period, the employee has the right to submit a rebuttal which will be attached to the performance appraisal. An adverse evaluation is not subject to being grieved or reviewed by an arbitrator.
6. External applicants for position(s) that have not been filled by bargaining unit members may still be tested by the College (Note: several entry-level positions in the bargaining unit do not explicitly require specialized skills). However, the College will notify external applicants who are appointed to those positions that do not require specialized skills, that they will have to obtain a passing test score if they subsequently apply for positions within the bargaining unit that entails proficiency in certain skills.
7. The College reserves the right to consider performance factors such as attendance records and disciplinary history, and test scores on such tests as the College may require for positions demanding specialized skills, in making a choice for appointment to a position.

A disagreement with the decision of the College to disqualify the most senior applicant is subject to the grievance procedure, excluding binding arbitration.

8. Where a single vacancy in an existing shift occurs, only that vacancy shall be posted. In this regard, both parties acknowledge the College's right to post all shifts in the event of a reorganization.

Section 3

The College recognizes that in making promotions, consideration shall be given first to the ability and aptitude of an employee to perform the job in question; and second, to the length of the employee's continuous service. However, it is understood that if all other variables are equal, seniority shall prevail in the final selection process.

ARTICLE XVI – INTENTIONALLY LEFT BLANK

ARTICLE XVII - REPORTING TIME

Employees who report to work at their regular starting time and have not been given at least one day's notice not to report, shall be guaranteed at least four (4) hours work or pay, except when the inability to provide four (4) hours work is due to an "Act of God" beyond the control of the College.

ARTICLE XVIII – REST PERIOD

Employees working a full shift will be given one fifteen (15) minute break during the first half of the shift and another fifteen (15) minute break during the second half of the shift without loss of pay. Employees working a minimum of one half day (3.5 hours) will be given a single fifteen (15) minute rest period without loss of pay.

ARTICLE XIX - WASH-UP TIME

All employees shall receive five (5) minutes wash-up time before the regular lunch period and before quitting time, or supper time if working overtime.

Employees who have worked seven (7) years shall begin to accrue three (3) weeks plus two (2) days vacation. Employees who have worked eight (8) years shall begin to accrue three (3) weeks plus three (3) days vacation. Employees who have worked nine (9) years shall begin to accrue three (3) weeks plus four (4) days vacation.
4. Employees who have worked ten (10) years shall begin to accrue four (4) weeks vacation.
5. Employees who have worked more than ten (10) years shall begin to accrue twenty-two (22) vacation days.
6. Part-time employees shall have their vacation time prorated and receive vacation time accordingly.
7. It is understood that vacation time will be used within any two (2) year period. Vacation time should be taken so that it is mutually satisfactory with his/her supervisor.
8. An employee who retires at any age shall receive a pro rata vacation pay as of the date he/she leaves the employ of the College.
9. The pro rata vacation pay of an employee who dies while in the employ of the College shall be paid to the beneficiary of his/her group life insurance policy.
10. Vacation time may be taken as it is earned.
11. Vacation days accrued during the employee's 90 day probationary period shall not be used or paid until successful completion of that period.

Section 2

On July 15 of each year, employees will receive a memorandum from the Human Resources Office advising them of the number of personal days, sick days and vacation days they have remaining.

Additionally, it is agreed that the Human Resources Office will notify, in writing, any employee who is in danger of losing time at least sixty (60) days prior to the end of the fiscal year.

In the event that any of the above holidays fall on a Sunday, they shall be celebrated on the following Monday.

Section 4

Probationary employees shall earn but not be entitled to use or be paid for the floating holidays or take off on their birthday, should it occur, during their 90 day probationary period, until successful completion of the 90 day probationary period.

ARTICLE XXII – SICK LEAVE

A. All full-time employees are entitled to take time off from work because of their own personal illness or illness in the immediate family (father, mother, spouse, domestic partner, children or children of domestic partner) without any loss of pay according to the following schedule:

1. Employees are allowed twelve (12) days of sick leave per year. Employees who work eleven (11) months per year are allowed eleven sick days per year. In emergent circumstances, a later notice may be considered by the Board; however, the College may elect to defer payment for one (1) year to allow for a budgeting.

Exceptions to the period of employment and notification timeliness described above will be granted only in cases of unforeseen disability retirement from the College.

C. Effective as of December 31, 2011, no additional sick leave may be added to the pool of time available for this lump sum payment upon retirement. All time available as of that date will be available to the employee for any employee eligible for and requesting lump sum payment at retirement, provided that the accumulated sick leave has not been utilized by the employee prior to retirement. Any sick leave used after that date for those employees will initially come from any sick leave earned after that date. Sick time banked before December 31, 2011 will not be used until all of the sick leave accrued after that date is exhausted.
