B. The exercise of the foregoing powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities of the Library, the adoption of policies, rules, regulations and practices in furtherance thereof, and the use of judgment and discretion in connection therewith shall be limited only by the specific and express terms of this Agreement and then only to the extent such specific and express terms hereof are in conformance with the Constitution and Laws of New Jersey and of the United States.

ARTICLE IIA – DEFINITION OF EMPLOYMENT

A. Definition of Employment

All library employees working 35 hours or more are to be considered full-time employees; those working under 20 hours per week are to be considered part-time employees. In accordance with Civil Service definitions, temporary employees are those who work 90 days or under.

ARTICLE III – EMPLOYEE RIGHTS

- A. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to deny or restrict to any employee such rights as he may have under the New Jersey State Statute, Civil Service Laws, or other applicable laws and regulations. The rights granted to employees hereunder shall be deemed to be in addition to those provided elsewhere.

Any such action asserted by the Library or any agent or representative thereof, shall not be made public and shall be subject to the grievance procedure herein set forth.

Prior consent shall be obtained from the Director, which shall not, however, be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE IV – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

A. Definition and Purpose

A grievance is a claim by an employee, or group of employees, that the policies of the Board were not properly applied or were violated by the Director, the Board or another employee. Anyone making such a claim will be known as the “aggrieved person.”

The purpose of the following procedure is to secure, at the lowest level, equitable solutions to the problems which may from time-to-time arise affecting employees. These proceedings will be kept as informal and as confidential as may be appropriate. All papers and documents relating to grievance and its disposition should be filed in the employee’s file which will be located in the library building.

B. Procedure

The number of days indicated at each step should be considered as a maximum and every effort should be made to expedite the process. The time limits specified may, however, be, extended by mutual agreement in writing. The procedure should be followed in its entirety unless waived by mutual agreement in writing.

1. Step One – Within four (4) working days after either the occurrence of the event or acts which give rise to a grievance, an employee with a grievance shall first orally discuss the same with his/her immediate supervisor with the objective of resolving the matter informally. Within four (4) working days following the oral discussion, the supervisor shall communicate his/her decision to the employee. If the decision is unsatisfactory to the employee, or if the supervisor fails to communicate the decision, the employee may proceed to Step Two.

2. Step Two – Within four (4) working days following the result of Step One, the employee shall file the grievance, in writing, with the Director. It should set forth the specific nature thereof, the facts relating thereto and the action requested to be taken. Upon receipt of the written grievance, the Director shall forward a copy of same to the Board. Within four (4) working days, the Director shall communicate his/her decision, in writing, to the employee and the Board. If the decision is unsatisfactory to the employee, or if the Director fails to communicate the decision, the employee may proceed to Step Three.

3. Step Three – Within four (4) working days following the result of Step Two, the employee may submit a written grievance to the Board, with a copy to the Director. Within thirty (30) days of receipt, a hearing will be held by the Board. The aggrieved person and the Director shall be notified, in writing, of the day of the hearing and shall submit pertinent facts to the Board, in writing, at least seven (7) days prior to the hearing. Both may be present at the hearing. The Board shall notify the employee and the Director of its decision, in writing, fourteen (14) working days thereafter.

4. Step Four – If the Union does not accept the decision of the Library Board, then, within 14 days, the Union may appeal the decision to an arbitrator appointed by the N.J. Mediation Board for a non-binding decision.

5. Step Five – Should either party be unsatisfied with the decision in Step Four, then within 14 days the issue will be submitted to an arbitrator appointed by N.J.P.E.R.C. for a binding decision.

C. Civil Service Remedies

The grievance procedure set forth herein shall not be construed to limit or restrict remedies available through the State Department of Personnel (formerly Civil Service Commission) as set forth in its rules, regulations and statutes.

D. Union Representation

Any aggrieved person may be represented at all stages of the grievance procedure by himself, or, or at his option, by a representative selected or approved by the Union. When an employee is not represented by the Union, the Union shall have the right to be present and to state its views at all stages of the grievance procedure.
