PREAMBLE:

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of these premises and mutual covenants contained herein, the parties hereto agree with each other with respect to the employees of the Employer recognized as being represented by the PBA as follows:

ARTICLE 1

RECOGNITION

1. The Employer recognizes the PBA as the exclusive representative for the purpose of collective negotiations with respect to the terms and conditions of employment of the members of the negotiations unit, which shall be defined as: all full-time police officers employed by the Employer, excluding the Chief of Police and special law enforcement officers.

2. The term "employee" as used hereinafter, shall be interpreted interchangeably with the term "Police Officer."

ARTICLE 2

NEGOTIATION PROCEDURE

1. The Employer and the PBA agree, at the request of either party, to enter into negotiations for a Successor Agreement in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the Public Employment Relations Commission. In such negotiations, each party shall be free to propose and negotiate about all appropriate subjects, which it desires to place before the other for consideration. Such Agreement shall apply to all members of the negotiations unit and shall be reduced to writing and, after ratification, signed by the parties.

2. The parties mutually pledge that their representatives shall be clothed with all the necessary power and authority to make proposals, consider proposals, and make counter proposals during negotiations, consistent with their status as representatives of their principals. No proposals shall be binding until formally approved by the principals.

ARTICLE 3

SEVERABILITY CAUSE

1. If any federal or state legislation, governmental regulation or court decision causes invalidation of any article or section of this Agreement, all other articles and sections not so invalidated shall remain in full force and effect, and the parties shall re-negotiate concerning any such invalidated provisions.

2. It is understood and agreed that upon mutual consent of both the Employer and the PBA that the two parties may meet for the purpose of affecting a change or providing an addendum to any section of this Agreement.

It is further understood and agreed upon that the remaining sections of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

ARTICLE 4

RETENTION OF BENEFITS

It is understood and agreed upon that all rights, privileges, and benefits which the employees have heretofore enjoyed and are presently enjoying, shall be maintained and continued by the Employer during the term of this Agreement and not less than the highest standards in effect at the commencement of the negotiations resulting in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. Definition

The term "grievance" as used herein means any controversy arising over the interpretation, application or alleged violation of policies or administrative decisions affecting terms and conditions of employment under this Agreement and may be raised by an individual unit employee, a group of unit employees, or the PBA, at the request of any such individual or group (hereinafter referred to as the "grievant").

2. Steps of the Procedure

A. Step One: A grievance initially must be filed within thirty (30) calendar days from the date on which the act which is the subject of the grievance occurred or became known to the grievant, whichever is later. The grievance shall be submitted in writing to the Chief of Police, who may conduct a hearing regarding the grievance at his/her discretion, and shall render a decision, in writing, within fifteen (15) days of his/her receipt of the grievance.

B. Step Two: If the grievance is not resolved to the grievant's satisfaction at Step One, or if the Chief of Police has not served a timely written response at Step One, then within fifteen (15) days after the response date set forth in Step One, the grievant may present the written grievance and any written response(s) received at Step One to the Administrator or his/her designee. The parties shall meet within ten (10) days of this submission and the Administrator, or his/her designee, shall have five (5) days thereafter to make a written response.

C. Step Three: If the grievance is not resolved to the satisfaction of the PBA at Step Two, or if the Administrator, or his/her designee, has not served a timely written response at Step Two, then within fifteen (15) days after the response set forth in Step Two, the PBA may notify the Township Committee, in writing of its intent to submit the grievance to the New Jersey Employment Relations Commission (PERC) for binding arbitration. If the grievance is so submitted:

The arbitrator shall be required to deliver parties a written award, coupled with a written opinion setting forth detailed reasons, findings of fact, and conclusions of law utilized in making his/her award, by no later than thirty (30) days from the date of closing the hearings, or if oral closings have been waived, then from the date of transmitting the final statements and proofs to the arbitrator. The arbitrator expressly has no authority to modify, add to, subtract from, or in any way whatsoever, alter the provisions of this Agreement.

3. Grievance meetings and hearings shall be held at mutually acceptable times and places. The grievant shall have at his/her request a representative from the PBA and/or a labor consultant to assist in the resolution of the grievance at such meetings and hearings.

4. The fees, expenses, and all other proper charges of the arbitrator shall be split equally between the parties; however, each party shall bear his/her own additional costs.

5. All grievance hearings scheduled in accordance with the provisions hereof shall be so scheduled to avoid time off from regular scheduled shifts. However, if a grievant, or witness called by the grievant, is on duty, he/she shall be permitted to attend the said hearing without reduction or loss of pay.

6. No reprisals of any kind shall be taken by the Employer, or by any agent thereof, against any grievant or party participating in a grievance procedure or any member of the PBA negotiations unit by reason of such participation.

7. All grievance hearings, conducted as outlined herein, shall be conducted in private and shall be attended by the respective parties and/or their representatives, in addition to any witnesses produced by either party for the purposes of testifying at such hearing.

To ensure that these investigations are conducted in a manner which is conducive to good order and discipline, the following rules are hereby adopted:

1. The interrogation of an employee shall be at a reasonable hour preferably when the employee is on duty. If it is required that the employee report to headquarters on his/her off-duty hours, he/she shall be compensated on an

2. The employee shall be informed of the nature of the investigation before any interrogation commences, including the name of the complainant. The information must be sufficient to reasonably apprise the employee of the nature of the investigation. If the employee is to be questioned as a witness only, he/she shall be so informed at the initial contact.

5. The employee will not be subject to any abusive language, nor shall he/she be threatened with transfer, dismissal, or other disciplinary punishment. No promise(s) or reward(s) shall be made as an inducement to answering questions.

6. In all cases and at every stage of the proceedings the Department shall afford an opportunity for the employee, if he/she so requests, to consult with counsel and/or PBA representative(s) before being questioned concerning any violation or complaint of any type, which may result in any disciplinary action being taken against said employee.
