I. Seniority and Job Security

1. Seniority shall be defined as service in the school district as a member of the bargaining unit. A seniority list shall be provided to the Association at the time of a contemplated reduction in force (RIF).
2. Any reduction of positions shall be accomplished in the following manner: tenured employees shall exercise their total employment seniority to replace a less senior, non-tenured employee in the same level or a lower level.
3. Effective July 1, 2010, the following seniority and reduction-in-force provisions shall be in place:

a. Seniority and Seniority List

- 1) Seniority shall be defined as length of continuous service of a tenured employee within the unit. Any unit member working under

.5 status will have no seniority rights. Non-tenured employees will have no seniority/bumping rights.

- 2) Only service in a unit position is counted.
- 3) Employee is credited with all months when an employee was in a pay status (these count: at work, on paid sick leave, on paid personal leave, or on other paid leave; unpaid leaves do not count)
- 4) Being in a pay status even one day in a month counts as a month
- 5) Part-time service in a month is counted proportionate to its ratio of a full-time position. For example, if an employee works half time for ten years, she is credited with five years on the seniority list. Time worked under .5 does not count.
- 6) The Board and SBAES will agree on a seniority list on or before February 1 each year.

b. Layoff

- 1) Tenured employees can replace a less senior non-tenured employee in the same or lower level.
- 2) If reduction-in-force occurs which would eliminate the total employment of an individual, employees with ten (10) or more years of experience whose position is to be eliminated will be able to displace a less senior employee in the same level, subject to the senior employee's ability to meet the qualifications of the less senior employee's position at the time of the bumping. Employees with ten (10) or more years of experience whose position is to be eliminated will be able to displace a less senior employee in a lower level, subject to the senior employee's ability to meet the qualifications of the less senior employee's position at the time of the bumping.
- 3) Employees holding the position of Principal's Secretary or Human Resources Administrative Data Secretary will be exempt from the seniority bumping rights noted in 2) above.
- 4) Nurse-secretaries can only exercise their seniority rights over a less senior nurse-secretary due to the certification needed for that position.

c. Recall

- 1) An employee who terminates for cause or voluntarily resigns a position will have no recall rights.

- 2) A rified employee will remain on the recall list for five (5) years from the date of separation. Example, the reduction-in-force results in an employee's last work day to be June 30. The employee will be on the list for five years from that date.
- 3) The recall list becomes activated when there is an available position in the unit.
- 4) An employee who is offered a position and accepts it is removed from the recall list.
- 5) An employee who rejects a position offered:
 - a) if the employee has been offered a position at the level she occupied at the time of the reduction-in-force or one level below that, and she rejects the offer, she is removed from the recall list.
 - b) If the offer is for a position not on the level she occupied at the time of the reduction-in-force or one level below that, and she rejects the offer, she remains on the recall list.
 - c) If the offer to an employee who was full-time before the reduction of force is not a full-time position, and she rejects the offer, she remains on the recall list.
- 6) A recalled employee shall be placed on the Level of the recalled position and placed on the step she occupied at the time of reduction-in-force plus one step if she had earned an increment for the next year in the year before she was reduced-in-force.
- 7) A recalled employee shall retain all credit towards vacation entitlement; retains all accumulated unused sick leave not compensated for at the time of the reduction-in-force. Time on the recall list will be counted for the purpose of layoff and recall only.
- 8) Recall is to a position, not necessarily to the position which the employee formerly held, or to a position being vacated by another employee.
