This will effectively have all officers utilizing the same health benefits through the existing primary policy coverage without any secondary or gap coverage. For those officers hired after January 1, 2000, the Borough shall continue to meet the requirement for health benefits covered in this collective bargaining agreement by providing benefits equal to or better than the existing primary policy coverage only. Irrespective of the health benefits provided to the officer under the provisions of this collective bargaining agreement, (whether it is the primary policy plus "gap" coverage or the primary policy only) the coverage shall apply to all current existing officers and their families.
