- A. It is recognized by the parties that, due to the employment relationship, certain differences of opinion arise from time to time involving terms and conditions of employment. It is the mutual aim of the parties to arrive at equitable, expeditious and harmonious solutions to such differences; toward that end, the following procedure for resolving such differences is hereby established:
1. An employee with a grievance shall first discuss it with his/her immediate supervisor in an effort to resolve the matter informally.
 2. If no resolution can be reached, the employee shall reduce the grievance to writing and then discuss the matter with the Superintendent, or his designee; the Superintendent shall provide a written response within fourteen (14) days of submission to him; however, an additional fourteen (14) days shall be provided to the Superintendent to provide his answer upon his request. If the Superintendent is the immediate superior under Step 1 above, then this part of the procedure may be waived. In that event, however, the grievance shall be reduced to writing at the first step.
 3. If no solution can be reached at Steps 1 or 2, the employee may present the written grievance to the Board of Education. The decision of the Board of Education shall be rendered within sixty (60) days from its presentation and shall be final.
 4. This procedure is not meant to deprive any employee of any legal remedy that he/she might have beyond the Board of Education level.

ARTICLE XX
FULLY BARGAINED PROVISION

- A. This Agreement incorporates the entire understanding of the parties on all matters which were or could have been the subject of negotiations. During the term of this Agreement, neither party shall be required to negotiate with respect to any such matter whether or not within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the times they negotiated or executed this Agreement.
- B. This Agreement shall not be modified in whole or in part by the parties except by an instrument in writing duly executed by both parties.
- C. In the event that any portion of this Agreement shall be deemed to be in violation of the law, the remainder of the contract shall remain in full force and effect.
