There shall be no loss of pay for employees attending the aforesaid conference.

2. STEP TWO -In the event a satisfactory settlement has not been reached with the supervisor, the employee may appeal his grievance to the Court Administrator (or his representative) within five (5) working days following receipt by the employee of the written determination of the supervisor. Such appeal shall be in writing, signed by the aggrieved employee and delivered to the Court Administrator.

The Court Administrator (or his representative) may at their discretion hold a hearing on the grievance and shall render a written decision within ten (10) working days from his receipt of the grievance.

3. STEP THREE - In the event that the grievance has not been resolved at Step Two, the employee may within ten (10) working days following the receipt by him of the determination of the Court Administrator appeal the matter to the Assignment Judge.

The Assignment Judge shall review the matter and issue a written decision within twenty-five (25) working days from the submission of the grievance to him. The decision of the Assignment Judge shall be final and conclusive.

Notwithstanding any procedures for the resolution of disputes, controversies or grievances established by any other statute the grievance procedure herein established by this agreement between the Employer and the Union shall be utilized for any dispute covered by the terms of this agreement or affecting the employees covered hereunder.

- C. Union Representation in Grievance Procedure - At any meeting between a representative of the Employer and an employee in which discipline (including warnings which are to be included in the personnel file, suspension, demotion, discharge or withholding of wages because of tardiness or unauthorized absence) is to be announced, a Union representative may be present if the employee so requests.
