1. The primary purpose of this procedure is to secure at the lowest possible level, equitable solutions to grievances. Both parties agree that these proceedings shall be kept confidential at each level of the procedure, subject to any applicable right-to-know laws.

2. Nothing contained herein shall be construed as limiting the right of any teacher with a grievance to discuss the matter informally with any appropriate member of the administration and having the grievance adjusted, providing the adjustment is not inconsistent with the terms of this Agreement.

C. Procedure

1. The aggrieved person shall be entitled, at his option, to be represented by an Association Representative at every step of the grievance procedure.

2. If the matter is not resolved to the satisfaction of the aggrieved person, after informal discussions, he shall set forth his grievance in writing to the building principal. The written grievance shall specify:

ARTICLE IV

TEACHING HOURS AND TEACHER LOAD

A. Teacher Day

1. Check-in Procedure

Each Building Principal or Head Teacher in consultation with the Superintendent of Schools shall establish procedures for regulating the check-in and check-out procedures of his staff. This shall be based upon the needs of the students attending each building. No time clocks shall be used to accomplish this task.

The actual arrival and departure times for teachers shall be determined by the Superintendent of Schools in consultation with the Building Principal or Head Teacher. Adequate supervision of students before and after school and extra help needs of students must be considered in establishing time requirements.

2. Length of School Day

The total required school day for teachers in the elementary, middle and senior high schools shall not exceed seven and one-half (7½) hours. On the last full student day of the week, teachers shall not be required to remain in excess of ten (10) minutes after students have left school except in the event of an emergency as determined by the administration.

B. Teaching Load

1. Middle School and High School

- a. The normal weekly teaching load shall not exceed five (5) class assignments.
- b. In the event a sixth class assignment becomes necessary the administration will solicit volunteers. The criteria for the selection of the individual teacher shall be such as it does not conflict with the instructional requirements and is in the best interests of the educational program. At the time five (5) teachers are assigned to a sixth period class in a departmental area, the Board shall hire an additional teacher for that area for the following school year, unless there is no longer a need for the five (5) extra class assignments. The final selection of the teacher assigned to a sixth class rests with the Board. The teacher shall be compensated as follows:

Effective 7/1/83 - $1,050.00

Effective 7/1/84 - $1,100.00

- c. Each classroom teacher shall have designated preparation time equal to one-fifth (1/5) of the time spent in teaching. This preparation time shall be calculated on a weekly basis. The Board recognizes that team planning is essential to the success of team teaching. Consequently, wherever and insofar as possible, the administration will provide two (2) of the five (5) preparation periods per week for team planning.

Occasionally, a situation will arise demanding staff supervision that may require a teacher to relinquish his preparation period on a particular day. The administration shall record such instances and equalize such "coverage needs" to the extent that it is possible among the total staff.

- d. Each classroom teacher shall receive a duty free lunch period based on the same time allotment provided students for lunch periods.
- e. The administration may assign non-teaching duties for the remainder of the school day (7½ hours) to meet the needs of the school program.

- f. The administration may decrease teaching loads according to the needs of the curricular or the extra-curricular programs.
- g. Teachers working with the Middle or High Schools shall receive every possible consideration in limiting the number of teaching stations. Factors such as the needs of handicapped children, the limitation of the building structure, the size of the student populations, etc., must be accepted as legitimate factors affecting these decisions.

2. Elementary Schools

- a. The normal daily teaching load in the elementary schools shall not exceed five (5) hours and thirty (30) minutes of pupil teaching time.
- b. Elementary School teachers shall receive a minimum of forty-five (45) consecutive minutes of duty free lunch time. This time provision shall be in effect unless an emergency should arise as deemed by the building principal.

- c. Elementary teachers may leave their classroom for preparation time when specialists are teaching their students. When necessary in the judgment of the principal, preparation time may be used for purposes other than preparation.
- d. The administration may assign non-teaching duties for the remainder of the school day (7½) hours to meet the needs of the school program.

C. Meetings

1. The notice of an agenda for in-school meetings shall be given to the teachers involved or posted at least one (1) day prior to the meeting except in an emergency.

2. Teachers may have the opportunity to suggest school related topics for inclusion as items in the agenda.

D. Special Assignments

1. Special Curriculum Studies and Projects may be established by the administration and recommended to the Board of Education for approval. Said studies and projects are limited to those tasks which: (1) are begun but cannot be completed during the school day as per Article IV-A and B; (2) result in a written proposal or report and/or an in-service day presentation; and (3) do not occur as an integral part of one's duties for which compensation is already being received via a contracted salary guide. Teachers who are assigned to complete special curriculum studies and projects will be compensated as follows:

Effective 7/1/83 - $ 10.00 per hour

Effective 7/1/84 - $ 10.50 per hour

*new

ARTICLE V

A. Intent

Determination of what non-teaching duties shall be performed by teachers shall remain the province of the Board. The Board and the Association are aware that teaching is a teacher's first responsibility and to that end the Board shall strive to keep non-teaching duties to a minimum. However, the Board and the Association ask all teachers to take cognizance of the fact that certain such non-teaching duties are inherent in the teaching function.
