B. Purpose.

1. The purpose of this procedure is to secure at the lowest possible level, an equitable solution to the problems which may arise affecting the terms and conditions of this Agreement. The parties agree that this procedure will be kept as informal as may be appropriate.
2. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as limiting the right of any employee having a grievance to discuss the matter informally with any appropriate member of the departmental supervisory staff and having the grievance adjusted without the intervention of the Association.
3. Any grievance may be raised by any employee or by the Association.

4. For purposes of Section C below, working days shall be defined as Monday through Friday, whether the employee(s) works the day or not.

C. Steps of the Grievance Procedure.

The following constitutes the sole and exclusive method for resolving grievances between the parties covered by this Agreement and shall be followed in its entirety unless any step is waived by mutual consent:

1. Step One:

(a) An aggrieved employee shall institute action under the provisions hereof by submitting his grievance in writing within ten (10) working days after its occurrence to the P.B.A. representative and with a copy to the Prosecutor and Chief of County Detectives. Having completed this, an earnest effort shall be made to settle the differences between the aggrieved employee and the Chief for the purpose of resolving the matter informally. Failure to file his grievance in writing as aforesaid shall be deemed to constitute an abandonment of the grievance and shall bar the employee from any right to proceed further with the grievance.

(b) The Chief of County Detectives shall render a written decision within five (5) working days after receipt of the grievance. Failure to render such written decision within the time provided shall be deemed a denial of the grievance.

2. Step Two:

(a) In the event a satisfactory settlement has not been reached with the Chief of County Detectives, the employee may appeal his grievance to the Prosecutor within ten (10) working days following receipt by the employee of the written determination of the Chief. Such appeal shall be in writing signed by the aggrieved employee and delivered to the Prosecutor.

(b) The Prosecutor shall render a written decision within ten (10) working days from his receipt of the grievance. Failure to render such written decision within the time provided shall be deemed a denial of the grievance. The Prosecutor's decision shall conclude the grievance procedure, except for grievances involving interpretation and application of the provisions of this contract.

D. Grievances affecting the interpretation and application of the provisions of this contract not settled through Steps 1 and 2 may be referred to the Public Employment Relations Commission within ten (10) days after the determination by the Prosecutor by the Association only. An arbitrator shall be selected pursuant to the rules of P.E.R.C., however, no arbitration hearing shall be scheduled sooner than thirty (30) calendar days after the final decision by the Prosecutor. In the event the aggrieved employee elects to pursue New Jersey State Department of Personnel Procedures, if applicable, the arbitration hearing shall be cancelled and the matter withdrawn from arbitration. The Association shall pay whatever costs may have been incurred in the processing of the case to arbitration. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon both parties, however, the arbitrator shall not have the authority to add to, modify, detract from, or alter in any way the provisions of this Agreement or any amendment or supplement thereto. The arbitrator may also: (1) as a preliminary matter where applicable determine whether the matter in question is arbitrable; and, (2) not permit more than one (1) issue to be arbitrated at one (1) time. The costs for the services of the arbitrator shall be borne equally by the County, through the Prosecutor's budget, and the Association. Any additional costs shall be paid by the party incurring same.

E. Nothing herein shall prevent any employee from processing his own grievance, provided representatives of the P.B.A. may be present at such hearings and provided further that no settlement with any such employee shall violate this Agreement, except the provisions of Section D above.

When the P.B.A. decides to have its representatives enter the County facilities or premises, it will request such permission from the Prosecutor or his designee and such permission will not be unreasonably withheld, provided there should be no interferences with the normal operations of the business of the Prosecutor's Office or normal duties of its employees.
- B. One (1) P.B.A. Representative may be elected to represent the P.B.A. in grievances with the Prosecutor. Each department shall elect its steward and the P.B.A. shall furnish the Board of Chosen Freeholders and Prosecutor with a list of representatives at the beginning of each calendar year and at any time during which a change may be made during said year.

- C. The County and the Prosecutor agree to give time off the job with pay for P.B.A. Representatives performing their Union duties. The P.B.A. agrees to take all steps necessary to ensure that this time is within reasonable limits and does not conflict with the representative's office responsibilities.
- D. Pursuant to N.J.S.A. 11A:26C-4, the Prosecutor agrees to grant a leave of absence with pay to the duly authorized representatives of P.B.A. Local 59, Police Benevolent Association, to attend any state or national convention of such organization. A certificate of attendance to the state or national convention shall be submitted by the representative so attending. Leave of absence shall be for a period inclusive of the duration of the convention with a reasonable time allowed for travel to and from the convention.

ARTICLE EIGHT

HOURS AND OVERTIME

Section 1. Hours:

The normal basic workweek for employees covered by this contract shall be Monday through Friday and shall consist of not more than forty (40) hours. The basic workweek shall be constructed in the framework of either five (5) - eight (8) hour days or four (4) - ten (10) hour days; either one being scheduled at the discretion of the Prosecutor.

In addition to the basic workday and workweek set forth above, all Investigators, Detectives and Sergeants shall be on permanent stand-by during all hours of the day, seven (7) days per week, Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays inclusive. Pursuant to this provision, all Investigators, Detectives and Sergeants shall be free to use off-duty time for their own purposes, subject only to being called into work in the event the Prosecutor or his designee shall so direct.

The employees covered hereunder shall perform such unlimited hours of duty, at such times, places, and duration as shall be directed by the Prosecutor or his designee.

Except in emergency situations, the Prosecutor shall endeavor to give each employee ordered to work beyond his basic workday or workweek at least one-half (1/2) hour prior notice of the assignment. The parties hereto recognize and acknowledge the unique nature of law enforcement work and agree that for all purposes the one-half (1/2) hour notice provision set forth above is reasonable and fair.

Section 2. Overtime.

Overtime shall be paid to members of this bargaining unit once they have worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a workweek. Overtime shall be paid at the rate of one and one half times the employee's hourly rate of pay. However, in circumstances when the overtime is paid out of a designated grant, the rate may be consistent with the grant allotment as long as the employee agrees to work the overtime at that rate.

Employees who are scheduled to work overtime on the recognized holidays noted in Article Nine shall be paid two and one half times the straight time rate for the actual hours worked on the holiday, provided that each such employee shall be paid for a minimum of one half (1/2) day at the above prescribed rate. Employees may elect to receive holiday pay at one and one-half (1 ½) times the straight rate and be given an additional day off at a later date. Either option is at the Prosecutor's discretion. However, if after meeting with the Prosecutor to find a mutually agreeable day off, it is impossible to accommodate the employees request without causing overtime for the necessary replacement, the employee agrees to accept straight time pay for that day, payable by the end of the first quarter of the following year.

It is understood that sick days and hours without a doctor's verification are excluded from the computation of overtime for all employees covered by this Agreement. In the event an employee produces a Doctor's note for the sick hours used, those hours will be deemed worked for the computation of overtime. That means, for example, if an employee normally scheduled to work Monday through Friday and is out sick any of those days and they are called in to work on Saturday, they will be paid straight time equal to the amount of unexcused sick hours used during that 40 hour work period. It is further understood that the number of hours of straight time will be in direct proportion with the number of sick hours used.

Assignment to duty on weekends shall be distributed as equitably as possible subject to the discretion of the Prosecutor among the members of the bargaining unit.

Section 3. Call-out Compensation.

When employees are called out from an off-duty day or from between work shifts for investigative work, they shall be guaranteed a minimum of (4) four hours at one and one-half times the straight time rate. However it is understood that if the call-out pertains to a routine activity not relevant to investigative work, compensation will be on an hour for hour basis. If the call out occurs during a holiday, the rate of pay will be two and one-half times (2 ½) the base rate.

Section 4. Compensatory Time.

At the sole discretion of the Prosecutor, employees may be permitted to receive compensatory time in place of cash payment up to a maximum of eighty (80) hours per calendar year. Employees may be permitted to use compensatory time within a reasonable period after making a request unless the use of such time would be “unduly disruptive” to the department. All compensatory time must be exhausted by December 31st of each year. In the event an employee has not been permitted to use requested compensatory time during the calendar year due to work requirements, the Prosecutor may direct the employee to take specific days off. If the Prosecutor is unable to provide time off, the employee shall receive cash payment for the unused time at the salary the time was accrued.

Administrative Leave Days shall not accumulate, but must be used in the calendar year. Administrative Leave Days are earned on a pro-rata basis. New employees shall only receive one-half (1/2) of an Administrative Leave Day for each two (2) full months of employment during their initial year of employment. Employees who are regularly scheduled off on a holiday will not be affected by this provision.
