3. Any evaluation made of a non-tenure teacher shall not be subject to the Grievance Procedure and the willingness of the Board to permit discussion with reference to any such evaluation procedure shall not be deemed to constitute a waiver of the Board of its prerogatives relative to the employment and/or continued employment of such personnel. Nothing contained herein, however, shall be deemed to deny the right of a non-tenure teacher to file a grievance relative to the failure to follow the evaluation procedure, but the filing of such grievance shall not be deemed to grant to said employee the right to file a further grievance after said procedure shall have been fully followed.

It is the agreement of both parties that concern for students is our primary concern, and therefore the length of the school day or week cannot end with the dismissal bell or a fixed number of hours and minutes. Professional educators are expected to devote to their assignments the time necessary to meet their responsibilities.

As professional educators, teachers must concern themselves with such factors as the age level of students, their attention span, etc. It is also realized that teachers spend a great deal of time in professional activities outside the customary school day. Accordingly, it is therefore realized that a scheduled number of hours per week is not the full extent of a teachers' responsibility.

Teachers shall indicate their presence or absence in the building in the appropriate manner as set forth by the building principal.

The in-school work week for elementary teachers will be 36 hours inclusive of lunch.

2. Under the present junior high schedule, no teacher shall be assigned more than 5 teaching classes per day.

Under the present senior high schedule, no teacher shall be assigned more than 6 teaching periods per day.

4. Participation in clubs and related activities, either during or after the normal school day, shall be considered a part of the teacher's professional obligations.
5. Teachers shall be expected to remain one day per week, preferably Monday, beyond the normal school day in order to attend administrative, departmental, or R.E.A. meetings. As has been the custom, meetings may be called for curriculum or in-service training. These meetings may extend beyond the normal school day.
6. An Association representative may speak to teachers at any building faculty meeting for a period of up to 10 minutes on request of the representative.
