Section 5

Any employee with at least one (1) year seniority will receive thirty (30) days notice of layoff or in lieu of notice two (2) weeks pay.

ARTICLE XIII - SENIORITY

Section 1

A. Seniority shall be defined as the employee's length of continuous service within this specific bargaining unit, beginning with the original date of hire in a full-time capacity. In the event that the employee should leave the bargaining unit and take another position within the College, his/her seniority in this bargaining unit shall end.

B. Part-Time Employees

The longevity payments which became effective July 1, 1993, are not applicable for bargaining unit members who are not regularly scheduled to work a minimum of thirty-five (35) hours per week (excluding the full-time ten-month employees).

Permanent part-time employees hired after July 1, 1991 earn seniority on a prorated basis. Part-time bargaining unit members employed by the College as of June 30, 1991 continue to earn their seniority as in the past without distinguishing between their full or part-time employment. Specifically, their original date of hire and their continuous service in Local 81440 are the only two criteria that will be utilized in determining their seniority status for layoffs and job bidding.

New part-time hires however, will earn seniority in accordance with the following schedule:

| Scheduled Hours Per Week | Annual Seniority Earned (In Months) | | |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------------------|--|--|
| 35 | 12 months | | |
| 34 – 30 | 10 months | | |
| 29 - 25 | 8 months | | |
| 24 - 20 | 6 months | | |
| 19 - 15 | 4 months | | |
| 14 - 10 | 2 months | | |

Section 2

- A. In the case of a layoff, an employee up for disposition will first be required to fill a vacancy, if one exists, within the same classification with the provision that he/she is qualified to do the work. If no vacancy exists, the qualified employee up for disposition will then have the option of either displacing the least senior employee in the same or lower classification.
- B. In the event the employee up for disposition elects to displace an employee in a lower classification he/she shall receive the rate of pay of the employee displaced. Pay will be determined by the years of service.
- C. An employee up for disposition may elect to be laid off rather than displace another employee.
- D. In no event shall this Article supersede affirmative action or equal opportunity programs or rules or regulations.

Section 7

The College shall send notification to the Union each month of new hires and terminations showing name, address, date of hire, job title and salary.

Section 8

Seniority shall cease upon voluntary termination, discharge for just cause, failure to return to work when recalled.

Section 9

Any member being elected or delegated to any Union activities necessitating a temporary leave of absence without pay shall be granted same and at the end of such leave shall be returned to their former job and rate, plus any increases granted in their absence without loss of other benefits.

Work performed on listed holidays shall be paid as double time and one-half (2 ½) which shall include all remuneration including pay for the holiday and overtime premium.

Section 5

No employee will be required to work on holidays that are observed by the College and listed in this Agreement. If the College knows of its overtime requirements, it will endeavor to give at least three (3) days notice prior to overtime requirements and three (3) days notice of requested Saturday overtime.

Section 6

If requested to, employees will be expected to work reasonable overtime.

Section 7

If any employee is injured during the course of the work day and requires medical or surgical attention, he/she will be paid the balance of the regular work day on which such injury occurs at his/her regular hourly rate.

A. Offices during the basic school year, September 1 through May 31 shall be open five (5) days per week (Monday to Friday) 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. These hours will also apply for the Tuesday through Saturday and Wednesday through Sunday workweek (one (1) hour for lunch). Employees who were hired contingent on working five days during the summer shall continue to do so.

Section 9 College Closings:

A. If classes are cancelled for weather related reasons, this same policy shall also apply to employees. description, the College shall give first consideration to the applicant before filling the vacancy.

Procedures to be utilized in the filling of positions for bargaining unit members are as follows:

1. The College will maintain a system wherein the most senior applicant for a position will be appointed to said position for a thirty-day probationary period. The College and the employee may extend this probationary period by mutual agreement. Likewise, the College and the employee may extend the probationary period for the new hires by mutual agreement.

The applicant will be interviewed by the immediate supervisor in advance of an official appointment. The basic purpose of the interview will be to provide the immediate supervisor with an opportunity to delineate the specific job responsibilities and reasonable expectations (e.g., productivity standards, skills level, organizational capabilities, etc.) that the applicant will have to satisfy. In the event that, as a result of the initial interview, the most senior applicant does not accept the position, the next most senior applicant will receive the same consideration that was extended to the primary candidate. If there are no additional applicants, the position will either be advertised externally or the College will temporarily assign a current bargaining unit member to fill the position and the employee so assigned will be paid the negotiated rate for the position commencing with the thirtieth (30th) day in that position.

2. The candidate with the greatest seniority will have a thirty-day (30 calendar day probationary period within which to demonstrate that he/she has the necessary and appropriate skills and abilities to successfully meet the requirements for the position.

It will be the responsibility of the immediate supervisor to complete a performance appraisal form near the end of the probationary period and forward same to the Human Resources Office. Further, the supervisor will give a photocopy of the appraisal form to the candidate at the time it is completed.

- 3. Should the overall performance appraisal indicate that the candidate has failed to meet the basic requirements for the position, the employee will have one of several options:
 - a. If his/her previous position has not yet been filled by the College, the employee will be assigned to fill the vacancy.
 - b. If the former position has been filled, the unsuccessful candidate will either be assigned to another existing vacancy of a comparable level, or may utilize the "bumping" rights contained in Article XIII of the current collective bargaining agreement.

Note: the College cannot guarantee that every candidate's "former" position will not be filled during a probationary period because the needs of the College will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

- 4. An employee who utilizes seniority to move laterally or downward will be required to remain in the new position for a period of one full year. All newly hired employees will be required to remain in their first position for a period of nine months.
- 5. If there is a disagreement with the performance appraisal that was completed by the immediate supervisor at or near the end of the probationary period, the employee has the right

- 6. External applicants for position(s) that have not been filled by bargaining unit members may still be tested by the College (Note: several entry-level positions in the bargaining unit do not explicitly require specialized skills). However, the College will notify external applicants who are appointed to those positions that do not require specialized skills that they will have to obtain a passing test score if they subsequently apply for positions within the bargaining unit that entails proficiency in certain skills.
- 7. The College reserves the right to consider performance factors such as attendance records and discipline history in making the final appointment of the most senior applicant to a position.
 - A disagreement with the decision of Management to disqualify the most senior applicant is subject to the grievance procedure, excluding binding arbitration, which exclusion shall terminate effective June 30, 2009.
- 8. Where a single vacancy in an existing shift occurs, only that vacancy shall be posted. In this regard, both parties acknowledge the College's right to post all shifts in the event of a reorganization.

Section 3

The College recognizes that in making promotions, consideration shall be given first to the ability and aptitude of an employee to perform the job in question; and second, to the length of the employee's continuous service. However, it is understood that if all other variables are equal, seniority shall prevail in the final selection process.

Employees who report to work at their regular starting time and have not been given at least one day's notice not to report, shall be guaranteed at least four (4) hours work or pay, except when the inability to provide four (4) hours work is due to an "Act of God" beyond the control of the College.

ARTICLE XVIII - REST PERIOD

Employees will be given a fifteen (15) minute rest period in the morning and a fifteen (15) minute rest period in the afternoon without loss of pay.
