Assignment to plainclothes duty for less than a full calendar year shall result in a pro-rata entitlement to such differential.

2. Commencing during calendar year 1987, all full-time unit employees assigned to plainclothes duty shall be entitled to an annual detective differential of one thousand five hundred ($1,500) dollars. This differential shall be added to the biweekly compensation of all full-time unit employees assigned to plainclothes duty as follows:

Assignment to plainclothes duty for less than a full calendar year shall result in a pro-rata entitlement to such differential.

3. Commencing during calendar year 1988, all full-time unit employees assigned to plainclothes duty shall be entitled to an annual detective differential equal to five percent (5%) of said employees base annual salary, exclusive of longevity, holiday pay, this detective differential, overtime and all other compensation of any type whatsoever. This detective differential shall not exceed a CAP of two thousand two hundred fifty ($2,250) dollars.

This differential shall be added to the biweekly compensation of all full-time unit employees assigned to plainclothes duty by taking the number arrived at by multiplying five percent (5%) times the base salary and dividing that number by twenty-six (26) biweekly pay periods. The full amount of this payment will then be deducted back from the employee's pay and paid back to the employee in accordance with the same procedures used for the payment of longevity. Assignment to plainclothes duty for less than a full calendar year shall result in prorata entitlement to such differential.

4. The detective differential benefit is not subject to renegotiation by the Association for a ten (10) year period commencing 1 January 1986, with the exception of the flat CAP number of $2,250 in Section B.3 above.

ARTICLE XII

23rd thru 25th Year	1,800	2,050
Each Year of Service Over 25 Years	1,800	2,050

Effective 1 January 1988, longevity payments based upon years of continuous, uninterrupted service with the Township shall be as follows:

- After 10th Year 4% of Base Pay

All employees who have completed the necessary years for longevity payment, in accordance with the above table, will receive such payment unless the Director of Police has advised them, in writing, not less than six (6) months before the date on which they will have completed another year of service, that their services are not satisfactory.

Immediate family shall be defined as the employee's mother, father, mother-in-law, father-in-law, husband, wife, sister, brother or child.

B. In order for the employee to receive compensation under this section, he must notify the department director, or his designee, of the death in the immediate family by 9:00 AM on the first day to be taken as bereavement leave. At this notification, he must also inform the department director, or his designee, of the number of bereavement days the employee plans to take.

C. On the day the employee returns to work, he must present to the department director, or his designee, a copy of the "Notice of Death" or obituary published in a newspaper, together with the name of the paper and the city and date of publication. If a death notice or obituary cannot be obtained, a letter from the undertaker who arranged the funeral should be submitted stating the employee's attendance at the funeral of a member of the immediate family. In addition, the employee must complete a "Bereavement Leave" form, which would state the date of death of the immediate family member, the location and name of the undertaker and the date and place of interment. This form, together with the attached "Notice of Death" or undertaker's letter, will be forwarded to the Deputy Manager's office for payroll processing.

D. Until an employee meets the requirements of Section C of this article, any leave taken as bereavement leave under Section A of this article will be charged to sick leave.

ARTICLE XIV

NO-STRIKE PLEDGE

A. The Association covenants and agrees that during the term of this Agreement neither the Association nor any person acting in its behalf will cause, authorize or support, nor will any of its members take part in any strike (i.e.; the concerted failure to report for duty, or concerted willful absence of a police patrolman from his duties of employment), work stoppage, walk-out or other job action against the Township. The Association agrees that such action would constitute a material breach of this Agreement.

B. In the event of a strike, walk-out or job action, it is covenanted and agreed that participation in any such activity by any Association member shall be deemed grounds for disciplinary action, including possible termination of employment of such employee(s).

C. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to limit or restrict the Township in its right to seek and obtain such judicial relief as it may be entitled to have in law or in equity for injunction or damages, or both, in the event of such breach by the Association or its members.

ARTICLE XV

CONDUCT OF NEGOTIATIONS

A. The parties shall make every effort to schedule negotiation sessions so as to avoid the necessity of excusing members from duty.

ARTICLE XVI

Such deductions shall be made in compliance with Chapter 310, Public Laws of 1967, N.J.S.A. (R.S.)52:14-15.9e, as amended. Said monies, together with records of any corrections, shall be transmitted to the Association by the fifteenth (15th) of each month following the monthly pay period in which deductions were made.

The Association shall indemnify, defend and save the Township harmless against any and all claims, demands, suits or other forms of liability that shall arise out of, or by reason taken by the Township, in reliance upon salary deduction authorization cards submitted by the Association to the Township, or in reliance upon the official notification on the letterhead of the Association as signed by the President and Secretary - Treasurer of the Association, advising of such changed deduction.

ARTICLE XVII

SEPARABILITY AND SAVINGS

A. If any provision of this Agreement, or any application of this Agreement, to any employee or group of employees is held invalid by operation of law or by a Court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction, such provision shall be inoperative but all other provisions shall not be affected thereby and shall continue in full force and effect.

ARTICLE XVIII

TERM AND RENEWAL

A. THIS AGREEMENT shall be in full force and effect as of the day and year first above written, and shall be in effect to and including December 31, 1988. Except where expressly so stated herein, no provision of this Agreement shall be effective prior to the day and year first above written.

B. Thereafter, this Agreement shall continue in full force and effect from year-to-year, unless one party or the other gives notice, in writing, no more than one hundred eighty (180) days, or less than one hundred fifty (150) days, prior to the expiration date of this Agreement, of a desire to change, modify or terminate this Agreement.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals on this 27TH day of January 1986.
