ARTICLE I---PURPOSE

Rutgers and the Union have entered into this Agreement for the purpose of establishing conditions under which employees, as hereinafter defined, shall be employed to work for Rutgers and procedures for the presentation and resolution of grievances, and to regulate the mutual relations among themselves with the view of promoting and insuring harmonious relations, cooperation and understanding between Rutgers and its employees.

ARTICLE II---RECOGNITION

1. Rutgers recognizes the Union as the elected exclusive representative for collective negotiations concerning the terms and conditions of employment of its employees as herein defined.
2. The terms "employee" and "employees" as used herein shall include all full-time salaried employees, employed as operating engineers and apprentice engineers in the Department of Physical Plant by Rutgers in the State of New Jersey, but excluding the chief engineer, all probationary employees, supervisors, employees in the jurisdiction of other unions now recognized by Rutgers, and all other employees of Rutgers.

ARTICLE III---DEDUCTION OF UNION DUES

Each employee may cancel such written authorization giving written notice to such cancellation to Rutgers and the Union only between December 15 and December 31 of any year effective January 1 of the ensuing year. The amount of monthly Union dues to be deducted by Rutgers from the employee's first pay check of each calendar month shall be in such an amount as may be certified to Rutgers by the Union, from time to time, and at least thirty (30) days prior to the date on which deduction of Union dues is to be made. 2. Rutgers agrees to recognize one steward to be selected by the Union for each of the following campuses: University Heights, College Avenue, Newark, Camden. The Union agrees to give Rutgers written notice of the names of the stewards and their respective areas of responsibility.

A steward shall not leave his work without first obtaining the permission of his immediate supervisor, which permission shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE V---GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. A grievance is defined as any difference or dispute concerning the interpretation, application or claimed violation of any provisions of this Agreement, or of any Rutgers policy or any administrative decision relating to wages, hours or other terms or conditions of employment of the employees, as defined herein.

2. Any grievance of an employee, or of the Union, shall be handled in the following manner:

Step 1 - An employee having a grievance shall present it in the first instance to his immediate supervisor within ten (10) working days after the occurrence of the event out of which the grievance arises. If the employee so requests, his steward shall be present.

Step 2 - If the employee or the Union is not satisfied, the grievance shall be put in writing, signed by the employee and presented to the employee's immediate supervisor within one (1) working day after the discussion of the grievance with the employee's immediate supervisor or the decision of the employee's immediate supervisor, whichever the employee or the Union elect to follow. The employee's immediate supervisor shall, within three (3) working days thereafter, give his written answer to the employee and to the employee's steward. The employee or his steward shall forward the written grievance and written answer to the employee's next level of authority within three (3) working days. For the purpose of this grievance procedure the "employee's next level of authority" shall be considered the chief engineer. Copies of the written grievance shall be forwarded to the Rutgers Department of Personnel Services and to the Local Union. The chief engineer shall, within five (5) working days of the receipt of the written grievance, arrange a meeting with the employee and a Local Union Official. The chief engineer shall give to the employee and the Local Union his written answer to the written grievance within three (3) working days after the date of such meeting.

Step 3 - If the Union is not satisfied with the written answer of the chief engineer, the Union shall, within three (3) working days following the date of the written answer of the employee's chief engineer, submit to the Department of Personnel Services a written request for a meeting between a representative of the Department of Personnel Services and a Local Union Official. Such meeting shall occur at a mutually agreeable time and place not later than five (5) working days after the written request for such discussion. The employee shall be entitled to be present at such meeting. The representative of the Department of Personnel Services shall give his written decision to the Union within five (5) working days after such discussion takes place, or within such additional period of time that may be mutually agreed upon. A general grievance may be presented by the Union at Step 3.

Step 4 - If the Union is not satisfied with the written decision of the representative of the Department of Personnel Services, the Union shall, within five (5) working days after the written decision of the representative of the Department of Personnel Services, submit to the Department of Personnel Services a written request for a meeting between a representative of the Local Union and the Vice President and Treasurer of Rutgers or his representative. Such a meeting shall occur at a mutually convenient time and place not later than five (5) working days after the written request for the meeting. The employee shall be entitled to be present at such meeting. Step 5 - If the Union is not satisfied with the written decision of the Vice President and Treasurer of Rutgers, or his representative, the Union shall, within ten (10) working days after the written decision of the Vice President and Treasurer of Rutgers, or his representative, submit to the Department of Personnel Services a written request to refer the grievance to mediation before a mediator to be mutually agreed upon.

3. Saturdays, Sundays and holidays shall not be considered working days in computing the time limits provided for above. Any written decision or written answer to a grievance made at any step which is not appealed to the succeeding step within the time limits provided, or such additional period of time as may be mutually agreed upon in writing, shall be considered a final settlement and such settlement shall be binding upon Rutgers, the Union and the employee or employees involved.

4. An employee shall not lose pay for time spent during his regular working hours at the foregoing steps of the grievance procedure. In the event that it is necessary to require the attendance of other employees, during regular working hours, at the Step 5 meeting of the grievance procedure, such employees shall not lose pay for such time.

ARTICLE VI---NON DISCRIMINATION

There shall be no discrimination by Rutgers or the Union against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, creed, color, sex, religion, nationality or membership or non-membership in the Union.

ARTICLE VII---SENIORITY

1. All employees shall be considered as probationary employees for the first ninety (90) days of their employment. Probationary employees may be disciplined or terminated at any time for any reason whatsoever at the sole discretion of Rutgers and they shall not be entitled to utilize the provisions of Article V---Grievance Procedure. Upon completion of such probationary period, their seniority will be dated as of the date of the commencement of their employment. In the event that two (2) employees commence their employment on the same date in the same seniority unit, their respective seniority shall be determined by alphabetical order of their last names.

2. Seniority for the purpose of this article shall be based upon an employee's continuous length of service in a seniority unit. Seniority units are defined as follows:

- a. Department of Physical Plant - Newark
- b. Department of Physical Plant - Camden
- c. Department of Physical Plant - New Brunswick

3. The Department of Personnel Services shall maintain seniority lists of employees by seniority units, copies of which shall be furnished to the Union. The Department of Personnel Services also shall furnish to the Union copies of the monthly reports reflecting changes in the seniority lists.

Written notice of recall to work shall be sent by Rutgers by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the employee's last known address as shown on Rutgers' personnel records.
- e. Failure to report for work for a period of three (3) consecutive scheduled working days without notification to Rutgers of a justifiable excuse for such absence.
- f. Failure to report back to work immediately upon expiration of vacation, leave of absence or any renewal thereof unless return to work is excused by Rutgers.

6. A permanent job opening in a seniority unit shall be posted on appropriate bulletin boards in such seniority unit for a period of five (5) calendar days. Probationary employees are ineligible to bid for permanent job openings.

7. An employee who is permanently transferred to a job in another seniority unit will accumulate seniority in such new seniority unit from the date of such permanent transfer, and, for the purpose of layoff and recall only, shall retain seniority in the seniority unit from which he was transferred for a period of four (4) years from the date of such permanent transfer.

ARTICLE VIII---LEAVE OF ABSENCE

1. An employee who is unable to perform the duties of his job title because of illness or injury shall be given a leave of absence without pay. 2. Employees on leave of absence shall retain and accumulate seniority during such leaves of absence.

ARTICLE IX---MISCELLANEOUS

1. Rutgers shall provide for each seniority unit a bulletin board, space on a bulletin board or space for a bulletin board for posting by Union representatives of notices related to official Union matters. ARTICLE XI---HOURS OF WORK

1. Work Week. The work week begins at 7:00 a.m. Sunday and runs for seven consecutive days. During this period all regular full-time employees shall be assigned to work five, 8-hour days in accordance with a rotating shift schedule which allows a minimum of 16 hours between shifts. Any work performed beyond 40 hours in the work week shall be considered overtime work.

2. Call-back Pay. Any employee who is called back to work after he has completed his regular shift and has left his place of work shall be guaranteed a minimum of three (3) hours work or pay in lieu thereof. Such employee shall be required to work all hours, in addition to the three (3) hours minimum guarantee, which are required by his supervisor.

3. Paycheck. The paycheck stub of each employee will indicate the total number of overtime hours worked in the pay period represented by the paycheck.

benefits provided for in this Agreement, employees shall be entitled to enjoy all terms and conditions of employment provided for in the University Procedures.

ARTICLE XIII

Rutgers and the Union understand and agree that all provisions of this Agreement are subject to law. In the event that any provision of this Agreement shall be rendered illegal or invalid under an applicable law, such illegality or invalidity shall effect only the particular provision which shall be deemed of no force and effect, but it shall not effect the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV---TERM

This Agreement shall become effective as of July 1, 1969, and shall continue in effect to June 30, 1971.

The Union may request reopening of this Agreement with respect to economic terms and conditions of employment of employees effective July 1, 1970, by giving written notice to Rutgers not less than sixty (60) days nor not more than seventy-five (75) days prior to June 30, 1970.
