A. For all permanent employees in the Prosecutor's Office, the work day shall be eight and one half (8.5) consecutive hours per day, inclusive of a half-hour unpaid lunch, forty (40) hours per week. The work week shall consist of five (5) consecutive days.

B. For employees qualified to receive overtime, payment of overtime for all hours in a pay status in excess of eight (8) hours, as defined in this contract, in a 24-hour daily period, and all hours worked on Saturdays, Sundays or Holidays shall be at the rate of time and one half, with the exception of Easter, Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year, where the hours worked will be paid at the rate of double time. Overtime will be compensated in one-half hour units, fractional portions being counted as a full half hour, except that no payment will be made for an initial period of less than fifteen (15) minutes.

1. Overtime will be compensated with compensatory time or payment on the basis of one and one half hours or double time where applicable, for each hour of overtime worked.

2. The employee has the option of electing compensatory time or paid overtime. The employee who has requested the use of compensatory time shall be permitted to use such time within 45 days from the date earned or within 30 days after the end of the calendar year, whichever is sooner if the use of the compensatory time does not unduly disrupt the operation of the office.

If compensatory time cannot be scheduled by the Prosecutor within 45 days from the date earned or within 30 days after the end of the calendar year, the employee shall be compensated at the rate the time was earned.

3. Upon termination of employment, an employee shall be paid for unused compensatory time at the employee's current rate.

4. Prior authorization and approval by the Chief of County Detectives or his representative must be obtained before overtime is worked.

[For the purposes of meeting operational demands and with as much notice as operationally possible, employees may be assigned for a temporary period to work a 12:00 PM to 8:30 PM or a 1:00 PM to 9:30 PM shift. It is not the Prosecutor's intent to permanently designate employees to either of these two shifts.]

Should the Employer determine that a change in an employee's schedule or shift is required for greater than (5) days, the Employer will provide the employee with seventy-two (72) hour notification prior to shift or schedule changes.

Nothing in this contract shall prevent the employer from modifying these established schedules to meet exigent operational circumstances or other goals as may be determined necessary.

D. Call Back Time: Any employee who is ordered or directed by a supervisor to return to work shall be paid a minimum of three hours at the employee's overtime rate.

1. Call Back Time: Compensable overtime shall not begin to accumulate until the employee arrives at the call out location, regardless of when the employee received notification of the assignment. Compensable time shall conclude when the employee has been cleared or released from the assignment. Additionally, 30 minutes of travel time shall be added to the call out assignment. Notwithstanding, an employee who is ordered or directed by a supervisor to return to work shall be paid a minimum of three hours at the employee's overtime rate (inclusive of the 30 minute travel allowance).

3. If a call back assignment overlaps with an employee's workday, the employee may elect to treat the assignment as part of his/her workday and deduct the actual length of the assignment (plus the 30 minutes for travel allowance) from the normal workday and complete the workday early as a form of flex-time.

E. For employees holding the rank of Lieutenant only, the Prosecutor or his designee shall permit Lieutenants to earn a bank of compensatory time as a result of extraordinary assignments that may occur on nights or weekends. These extraordinary assignments would include, by way of example, (but are not limited to), narcotics investigations involving wiretaps, homicide investigations, sexual assault investigations, or other serious and emergent investigations which require a Lieutenant to perform his/her duties and responsibilities in excess of the 40 hour work week.

Any request to use compensatory time shall be promptly submitted in writing to the Prosecutor or his designee after said hours are earned. Compensatory time, consistent with the above examples, will be approved by the Prosecutor or his designee "hour for hour" up to a total annual maximum of sixty (60) hours.

After a Lieutenant has accumulated a total of sixty (60) hours of compensatory for the calendar year, the Prosecutor, or his designee, shall utilize his sole discretion in reviewing additional requests for compensatory time. It is further understood that any requests above sixty (60) hours of accumulated annual compensatory time may not be approved and in determining whether to grant additional approval various factors will be considered by the Prosecutor or his designee including the following: the nature of the emergent assignment, the number of hours spent on said assignment, the total number of compensatory hours accumulated year to date by said Lieutenant, and the operational impact on the Office if said additional compensatory time is approved.

Compensatory time earned by Lieutenants shall be used within 45 days from the date earned or within 30 days after the end of the calendar year, whichever is sooner, unless waived by the Prosecutor or his designee. In no event shall said compensatory time approved be submitted to the County for monetary compensation.

For 2010, the stipend amount shall increase to $3,000.

Any employee requesting special leave without pay shall submit his/her request in writing stating the reason why, in his/her opinion, the request should be granted, the date when he/she desires the leave to begin, and the probable date of his/her return to duty. For each separate case of special leave without pay other than as herein provided under the statutes, the Prosecutor shall, at the time the leave is approved, determine whether the employee granted such leave shall be entitled to his/her former position on his/her return from such leave or whether his/her name shall be placed on the re-employment list for the classification. At the sole discretion of the Prosecutor, such leave time, as stated above, may be extended.

Failure to do so may result in the loss of pay for the period of absence.

G. Failure to so notify his/her supervisor shall be cause of denial of the use of sick leave for that absence. Absence without proper notice for five (5) consecutive days shall constitute a resignation not in good standing.

H. The appointing authority may require an employee who has been absent because of personal illness, as a condition of his/her return to duty, to be examined by a physician selected by the employer. Such examination shall establish whether the employee is capable of performing his/her normal duties without limitations and that his/her return will not jeopardize the health of other employees. Cost of the examination shall be borne by the employer. Employees shall notify the Prosecutor of their intention to return at least seven (7) working days prior to their intended return date.

In the event that five (5) or more sick days are charged against an employee, said sick days shall be returned and credited to the employee's sick leave bank. A Disability Determination Panel (DDP) consisting of the Freeholder Director assigned to the Prosecutor's Office, the Prosecutor, and a mutually-agreed upon neutral third party member chosen by the Prosecutor and the Board of Chosen Freeholders shall determine whether an injury is directly attributable to the unique duties of a Sergeant or Lieutenant. The determination made by the panel shall be final and binding.

However, whenever the Employer determines that it may be in its interest to change the health care provider or administrator, advance notice will be given to the Union, along with a copy of the proposed contract. In the event that a change in the health care provider or administrator results in a change in panel providers, all employees will be given advance notice of the change and will be notified of where they can obtain a copy of the list of new health care providers.

3. In those instances where the leave of absence (or an extension of such leave) without pay is for a period of more than ninety (90) days, the employee's coverage shall be terminated effective the first of the month following the ninetieth day.
