If the later disability is due to an unrelated cause, it shall be considered a new disability and a new fifty-two week maximum period begins.

Disability payments shall cease when the employee returns to work, the employee leaves employment with the College, the employee qualifies for permanent disability under the New Jersey Division of Pensions, or the disability benefit is exhausted. The employee must submit medical verification of his/her ability to return to work, prior to returning to work.

- a. What happened?
- b. Who was involved?
- c. When did it happen? (Times, dates)
- d. Where did it happen?
- e. Why did it happen?
- f. Is this action habitual or is it an isolated incident?
- g. What is the employee's past overall record?

In the event the investigation does not support the allegation, the supervisor shall inform the employee, in writing, of this finding. Should the investigation support the allegation of a violation, disciplinary action shall be taken. The burden of justifying a disciplinary recommendation rests with the administration. If disciplinary action is to be effective, the supervisor shall:

- b. Be consistent and even-handed,

The employee is entitled to representation at this meeting. Every verbal warning should include a notice to the employee that continued violations will result in further disciplinary action. Following the issuance of a verbal warning, the supervisor shall document the nature of the violation(s) including time, date, and location of both the offense and the disciplinary conference. This documentation is to be retained by the supervisor (confidentially) for future reference. No documentation is to be sent to the Personnel Department.

B. Written Reprimand - The employee may be given a written reprimand for a second offense or if the seriousness of the violation warrants more than a verbal warning. The written reprimand shall clearly state that violation of College policy/procedure cannot be allowed to continue and shall state the material facts of the case, nature of the offense, date, time, and location of the violation and a record of conference(s) held. Documentation of prior verbal warning(s) shall be attached to the written reprimand. The employee shall be provided an original copy of the written reprimand. A copy of the written reprimand and all attachments shall be transmitted confidentially to the area Dean and to the Dean of Personnel for inclusion in the employee's personnel file.

C. Disciplinary Suspension or Wage/Salary Reduction - The employee may be given a suspension for a third violation that occurs within a period of twelve months from the date of the most recent written reprimand or if the seriousness of the violation warrants more than a written reprimand. A suspension may be for no less than three working days and no more than ten working days, depending on the seriousness of the violation. The supervisor shall write a recommendation for suspension which includes a history of all past violations and a history of the supervisory efforts to correct the problem. A detailed documentation of the facts related to the violation shall be attached. Copies of the recommendation for suspension shall be confidentially transmitted to the employee, the area Dean, the Dean of Personnel, and the President. The President shall decide if the recommendation for suspension shall be transmitted to the Board of Trustees for consideration. At the discretion of the President, a recommendation to reduce the wage/salary of the employee for a period not to exceed one year may be advanced to the Board of Trustees.

D. Termination - In the event efforts at corrective discipline fail, the final disciplinary action shall be termination from employment. When a supervisor believes termination is appropriate, he/she shall confer with the area Dean and the Dean of Personnel. Complete documentation of the case shall be prepared by the supervisor. A conference with the employee and all appropriate individuals shall be initiated by the Dean of Personnel to present the facts of the case and the Recommendation for Termination. The employee shall be provided the opportunity to respond and shall be provided such other due process opportunities as may be appropriate.
