If a principal probation officer required none or only a portion of allowable sick leave during any calendar year, the amount of this leave not taken accumulates from year to year, and the employee is entitled to sick leave with pay if and when needed. At the time of separation from service, if a principal probation officer has used anticipated, but unearned sick leave, as provided in Section 1 b. above, he/she must make reimbursement for that time.

Section 2

Section 3

Principal probation officers shall be permitted to carry over up to, but not greater than, five (5) days vacation from the previous calendar year into the succeeding calendar year subject to receipt of scheduling approval by the Vicinage Chief Probation Officer. If a dispute arises regarding approval of vacation carry over requests, the matter shall be resolved by the Assignment Judge or his judicial designee whose decision shall be final.

Principal probation officers shall continue to be provided with all health and welfare benefits presently granted to Monmouth County employees generally. If the County offers its employees generally the option of other medical insurance coverage, the same option shall be afforded principal probation officers subject to the County's policy for implementation of the plan.

If during the terms of this Agreement, the County grants to its employees generally any additional health and welfare benefits or provides any expanded coverage, and such benefits were not a subject of negotiations for this Agreement, the Assignment Judge may grant such benefit to principal probation officers or shall reopen this matter for further negotiation.

ARTICLE XVII - Place of Residence

Section 2

If the Board of Freeholders revises its policy with respect to the car arrangements, the parties hereto agree to enter into negotiations for the purposes of discussing the impact of such a change. It is further understood that this is the only item which will be discussed in any such negotiations.

ARTICLE XVIII - Liability

Section 1 - Conditions

Whenever an action is instituted against any employee for any act or omission arising out of and in the course of, and within the scope of, good faith performance of the duties of his/her office, position or employment, the County shall defray the cost of defending such action as set forth below.

The County's obligation hereunder shall be limited to those cases in which:

- a. The employee is a named defendant in a matter pending before a court of competent jurisdiction; and
- b. The employee was acting in the discharge of duty imposed or authorized by law, provided
- c. In criminal actions, the proceeding is dismissed or results in a final disposition in favor of the employee.

Section 2 - Procedure-Criminal Action

a. Should any criminal action be instituted against employees entitled to defense according to the foregoing paragraph for any such act or omission arising out of his/her employment as a principal probation officer and such proceeding be dismissed or result in a final disposition in favor of such person, the County shall reimburse him/her for the cost, not covered by policy of insurance, of defending such proceedings, including reasonable counsel fees and expenses of the original hearing or trial and all appeals.

b. If at the conclusion of the criminal proceeding a dispute arises between the County Counsel and the employee's attorney concerning the reasonableness of his fees, this issue shall be submitted to the Assignment Judge for a final and binding decision. Prior to such decision, both County Counsel and the employee's attorney shall have an opportunity to present to the Assignment Judge their respective positions as to the reasonableness of fees.

c. In order to qualify for this reimbursement program, the attorney selected by the employee must sign an agreement in which he agrees to keep accurate and complete records of the hours which he spends on the case (to include the date and nature of service performed with regard to all times) from the outset of the case. Such documentation must be submitted by the attorney on a monthly basis prior to the payment of any monies by the County to the attorney for services rendered during that month. At the conclusion of the case, the attorney must submit an Affidavit of Services rendered which sets forth a total detailed time information record.

Section 3 - Procedure-Civil Action

If, in accordance with Subsection 1, the employee is entitled to representation, such representation shall be provided by the County Counsel, an attorney selected by any insurance carrier insuring the County, or by private counsel to be retained by the County. In no event will private counsel retained by the employee be compensated for his/her services by the County of Monmouth.

c. The County shall provide representation to the employee at all stages of the litigation and shall save harmless and protect the employee from any financial loss or any judgment entered against the employee resulting from any action in which the County provided such representation. In instances where the County provided representation, the entering of a civil judgment against an employee does not necessarily constitute bad faith conduct by the employee.

ARTICLE XIX - Union Business

Section 1

The Union shall furnish to the Vicinage Chief Probation Officer the names of one (1) principal probation officer who is to be Union steward and one (1) alternate for the purposes of handling grievances.

Section 2

Time off with pay shall be provided for official representatives of the Union, not to exceed one (1) employee and one (1) alternate for the purpose of handling employees' grievances and to attend O.P.E.I.U.'s national and state meetings, provided such time off is not in excess of five (5) days in each calendar year, is otherwise reasonable, and does not interfere with the officer's official duties and functions. ARTICLE XXI - Meetings

Representatives of the Union may meet with the Vicinage Chief Probation Officer and the Assignment Judge or his designee to discuss matters of specific interest and concern that do not necessarily involve a grievance or complaint. The party requesting the meeting shall prepare a written agenda and shall submit it to the other parties for their review prior to the scheduling of a meeting date.

ARTICLE XXII - Departmental Seniority

In calculating an employee's time for the purposes of department seniority, management shall use the original date of appointment, either provisional or permanent.

Provisional officers who are terminated due to the application of the New Jersey Department of Personnel certification process and who are subsequently appointed as permanent probation officers shall have the service accrued as a provisional applied to their departmental seniority.

The Article shall not apply to the computation or application of seniority in determining individual rights administered by the New Jersey Department of Personnel, such as layoff and promotional rights or other rights governed by the New Jersey Department of Personnel; nor is this Article intended to modify management's computation or application of seniority when implementing Article III (Salaries).

XXIII - Posting of Vacancies

Whenever an opportunity for promotion occurs or a job opening occurs in other than a temporary situation in any existing job classification, or as result of the development or establishment of a new job classification, the Vicinage Chief Probation Officer shall have such vacancy prominently posted in the main office and each branch office. At the time of the posting, the Vicinage Chief shall also provide the Union representative with a copy of the posting notice. - f. To demote, suspend, discharge or otherwise take disciplinary action for just cause against "permanent" employees in accordance with applicable statutes and court rules;
- g. To promulgate rules and regulations from time to time, which may affect the orderly and efficient administration of the probation department. It is understood that such rules and regulations as ordered by statute, court rule or court policy, may be instituted without prior notice and that other regulations covering local working conditions will be instituted upon notification by the Vicinage Chief Probation Officer, which need not be in writing.

Section 2

The parties to this Agreement acknowledge that the New Jersey Constitution, Statutes and Court Rules provide for the involvement of the Chief Justice and the Supreme Court, the Administrative Director of the Courts and The Assignment Judge of the County in the administration of the probation department. The parties hereby recognize and agree to respond and comply to the requests, promulgated standards and pronouncements of these aforementioned parties as they exercise their lawful rights.

Section 3

The Assignment Judge and Management's use and enjoyment of their powers, rights, authority, duties and responsibilities, the adoption of its policies and practices or the promulgation of rules and regulations in furtherance thereof, and the exercise of discretion pursuant thereto, shall be limited only by the terms of this Agreement and to the extent same conform to the court rules and other laws of New Jersey and the United States.

Section 4

Nothing contained in this Agreement shall operate to restrict the Assignment Judge and Management in the exercise of their rights, responsibilities and authority pursuant to the laws of this State or of the United States.

ARTICLE XXV - New Jersey Department of Personnel (formerly Civil Service)

The administrative and procedural provisions and controls of the New Jersey Department of Personnel (formerly Civil Service) and the Rules and Regulations promulgated thereunder are to be observed in the administration of this Agreement with respect to classified employees governed by this Agreement, except to the extent that this Agreement is contrary to or in conflict with such provisions and controls and except to the extent inconsistent with New Jersey Supreme Court rules and policies governing administration of the courts.

ARTICLE XXVI - Grievance Procedure

The parties agree that a complaint or grievance of any principal probation officer relating to the interpretation, application or violation of policies, agreements and administrative decisions affecting them, if not otherwise provided for in law or in applicable rules and regulations having the force and effect of law, shall be settled in the following manner:

Step 1

The grievance shall first be taken to the officer's immediate supervisor who shall make an effort to resolve the problem within a reasonable period of time; within three (3) working days. At this level, a complaint or grievance need not be in writing. The time limit in this step may be extended by mutual consent.

Step 2

If not resolved at the supervisory level, the grievance shall be put in writing, on the grievance form approved by the parties, signed by the aggrieved officer and submitted to the Vicinage Chief Probation Officer or his designee, who shall acknowledge its receipt within three (3) working days and shall render a decision within five (5) working days thereafter on the approved grievance form. In the case of absence of the Vicinage Chief Probation Officer, the grievance may be handled by a designated assistant or it may proceed to the next step with the approval of both parties. The time limit in this step may be extended by mutual consent.

Step 3

If the aggrieved officer is not satisfied with the decision of the Vicinage Chief Probation Officer, he/she may choose to utilize one of the following two options:

- a. The officer may appeal to the New Jersey Department of Personnel under the laws and rules governing the operation of that agency provided that the Merit System Board agrees to hear the case;
- b. He/She may appeal to the Superior Court Assignment Judge, on the approved grievance form, in which case the decision of the Assignment Judge or his designee shall be final and shall be rendered with reasonable promptness. The Assignment Judge may designate any Court employee or other representative who is not an employee of the Courts to hear and make recommendations to him for disposition.

All grievances and complaints that are related to judicial policy and/or the authority of the Chief Justice, Supreme Court, Administrative Director of the Courts or the Assignment Judge under Rule 1:34-4 and any other applicable statute or court rule shall be limited to Step 3(b). In using the grievance procedure established herewith, an employee is entitled at each step to be represented by an attorney of his/her own choosing, and/or by a bona fide member of the Union designated to represent him/her pursuant to this Agreement.

Notwithstanding any procedures for the resolution of disputes, controversies or grievances established by any other statute, grievance procedures established by agreement between the public employer and the representative organization shall be utilized for any dispute covered by the terms of such agreement.

ARTICLE XXVII - Personnel Files

Each officer shall have access to his/her own personnel files during reasonable working hours upon notification to the Vicinage Chief Probation Officer. Each document shall be initialed by the employee concerned upon his/her examination. The signature affixed by the employee to any document in such file shall not indicate in any way that the employee agreed with the contents of the file. The signature will be affixed only to show the file has been reviewed in accord with the present Agreement. The employee shall have the right to respond in writing to any document in the file. Such response shall become part of the personnel file.

ARTICLE XXVIII - Non-discrimination

The Employer will not discriminate against any principal probation officer covered by this Agreement because of the employee's race, creed, color, sex, age, union affiliation, or national origin.

ARTICLE XXIX - Maintenance of Benefits

All benefits recognized by the Assignment Judge as benefits and within his exclusive control and in effect at the commencement of this Agreement shall be retained during the term of this Agreement unless modified or abridged by the provisions contained in this Agreement.

ARTICLE XXX - Severability

In the event any Federal or State Law, or any determination having the force and effect of law (including rules, regulations or directives of the Chief Justice, Supreme Court of New Jersey, or Administrative Director of the Courts) conflicts with the provisions of this Agreement, the provision or provisions so affected shall no longer be operative or binding upon the parties, but the remaining portion of the Agreement shall continue in full force and effect. The parties will meet within thirty (30) days to renegotiate the item so severed.

ARTICLE XXXI - Conclusiveness of Agreement

The Agreement constitutes the final and complete understanding between the parties of all negotiable issues, subject to the right of the parties to reopen discussion on any such issue, but only by their mutual consent and upon the happening of some unforeseen event.

ARTICLE XXXIII - Duration of Agreement
